

2000 Essential English Chunks

Real phrases Americans actually use in daily life....

A1–C2 • Speaking • Shadowing • Daily Immersion

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1 — What's up?

Means: A casual way to say "How are you?" or "What are you doing?"

Example: "Hey, what's up? I haven't seen you all week."

#2 — How's it going?

Means: Asking about someone's life or current situation in a friendly way.

Example: "Hi Mark! How's it going with your new job?"

#3 — Can't complain.

Means: Everything is fine; things are going well (response to 'How are you?').

Example: "A: How have you been? B: Can't complain, life is good."

#4 — Long time no see.

Means: Said when you haven't seen someone for a long period.

Example: "Oh wow, Sarah! Long time no see! You look great."

#5 — How do you know?

Means: Asking for the source of information.

Example: "How do you know that they are getting married?"

#6 — That explains it.

Means: Said when you finally understand the reason behind something.

Example: "Oh, he lived in Spain for years? That explains it why his Spanish is perfect."

#7 — It's not worth it.

Means: Used to say that something is not important enough to spend time/money/effort on.

Example: "Don't get angry at him over a small mistake, it's not worth it."

#8 — Help yourself.

Means: Giving permission to someone to use or take something (usually food/drink).

Example: "The cookies are on the table, please help yourself."

#9 — Make yourself at home.

Means: Telling a guest to feel comfortable and relaxed in your house.

Example: "Come in, take off your coat and make yourself at home."

#10 — Sorry to bother you.

Means: A polite way to interrupt someone or ask a question.

Example: "Sorry to bother you, but do you have the time?"

#11 — Take your time.

Means: Telling someone there is no need to hurry.

Example: "I'm still looking for my keys. - No problem, take your time."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#12 — It's on me.

Means: Saying that you will pay for something (usually a bill or drinks).

Example: "Put your wallet away, lunch is on me today."

#13 — I'm tied up.

Means: Being very busy and unable to do anything else.

Example: "I can't meet you for coffee right now, I'm tied up at the office."

#14 — Never mind.

Means: Telling someone not to worry about something or that it's not important.

Example: "What did you say? - Never mind, it wasn't important."

#15 — I'll get it.

Means: Saying you will answer the phone or the door (or pay the bill).

Example: "The doorbell is ringing! - Don't worry, I'll get it."

#16 — Good for you!

Means: Used to show you are happy for someone's success or luck.

Example: "I finally passed my driving test! - That's great, good for you!"

#17 — I'm on my way.

Means: Stating that you have started your journey and are coming.

Example: "Where are you? - I'm on my way, I'll be there in 10 minutes."

#18 — Keep in touch.

Means: Asking someone to maintain communication in the future.

Example: "It was great seeing you again. Let's keep in touch!"

#19 — I have no idea.

Means: A strong way to say 'I don't know.'

Example: "Where did I leave my glasses? - I have no idea, check the kitchen."

#20 — It doesn't matter.

Means: Saying that something is not important or won't change the result.

Example: "I forgot to bring the snacks. - It doesn't matter, we have plenty of food."

#21 — I'm looking forward to it.

Means: Feeling excited about something that is going to happen.

Example: "Are you coming to the party? - Yes, I'm really looking forward to it!"

#22 — It's up to you.

Means: Telling someone that they are the one to make the decision.

Example: "Do you want pizza or burgers? - I don't mind, it's up to you."

#23 — Give me a hand.

Means: Asking someone for help (usually physical assistance).

Example: "This box is very heavy, can you give me a hand?"

#24 — Just a moment.

Means: Asking someone to wait for a short period of time.

Example: "Can I speak to Mr. Smith? - Just a moment, let me check if he's in."

#25 — Catch you later.

Means: A casual way of saying goodbye, implying you'll see them again.

Example: "I have to go to class now. - Okay, catch you later!"

#26 — Keep me posted.

Means: Asking someone to keep you informed about the latest news/situation.

Example: "Good luck with the interview, keep me posted on how it goes."

#27 — Let me know.

Means: Asking someone to inform you about something.

Example: "If you need any help with the project, just let me know."

#28 — Sounds good.

Means: Expressing agreement or approval of a suggestion/plan.

Example: "Let's meet at 8 PM. - Sounds good, see you then."

#29 — What a shame.

Means: Expressing regret or disappointment about a situation.

Example: "The concert was cancelled? Oh, what a shame!"

#30 — Fair enough.

Means: Admitting that something is reasonable or acceptable.

Example: "I can't come because I have to work. - Fair enough, maybe next time."

#31 — By the way.

Means: Introducing a new topic or adding information to the conversation.

Example: "I like your shoes. By the way, did you finish the report?"

#32 — Hang on a second.

Means: Asking someone to wait for a very short moment (informal).

Example: "Hang on a second, I think I left my phone in the car."

#33 — Are you kidding me?

Means: Expressing disbelief or shock (can be positive or negative).

Example: "You won the lottery? Are you kidding me?"

#34 — Don't mention it.

Means: A polite response to 'Thank you' (similar to 'You're welcome').

Example: "Thanks for the ride home. - Don't mention it, happy to help."

#35 — Get well soon.

Means: Wishing someone a quick recovery from illness.

Example: "I heard you have the flu. Get well soon!"

#36 — Have a good one.

Means: A general way to say 'Have a nice day/evening' when saying goodbye.

Example: "Thanks for shopping with us. Have a good one!"

#37 — Take it easy.

Means: Telling someone to relax or not to work too hard; also used as goodbye.

Example: "You look stressed, you need to take it easy this weekend."

#38 — It's not a big deal.

Means: Saying that a problem is small and not worth worrying about.

Example: "I spilled some water on the floor. - Don't worry, it's not a big deal."

#39 — What's the matter?

Means: Asking what the problem is when someone looks upset or worried.

Example: "You look sad. What's the matter?"

#40 — Mind your own business.

Means: Rude way of telling someone not to ask about private matters.

Example: "How much money do you make? - Mind your own business!"

#41 — So far, so good.

Means: Progress is satisfactory up to this point.

Example: "How is the new project going? - So far, so good."

#42 — Keep it up.

Means: Encouraging someone to continue doing a good job.

Example: "Your grades are excellent this semester. Keep it up!"

#43 — No worries.

Means: Informal way to say 'It's okay' or 'You're welcome.'

Example: "Sorry for being late. - No worries, we just started."

#44 — Be right back.

Means: Saying you will leave for a moment and return very quickly.

Example: "I need to use the restroom, I'll be right back."

#45 — Guess what?

Means: Used to introduce surprising or exciting news.

Example: "Guess what? We are going to Hawaii for vacation!"

#46 — Believe it or not.

Means: Used to introduce something that is true but surprising.

Example: "Believe it or not, I used to be a professional swimmer."

#47 — It's easier said than done.

Means: Saying that something is a good idea in theory but hard to do in practice.

Example: "Just quit your job if you hate it. - Well, it's easier said than done."

#48 — Make up your mind.

Means: Telling someone to make a decision.

Example: "We have been standing here for 10 minutes. Please make up your mind!"

#49 — Give it a shot.

Means: To try to do something.

Example: "I've never played golf, but I'll give it a shot."

#50 — Speak of the devil.

Means: Said when the person you were just talking about appears.

Example: "We were just talking about John. Oh, speak of the devil, here he is!"

#51 — Time flies.

Means: Used to say that time passes very quickly.

Example: "I can't believe it's already December. Time flies!"

#52 — Let's call it a day.

Means: To stop working on something for the rest of the day.

Example: "We have done enough work. Let's call it a day and go home."

#53 — Sooner or later.

Means: Used to say that something will definitely happen eventually.

Example: "He will realize his mistake sooner or later."

#54 — By all means.

Means: A polite way to give permission or say 'yes'.

Example: "Can I borrow your pen? - By all means."

#55 — It's high time.

Means: Used to say it is time to do something that should have been done long ago.

Example: "It's high time you cleaned your room."

#56 — In the meantime.

Means: During the time before something else happens.

Example: "The doctor will be here soon. In the meantime, please fill out this form."

#57 — First things first.

Means: Used to say that the most important things should be done before anything else.

Example: "I want to hear the story, but first things first, let's order some food."

#58 — Wait and see.

Means: Used to tell someone to be patient to discover what will happen.

Example: "What is my birthday gift? - You'll have to wait and see."

#59 — Make a living.

Means: To earn enough money to support oneself.

Example: "It is difficult to make a living as an artist."

#60 — Change your mind.

Means: To change your decision or opinion.

Example: "I was going to sell the car, but I changed my mind."

#61 — Keep a promise.

Means: To do what you said you would do.

Example: "If you can't keep a promise, don't make it."

#62 — Get rid of.

Means: To throw away or remove something you don't want.

Example: "I need to get rid of these old clothes."

#63 — Give it a try.

Means: To attempt to do something.

Example: "I'm not good at cooking, but I'll give it a try."

#64 — Out of the blue.

Means: Happening suddenly and unexpectedly.

Example: "She called me out of the blue after five years."

#65 — Ring a bell.

Means: To sound familiar, but you can't remember the exact details.

Example: "The name rings a bell, but I can't remember his face."

#66 — Piece of cake.

Means: Something that is very easy to do.

Example: "The math exam was a piece of cake."

#67 — Break the ice.

Means: To say or do something to make people feel more comfortable.

Example: "He told a joke to break the ice at the meeting."

#68 — Cost a fortune.

Means: To be very expensive.

Example: "That luxury car must cost a fortune."

#69 — Make sense.

Means: To be clear and easy to understand.

Example: "His explanation didn't make sense to me."

#70 — Pay attention.

Means: To listen or watch carefully.

Example: "Please pay attention to what I am saying."

#71 — Take place.

Means: To happen or occur.

Example: "The conference will take place in New York next month."

#72 — On purpose.

Means: Intentionally; not by accident.

Example: "He broke the vase on purpose because he was angry."

#73 — In a hurry.

Means: Moving or doing things quickly because you don't have time.

Example: "I can't talk right now, I'm in a hurry."

#74 — Run out of.

Means: To use all of something and have none left.

Example: "We have run out of milk, I need to go to the store."

#75 — Look after.

Means: To take care of someone or something.

Example: "Can you look after my cat while I'm on holiday?"

#76 — Fed up with.

Means: Bored, annoyed, or disappointed, especially by something that you have experienced for too long.

Example: "I am fed up with this rainy weather."

#77 — Get down to business.

Means: To start talking about the main topic/work seriously.

Example: "Okay everyone, let's stop chatting and get down to business."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#78 — Keep me in the loop.

Means: To keep someone informed about what is happening.

Example: "Please keep me in the loop regarding the project updates."

#79 — Touch base.

Means: To briefly contact someone to update them or get an update.

Example: "I just wanted to touch base with you before the meeting."

#80 — ASAP.

Means: Abbreviation for 'As Soon As Possible'.

Example: "I need this report on my desk ASAP."

#81 — Behind schedule.

Means: To be late or not progressing as fast as planned.

Example: "We are falling behind schedule, we need to work faster."

#82 — Ahead of schedule.

Means: To finish something earlier than planned.

Example: "Great news, the construction is ahead of schedule."

#83 — Call it a meeting.

Means: To finish a meeting.

Example: "We covered everything. Let's call it a meeting."

#84 — Look forward to.

Means: To anticipate something with pleasure (formal/business usage).

Example: "I look forward to meeting you next week."

#85 — On the same page.

Means: To be in agreement or have the same understanding.

Example: "I want to make sure we are all on the same page before we begin."

#86 — Think outside the box.

Means: To think creatively and in a new way.

Example: "We need to think outside the box to solve this problem."

#87 — Win-win situation.

Means: A situation where everyone involved benefits.

Example: "This deal is a win-win situation for both companies."

#88 — Get the ball rolling.

Means: To start a process or activity.

Example: "Let's have a brainstorming session to get the ball rolling."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#89 — Multitasking.

Means: Doing more than one thing at the same time.

Example: "She is very good at multitasking under pressure."

#90 — Deadline.

Means: The latest time or date by which something should be completed.

Example: "The deadline for the application is this Friday."

#91 — Brainstorm.

Means: To produce an idea or way of solving a problem by holding a spontaneous group discussion.

Example: "Let's brainstorm some ideas for the new marketing campaign."

#92 — Burnout.

Means: Physical or mental collapse caused by overwork or stress.

Example: "He took a vacation to avoid burnout."

#93 — Call off.

Means: To cancel something.

Example: "They had to call off the meeting because the boss was sick."

#94 — Figure out.

Means: To understand or solve a problem.

Example: "We need to figure out how to increase sales."

#95 — Hands are tied.

Means: Being unable to help or act because of rules/restrictions.

Example: "I'd love to give you a discount, but my hands are tied."

#96 — In the red.

Means: Spending more money than you earn; losing money.

Example: "The company has been in the red for three months."

#97 — In the black.

Means: Earning more money than you spend; making a profit.

Example: "After a tough year, we are finally in the black."

#98 — Networking.

Means: Interacting with other people to exchange information and develop contacts.

Example: "Networking is essential for finding a good job."

#99 — State of the art.

Means: Very modern and using the most recent ideas and methods.

Example: "Our new office has state-of-the-art technology."

#100 — Word of mouth.

Means: Information passed orally from person to person.

Example: "We get most of our clients through word of mouth."

#101 — Cut to the chase.

Means: To start talking about the important aspects of a subject.

Example: "We don't have much time, so let's cut to the chase."

#102 — Back to the drawing board.

Means: To start a task all over again because it failed.

Example: "The client rejected our proposal, so it's back to the drawing board."

#103 — Call it a day.

Means: To stop working, usually because you have done enough or are tired.

Example: "It's 6 PM already. Let's call it a day."

#104 — Go the extra mile.

Means: To do more than is expected of you.

Example: "She is a great employee because she always goes the extra mile."

#105 — In the loop.

Means: Part of the group of people who have information about something.

Example: "Don't worry, I'll keep you in the loop about the negotiations."

#106 — Learn the ropes.

Means: To learn how to do a job or activity.

Example: "It took me a few weeks to learn the ropes at my new job."

#107 — Rock the boat.

Means: To do or say something that will upset people or cause trouble.

Example: "Everything is going well, so please don't rock the boat."

#108 — Slack off.

Means: To work less hard than you usually do or should do.

Example: "He was fired because he started to slack off."

#109 — Think on your feet.

Means: To make a quick decision or give an answer quickly.

Example: "In this job, you need to be able to think on your feet."

#110 — Up in the air.

Means: Uncertain or not yet decided.

Example: "Our vacation plans are still up in the air."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#111 — Get the sack.

Means: To be dismissed from your job.

Example: "He got the sack for being late every day."

#112 — Off the clock.

Means: Not currently working; on own time.

Example: "Don't ask me about work, I'm off the clock."

#113 — Nine to five.

Means: A regular job with standard working hours.

Example: "I'm tired of the nine to five routine; I want to start my own business."

#114 — Climb the corporate ladder.

Means: To advance in your career within a company.

Example: "She is ambitious and wants to climb the corporate ladder quickly."

#115 — Bring to the table.

Means: To provide something that will be a benefit.

Example: "What skills do you bring to the table?"

#116 — By the book.

Means: Strictly according to the rules.

Example: "My manager likes to do everything by the book."

#117 — Big picture.

Means: The overall perspective or objective, not just the small details.

Example: "Don't worry about the small error, look at the big picture."

#118 — Pink slip.

Means: A notice of dismissal from employment.

Example: "Due to budget cuts, many employees received a pink slip today."

#119 — Severance package.

Means: Pay and benefits employees receive when they leave employment at a company.

Example: "He received a generous severance package after being laid off."

#120 — Micro-manage.

Means: To control every part of a business or system in a way that is not necessary.

Example: "Nobody likes a boss who micro-manages everything."

#121 — Check in.

Means: To report your arrival (at a hotel or airport).

Example: "We need to check in at the hotel before 2 PM."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#122 — Check out.

Means: To settle your bill and leave a hotel.

Example: "What time do we have to check out tomorrow?"

#123 — One-way ticket.

Means: A ticket for travel to a place but not back again.

Example: "I bought a one-way ticket to Paris."

#124 — Round trip.

Means: A journey to a place and back again.

Example: "A round trip ticket is usually cheaper than two one-way tickets."

#125 — Carry-on luggage.

Means: Small bags that you can take onto an airplane with you.

Example: "Do you have any checked bags or just carry-on luggage?"

#126 — Boarding pass.

Means: The document that allows you to get on a plane.

Example: "Please have your boarding pass and passport ready."

#127 — Jet lag.

Means: Extreme tiredness caused by flying across time zones.

Example: "I'm suffering from jet lag after the flight from Tokyo."

#128 — Sightseeing.

Means: The activity of visiting interesting places, especially by tourists.

Example: "We are going sightseeing in Rome tomorrow."

#129 — Book a flight.

Means: To buy a plane ticket.

Example: "I need to book a flight to London for next week."

#130 — Fully booked.

Means: When a hotel or restaurant has no space left.

Example: "I tried to get a table, but the restaurant is fully booked."

#131 — Hit the road.

Means: To begin a journey.

Example: "It's getting late, we should hit the road."

#132 — Travel light.

Means: To travel with very little luggage.

Example: "I prefer to travel light, just a backpack."

#133 — Off the beaten track.

Means: A place where few people go, far from main roads/tourist sites.

Example: "We found a beautiful village off the beaten track."

#134 — Table for two.

Means: Standard phrase to ask for a restaurant table for two people.

Example: "Good evening, a table for two, please."

#135 — Can I have the bill?

Means: Asking to pay in a restaurant.

Example: "Excuse me, waiter? Can I have the bill, please?"

#136 — Keep the change.

Means: Telling someone (waiter/taxi driver) to keep the extra money as a tip.

Example: "Here is 20 dollars. Keep the change."

#137 — I'm stuffed.

Means: Informal way to say you are very full after eating.

Example: "I can't eat another bite, I'm stuffed."

#138 — My treat.

Means: Used to tell someone that you will pay for them.

Example: "Put your money away, dinner is my treat."

#139 — On the house.

Means: Given away free by the restaurant/bar.

Example: "These drinks are on the house."

#140 — Cheers!

Means: A toast used when drinking; also informal for 'thanks' or 'goodbye' in UK.

Example: "Here's to our success. Cheers!"

#141 — Make a reservation.

Means: To book a table or room in advance.

Example: "You should make a reservation, this place is popular."

#142 — What do you recommend?

Means: Asking for advice on what to choose (food, places).

Example: "I've never eaten here before. What do you recommend?"

#143 — Excuse me.

Means: Polite way to get someone's attention or apologize for moving past.

Example: "Excuse me, is this seat taken?"

#144 — Could you do me a favor?

Means: Asking someone for help politely.

Example: "Could you do me a favor and take a photo of us?"

#145 — Nice to meet you.

Means: Standard greeting when meeting someone for the first time.

Example: "I've heard a lot about you. Nice to meet you."

#146 — Same here.

Means: Used to say that you feel the same way.

Example: "I'm really tired. - Yeah, same here."

#147 — Break a leg.

Means: A way to wish someone good luck (usually before a performance).

Example: "I know you'll do great on stage. Break a leg!"

#148 — Fingers crossed.

Means: Hoping that something will happen the way you want.

Example: "I have a job interview tomorrow. Fingers crossed!"

#149 — Bless you.

Means: Said to someone after they sneeze.

Example: "Atchoo! - Bless you."

#150 — It's a small world.

Means: Said when you see someone you know in an unexpected place.

Example: "I met my neighbor in Paris! It's a small world."

#151 — I'm over the moon.

Means: Extremely happy and excited.

Example: "She was over the moon about her new job."

#152 — I'm feeling blue.

Means: Feeling sad or depressed.

Example: "He's been feeling blue since his girlfriend left."

#153 — It drives me crazy.

Means: It annoys me very much.

Example: "People chewing with their mouth open drives me crazy."

#154 — I'm fed up.

Means: Bored or annoyed with something that has been happening for too long.

Example: "I'm fed up with this traffic every morning."

#155 — I can't stand.

Means: To hate or strongly dislike something/someone.

Example: "I can't stand rude people."

#156 — To be honest.

Means: Used when telling someone your true opinion.

Example: "To be honest, I didn't like the movie."

#157 — In my opinion.

Means: Used to introduce your personal view.

Example: "In my opinion, this is the best restaurant in town."

#158 — I see your point.

Means: Understanding what someone is trying to say/argue.

Example: "I see your point, but I still disagree."

#159 — I couldn't agree more.

Means: Strongly agreeing with someone.

Example: "That was a fantastic presentation. - I couldn't agree more."

#160 — Let's agree to disagree.

Means: Accepting that you will not agree, so you stop arguing.

Example: "We are never going to agree on politics, so let's agree to disagree."

#161 — It tears me apart.

Means: Making you feel very unhappy or upset.

Example: "It tears me apart to see stray animals suffering."

#162 — On cloud nine.

Means: Being extremely happy.

Example: "When he won the lottery, he was on cloud nine."

#163 — Down in the dumps.

Means: Feeling unhappy or without hope.

Example: "He looks a bit down in the dumps today."

#164 — Scared to death.

Means: Extremely frightened.

Example: "I was scared to death when I saw the spider."

#165 — Butterflies in my stomach.

Means: Feeling nervous (usually about love or a performance).

Example: "I get butterflies in my stomach every time I see her."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#166 — Make my day.

Means: To make someone feel very happy.

Example: "Your compliment really made my day."

#167 — Get on my nerves.

Means: To annoy someone a lot.

Example: "Please stop whistling, it's getting on my nerves."

#168 — Blow my mind.

Means: To impress someone very much.

Example: "The special effects in that movie blew my mind."

#169 — Mixed feelings.

Means: Feeling both positive and negative about something.

Example: "I have mixed feelings about moving to a new city."

#170 — Sick and tired.

Means: Thoroughly bored with or annoyed by something.

Example: "I am sick and tired of your excuses."

#171 — Look on the bright side.

Means: To find good things in a bad situation.

Example: "It's raining, but look on the bright side, the plants need water."

#172 — Under the weather.

Means: Feeling slightly sick or not well.

Example: "I'm feeling a bit under the weather, I think I'll stay home."

#173 — Take it personal.

Means: To be offended by something that wasn't meant to be offensive.

Example: "It was just a joke, don't take it personal."

#174 — No hard feelings.

Means: Used to say you are not angry after an argument/event.

Example: "I'm sorry I got the job instead of you. - It's okay, no hard feelings."

#175 — Speak your mind.

Means: To say exactly what you think.

Example: "Don't be afraid to speak your mind at the meeting."

#176 — Ease my mind.

Means: To stop worrying.

Example: "Checking the locks helped to ease my mind."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#177 — Lose my temper.

Means: To suddenly become very angry.

Example: "I'm sorry I lost my temper and shouted at you."

#178 — Keep a cool head.

Means: To stay calm in a difficult situation.

Example: "Panic won't help; we need to keep a cool head."

#179 — Feel free.

Means: Used to give permission to do something.

Example: "Feel free to call me if you have any questions."

#180 — Hard to swallow.

Means: Difficult to accept/believe.

Example: "The news of his failure was hard to swallow."

#181 — Beside myself.

Means: In an extreme state of emotion (worry/happiness).

Example: "She was beside herself with worry when he didn't come home."

#182 — At the end of my rope.

Means: Having no patience or energy left to deal with a difficult situation.

Example: "The baby has been crying all night, I'm at the end of my rope."

#183 — Bite your tongue.

Means: To stop yourself from saying something that might upset someone.

Example: "I wanted to argue, but I decided to bite my tongue."

#184 — Give the cold shoulder.

Means: To intentionally ignore someone or treat them in an unfriendly way.

Example: "She gave him the cold shoulder after their argument."

#185 — Get something off your chest.

Means: To talk about something that has been worrying you.

Example: "You look stressed. You need to get something off your chest."

#186 — Have a heart.

Means: To be kind and compassionate.

Example: "Don't give him a ticket, officer. Have a heart!"

#187 — Wear your heart on your sleeve.

Means: To show your feelings openly.

Example: "You always know how he feels; he wears his heart on his sleeve."

#188 — Head over heels.

Means: Falling deeply in love.

Example: "He fell head over heels for her the moment they met."

#189 — Green with envy.

Means: Very jealous.

Example: "When she saw my new car, she was green with envy."

#190 — See red.

Means: To become very angry suddenly.

Example: "When he lied to my face, I just saw red."

#191 — Feeling low.

Means: Feeling unhappy or without energy.

Example: "I'm feeling a bit low today, maybe I need some chocolate."

#192 — Jump for joy.

Means: To be extremely happy.

Example: "The kids jumped for joy when we told them about Disney World."

#193 — Make a fuss.

Means: To worry or complain about something small.

Example: "It's just a small scratch, don't make a fuss."

#194 — Throw a fit.

Means: To get very angry and scream/shout (often used for children).

Example: "The toddler threw a fit in the supermarket."

#195 — Torn between.

Means: Finding it difficult to choose between two possibilities.

Example: "I'm torn between buying the red dress or the blue one."

#196 — Worrywart.

Means: A person who worries too much about unimportant things.

Example: "Don't be such a worrywart, everything will be fine."

#197 — Full of beans.

Means: Having a lot of energy and enthusiasm.

Example: "The kids are full of beans today."

#198 — Down to earth.

Means: Practical, reasonable, and friendly.

Example: "Even though he is famous, he is very down to earth."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#199 — Happy camper.

Means: A satisfied and happy person.

Example: "Give him a pizza and he is a happy camper."

#200 — Have a blast.

Means: To have a very good time.

Example: "Enjoy the party! I hope you have a blast."

#201 — At the end of the day.

Means: Used to give the most important fact after considering everything.

Example: "It was a hard decision, but at the end of the day, it was the right one."

#202 — Make sure.

Means: To take action so that you are certain that something happens.

Example: "Please make sure you lock the door when you leave."

#203 — Get used to.

Means: To become familiar with something new.

Example: "It took me a while to get used to waking up early."

#204 — Just in case.

Means: To be safe/prepared if something happens.

Example: "Take an umbrella just in case it rains."

#205 — At least.

Means: Not less than; used to emphasize a positive aspect.

Example: "It was a bad accident, but at least nobody was hurt."

#206 — By mistake.

Means: Accidentally; not on purpose.

Example: "I took your phone by mistake, sorry!"

#207 — Out of order.

Means: Not working (for machines).

Example: "The elevator is out of order, we have to use the stairs."

#208 — Brand new.

Means: Completely new.

Example: "She bought a brand new car yesterday."

#209 — First of all.

Means: Used to introduce the first point in a list.

Example: "First of all, I want to thank everyone for coming."

#210 — In other words.

Means: Used to explain something more simply.

Example: "He was fired. In other words, he doesn't have a job anymore."

#211 — On the other hand.

Means: Used to introduce a contrasting point.

Example: "I want to go to the party, but on the other hand, I have to study."

#212 — As a result.

Means: Therefore; because of something.

Example: "It rained heavily. As a result, the game was cancelled."

#213 — For instance.

Means: For example.

Example: "There are many healthy foods, for instance, apples and oranges."

#214 — Pros and cons.

Means: The advantages and disadvantages of something.

Example: "We need to weigh the pros and cons before making a decision."

#215 — Step by step.

Means: Doing something gradually, one stage at a time.

Example: "Follow the instructions step by step."

#216 — Ups and downs.

Means: A mixture of good and bad things in life/relationship.

Example: "Every marriage has its ups and downs."

#217 — Safe and sound.

Means: Completely safe and without injury.

Example: "We arrived home safe and sound."

#218 — Wait a minute.

Means: Used to ask someone to stop or wait briefly.

Example: "Wait a minute, I think I forgot my wallet."

#219 — Hold on.

Means: To wait (often used on the phone).

Example: "Hold on, I will transfer your call."

#220 — Common sense.

Means: Good sense and sound judgment in practical matters.

Example: "You don't need a degree for this, just use your common sense."

#221 — Find out.

Means: To discover a fact or piece of information.

Example: "I need to find out what time the train leaves."

#222 — Figure it out.

Means: To solve a problem or understand something.

Example: "Don't worry about the math problem, we will figure it out together."

#223 — Look for.

Means: To search for something or someone.

Example: "I am looking for my keys, have you seen them?"

#224 — Look into.

Means: To investigate or examine something.

Example: "The manager said he would look into the customer's complaint."

#225 — Run into.

Means: To meet someone by chance.

Example: "I ran into my old teacher at the supermarket."

#226 — Show up.

Means: To arrive or appear.

Example: "He promised to come, but he didn't show up."

#227 — Come up with.

Means: To produce or create (an idea, a plan).

Example: "We need to come up with a better plan."

#228 — Deal with.

Means: To handle or solve a problem/situation.

Example: "I have a lot of emails to deal with today."

#229 — Count on.

Means: To rely on someone or trust them.

Example: "You can always count on me for help."

#230 — Turn out.

Means: To happen in a particular way (unexpectedly).

Example: "The movie turned out to be better than I expected."

#231 — Break down.

Means: To stop working (vehicle/machine) or lose control of emotions.

Example: "My car broke down on the highway."

#232 — Call back.

Means: To return a phone call.

Example: "I'm busy right now, can I call you back?"

#233 — Calm down.

Means: To become less angry or excited.

Example: "Please calm down and tell me what happened."

#234 — Catch up.

Means: To reach the same standard as others or talk to an old friend.

Example: "I need to study this weekend to catch up with the class."

#235 — Drop off.

Means: To take someone/something to a place and leave them there.

Example: "Can you drop me off at the airport?"

#236 — Pick up.

Means: To collect someone/something.

Example: "I will pick you up from work at 5 PM."

#237 — Fill in.

Means: To write information in a form.

Example: "Please fill in this form with your details."

#238 — Give up.

Means: To stop trying or quit.

Example: "The puzzle was hard, but I didn't give up."

#239 — Go on.

Means: To continue.

Example: "Please go on, I am listening."

#240 — Grow up.

Means: To become an adult.

Example: "I grew up in a small town."

#241 — Hang out.

Means: To spend time relaxing with people (informal).

Example: "We usually hang out at the park on weekends."

#242 — Hold on.

Means: To wait.

Example: "Hold on a second, I'm almost ready."

#243 — Keep on.

Means: To continue doing something.

Example: "He kept on talking even though nobody was listening."

#244 — Look forward to.

Means: To be excited about something in the future.

Example: "I look forward to seeing you again."

#245 — Pass out.

Means: To lose consciousness/faint.

Example: "It was so hot that I almost passed out."

#246 — Put off.

Means: To postpone/delay something.

Example: "We had to put off the meeting until next week."

#247 — Put up with.

Means: To tolerate something annoying.

Example: "I can't put up with this noise anymore."

#248 — Run out of.

Means: To have none left.

Example: "We ran out of coffee this morning."

#249 — Set up.

Means: To organize or arrange something.

Example: "He set up a meeting with the investors."

#250 — Turn down.

Means: To refuse an offer or lower the volume.

Example: "She turned down the job offer."

#251 — Turn up.

Means: To increase volume or to arrive.

Example: "Can you turn up the music?"

#252 — Watch out.

Means: To be careful.

Example: "Watch out! There is a car coming."

#253 — Work out.

Means: To exercise or to find a solution.

Example: "I work out at the gym three times a week."

#254 — Get along with.

Means: To have a good relationship with someone.

Example: "I get along well with my colleagues."

#255 — Look down on.

Means: To think you are better than someone.

Example: "He looks down on people who don't have a degree."

#256 — Look up to.

Means: To admire and respect someone.

Example: "I have always looked up to my father."

#257 — Take off.

Means: To remove clothes or for a plane to leave the ground.

Example: "Please take off your shoes inside."

#258 — Try on.

Means: To put on clothes to see if they fit.

Example: "Can I try on this jacket?"

#259 — Turn on.

Means: To start a machine/light.

Example: "Turn on the light, it's dark in here."

#260 — Turn off.

Means: To stop a machine/light.

Example: "Don't forget to turn off the TV."

#261 — Sick of.

Means: Very annoyed with something.

Example: "I am sick of listening to his complaints."

#262 — Get over.

Means: To recover from something (illness or breakup).

Example: "It took her a long time to get over the divorce."

#263 — Let down.

Means: To disappoint someone.

Example: "I trusted you, don't let me down."

#264 — Cheer up.

Means: To become happier or make someone happier.

Example: "Cheer up! Things will get better."

#265 — Freak out.

Means: To become very anxious or emotional suddenly.

Example: "Don't freak out, but I lost your car keys."

#266 — Fill out.

Means: To complete a form (US English mostly).

Example: "You need to fill out this application."

#267 — Hand in.

Means: To submit work/assignment.

Example: "Please hand in your reports by Friday."

#268 — Take over.

Means: To get control of something.

Example: "The new manager will take over next week."

#269 — Burn out.

Means: To become extremely tired from working too hard.

Example: "If you work 12 hours a day, you will burn out."

#270 — Lay off.

Means: To stop employing someone (usually due to lack of work).

Example: "The company had to lay off 50 workers."

#271 — Do the laundry.

Means: To wash the clothes.

Example: "I usually do the laundry on Sundays."

#272 — Do the dishes.

Means: To wash the plates and cups.

Example: "You cook, and I'll do the dishes."

#273 — Make the bed.

Means: To arrange the covers on a bed.

Example: "I make the bed every morning."

#274 — Take a nap.

Means: To sleep for a short time during the day.

Example: "I'm tired, I'm going to take a nap."

#275 — Get ready.

Means: To prepare (to go out).

Example: "Give me 10 minutes to get ready."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#276 — Get dressed.

Means: To put clothes on.

Example: "Get dressed quickly, we are late."

#277 — Take a shower.

Means: To wash your body standing up.

Example: "I take a shower every morning."

#278 — Have breakfast.

Means: To eat the first meal of the day.

Example: "What time do you usually have breakfast?"

#279 — Go to bed.

Means: To lie down to sleep.

Example: "It's late, I should go to bed."

#280 — Set the alarm.

Means: To set a clock to wake you up.

Example: "Don't forget to set the alarm for 7 AM."

#281 — Run errands.

Means: To make short trips to do tasks (bank, shopping).

Example: "I have to run some errands this afternoon."

#282 — Stay up late.

Means: To go to sleep later than usual.

Example: "I stayed up late watching a movie."

#283 — Sleeping in.

Means: Sleeping longer than usual in the morning.

Example: "I love sleeping in on weekends."

#284 — On time.

Means: At exactly the correct time.

Example: "Please be on time for the meeting."

#285 — In time.

Means: Before it is too late.

Example: "We arrived just in time for the movie."

#286 — All day long.

Means: For the entire day.

Example: "I've been working all day long."

#287 — Now and then.

Means: Sometimes; occasionally.

Example: "I see him every now and then."

#288 — From time to time.

Means: Occasionally.

Example: "I like to go hiking from time to time."

#289 — Once in a while.

Means: Occasionally.

Example: "It's good to relax once in a while."

#290 — Right away.

Means: Immediately.

Example: "I'll do it right away."

#291 — So far.

Means: Until now.

Example: "So far, I am enjoying the book."

#292 — As soon as.

Means: At the moment that.

Example: "Call me as soon as you get home."

#293 — In advance.

Means: Before a particular time.

Example: "You need to book the tickets in advance."

#294 — By the way.

Means: Used to introduce a new subject.

Example: "By the way, have you seen John?"

#295 — Kind of.

Means: Slightly; to some extent (informal).

Example: "I'm kind of hungry."

#296 — Sort of.

Means: Slightly; somewhat (informal).

Example: "It's sort of cold in here."

#297 — You know.

Means: Filler phrase used when the listener knows what you mean.

Example: "It was, you know, a really good day."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#298 — I mean.

Means: Used to correct yourself or explain more clearly.

Example: "I like him, I mean, as a friend."

#299 — How come?

Means: Why? (Informal).

Example: "How come you didn't go to the party?"

#300 — What if?

Means: Used to ask about consequences.

Example: "What if we miss the train?"

#301 — My bad.

Means: Slang for 'My mistake' or 'I apologize'.

Example: "I forgot to bring the snacks. My bad."

#302 — No way!

Means: Used to express surprise or disbelief.

Example: "You won the lottery? No way!"

#303 — You bet.

Means: Certainly; used to emphasize 'yes' or 'you're welcome'.

Example: "Are you coming tonight? - You bet!"

#304 — Big time.

Means: Used to emphasize the extreme degree of something.

Example: "I messed up big time on the exam."

#305 — Beats me.

Means: I don't know; I have no idea.

Example: "Where did he go? - Beats me."

#306 — Dead tired.

Means: Extremely exhausted.

Example: "After working 12 hours, I was dead tired."

#307 — Hit the sack.

Means: To go to bed.

Example: "I'm exhausted. I'm going to hit the sack."

#308 — On the dot.

Means: Exactly at the stated time.

Example: "The meeting started at 9 AM on the dot."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#309 — Give me a break.

Means: Used to express disbelief or annoyance.

Example: "You think you can finish this in one hour? Give me a break!"

#310 — It's not rocket science.

Means: Used to say that something is not difficult to understand.

Example: "Just restart the computer. It's not rocket science."

#311 — Miss the boat.

Means: To be too late to take an opportunity.

Example: "I wanted to buy tickets, but I missed the boat; they are sold out."

#312 — Pull someone's leg.

Means: To joke with someone by telling them something untrue.

Example: "I didn't really win a car, I was just pulling your leg."

#313 — Spill the beans.

Means: To reveal a secret.

Example: "We are planning a surprise party, so don't spill the beans."

#314 — Take a rain check.

Means: To decline an invitation but suggest doing it later.

Example: "I'm busy tonight, can I take a rain check?"

#315 — Ball is in your court.

Means: It is up to you to make the next move.

Example: "I've done my part, now the ball is in your court."

#316 — Through the roof.

Means: Suddenly rising to a very high level (prices or anger).

Example: "Gas prices have gone through the roof lately."

#317 — Under the table.

Means: Secretly and illegally (usually money).

Example: "He gets paid cash under the table to avoid taxes."

#318 — Up to no good.

Means: Doing something wrong or mischievous.

Example: "Those kids looking in the window are up to no good."

#319 — White lie.

Means: A small lie told to be polite or avoid hurting feelings.

Example: "I told a white lie and said I liked her haircut."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#320 — Wrap it up.

Means: To finish something.

Example: "The meeting is running late, let's wrap it up."

#321 — A rip-off.

Means: Something that costs much more than it is worth.

Example: "50 dollars for a t-shirt? That's a rip-off!"

#322 — Window shopping.

Means: Looking at goods in shop windows without buying anything.

Example: "I don't have money, I'm just window shopping."

#323 — Shop till you drop.

Means: To go shopping for a long time until you are tired.

Example: "We are going to the mall to shop till we drop."

#324 — In stock.

Means: Available for sale.

Example: "Do you have this shoe in size 10 in stock?"

#325 — Out of stock.

Means: Not available for sale currently.

Example: "I'm sorry, that item is currently out of stock."

#326 — Keep the receipt.

Means: To save the proof of purchase.

Example: "If you want to return it, make sure you keep the receipt."

#327 — Get a refund.

Means: To get your money back.

Example: "The TV was broken, so I went back to get a refund."

#328 — On sale.

Means: Being sold at a reduced price.

Example: "Look! These boots are on sale for half price."

#329 — For sale.

Means: Available to be bought.

Example: "Is this house for sale?"

#330 — A bargain.

Means: Something bought for a lower price than its value.

Example: "I bought this designer bag for $20. It was a bargain!"

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#331 — Breaking up.

Means: When the phone signal is bad and voice is unclear.

Example: "I can't hear you, you are breaking up."

#332 — Cut off.

Means: To lose the phone connection suddenly.

Example: "We were talking, but we got cut off."

#333 — Speak up.

Means: To talk louder.

Example: "It's noisy here, can you speak up?"

#334 — Hang up.

Means: To end a phone call.

Example: "Don't hang up, I have one more thing to say."

#335 — Wrong number.

Means: Calling the incorrect phone number.

Example: "I'm sorry, I think you have the wrong number."

#336 — Low battery.

Means: When your phone is about to run out of power.

Example: "I have to go, I have low battery."

#337 — Pick up the phone.

Means: To answer a call.

Example: "I called him three times, but he didn't pick up the phone."

#338 — Come down with.

Means: To start to suffer from an illness (usually minor).

Example: "I think I'm coming down with the flu."

#339 — Pass away.

Means: Polite way to say 'die'.

Example: "His grandfather passed away last night."

#340 — Throw up.

Means: To vomit.

Example: "The food was bad and it made me throw up."

#341 — Black out.

Means: To faint or lose memory.

Example: "He stood up too fast and blacked out."

#342 — Run a fever.

Means: To have a high body temperature.

Example: "The baby is running a fever."

#343 — Call in sick.

Means: To phone work to say you are too ill to come.

Example: "I woke up with a migraine, so I had to call in sick."

#344 — Safe and sound.

Means: Unharmed and healthy.

Example: "Don't worry, the kids arrived safe and sound."

#345 — Back and forth.

Means: Moving first in one direction and then in the opposite one.

Example: "We traveled back and forth between the two cities."

#346 — Dos and don'ts.

Means: Rules about what you should and should not do.

Example: "Here is a list of dos and don'ts for the office."

#347 — Give or take.

Means: Approximately.

Example: "It will take an hour, give or take a few minutes."

#348 — Peace and quiet.

Means: A state of calm and silence.

Example: "I'm going to the countryside for some peace and quiet."

#349 — Short and sweet.

Means: Brief and pleasant.

Example: "Let's keep the meeting short and sweet."

#350 — Sick and tired.

Means: Thoroughly annoyed.

Example: "I am sick and tired of this rain."

#351 — Wait and see.

Means: To be patient to find out what happens.

Example: "I think we will win, but we have to wait and see."

#352 — Wear and tear.

Means: Damage caused by ordinary use.

Example: "The sofa looks old due to normal wear and tear."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#353 — By and large.

Means: Generally; mostly.

Example: "By and large, the people here are friendly."

#354 — Now or never.

Means: The only opportunity to do something.

Example: "You have to ask her out. It's now or never."

#355 — Take it or leave it.

Means: Accept the offer as it is or refuse it.

Example: "That's my final offer, take it or leave it."

#356 — Believe in.

Means: To feel sure that something is true or someone is capable.

Example: "I believe in you, you can do it."

#357 — Belong to.

Means: To be the property of.

Example: "Who does this bag belong to?"

#358 — Care about.

Means: To feel that something is important.

Example: "He doesn't care about anyone but himself."

#359 — Consist of.

Means: To be made of.

Example: "The exam consists of three parts."

#360 — Depend on.

Means: To be determined by something.

Example: "Our picnic depends on the weather."

#361 — Dream of.

Means: To imagine something that you would like to happen.

Example: "I dream of living in a big house."

#362 — Laugh at.

Means: To make fun of someone.

Example: "It's not polite to laugh at people."

#363 — Listen to.

Means: To pay attention to sound.

Example: "I like to listen to music while I work."

#364 — Pay for.

Means: To give money for something.

Example: "Let me pay for the dinner."

#365 — Wait for.

Means: To stay until someone/something arrives.

Example: "I am waiting for the bus."

#366 — Worry about.

Means: To be anxious about something.

Example: "Don't worry about the test, you studied hard."

#367 — Apologize for.

Means: To say sorry for something.

Example: "He apologized for being late."

#368 — Arrive at.

Means: To reach a place (airport/station).

Example: "We arrived at the station just in time."

#369 — Arrive in.

Means: To reach a place (city/country).

Example: "We arrived in London yesterday."

#370 — Ask for.

Means: To request something.

Example: "If you don't know the way, ask for help."

#371 — Ask out.

Means: To invite someone on a date.

Example: "He finally gathered the courage to ask her out."

#372 — Break up.

Means: To end a romantic relationship.

Example: "They decided to break up after two years."

#373 — Cheat on.

Means: To be unfaithful to a partner.

Example: "She found out that he cheated on her."

#374 — Hit on.

Means: To flirt with someone.

Example: "I think that guy is trying to hit on you."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#375 — Drift apart.

Means: To slowly lose contact or closeness with a friend.

Example: "After college, we started to drift apart."

#376 — Make up.

Means: To become friends again after an argument.

Example: "They argued, but they kissed and made up."

#377 — Settle down.

Means: To begin to live a quieter life (marriage/house).

Example: "He wants to get married and settle down."

#378 — Blind date.

Means: A date with someone you have never met before.

Example: "My friend set me up on a blind date."

#379 — Long-distance relationship.

Means: A romantic relationship between people living far apart.

Example: "Long-distance relationships are hard to maintain."

#380 — Pop the question.

Means: To ask someone to marry you.

Example: "He is planning to pop the question tonight."

#381 — Back up.

Means: To support someone or reverse a car.

Example: "Thanks for backing me up in the meeting."

#382 — Blow up.

Means: To explode or get very angry.

Example: "My dad will blow up when he sees the dent in the car."

#383 — Bring up.

Means: To mention a topic.

Example: "Don't bring up the election, he gets angry."

#384 — Carry on.

Means: To continue.

Example: "Sorry for the interruption, please carry on."

#385 — Check out.

Means: To look at something interesting.

Example: "Check out that cool car over there!"

#386 — Come across.

Means: To find something by chance.

Example: "I came across some old photos in the attic."

#387 — Cut down on.

Means: To reduce the amount of something.

Example: "I need to cut down on sugar."

#388 — Dress up.

Means: To wear nice/formal clothes.

Example: "It's a fancy party, we need to dress up."

#389 — Drop by.

Means: To visit informally for a short time.

Example: "Feel free to drop by anytime."

#390 — End up.

Means: To finally be in a particular place or situation.

Example: "We took the wrong bus and ended up in a different city."

#391 — Fall apart.

Means: To break into pieces or fail completely.

Example: "My old boots are falling apart."

#392 — Get away.

Means: To escape.

Example: "The thief managed to get away."

#393 — Get back.

Means: To return.

Example: "When did you get back from your holiday?"

#394 — Go over.

Means: To review or examine carefully.

Example: "Let's go over the report one more time."

#395 — Keep up.

Means: To move at the same speed.

Example: "Walk faster, try to keep up!"

#396 — Look out.

Means: To be careful.

Example: "Look out! The floor is wet."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#397 — Make up.

Means: To invent a story.

Example: "He made up an excuse for being late."

#398 — Put on.

Means: To place clothes on your body.

Example: "Put on your coat, it's cold outside."

#399 — Show off.

Means: To try to impress others with your abilities/possessions.

Example: "Stop showing off, nobody is impressed."

#400 — Write down.

Means: To record information on paper.

Example: "Please write down your address for me."

#401 — From my point of view.

Means: Used to introduce your personal opinion.

Example: "From my point of view, this is a risky investment."

#402 — As far as I'm concerned.

Means: Used to give your personal opinion strongly.

Example: "As far as I'm concerned, the matter is closed."

#403 — If you ask me.

Means: Used to give an opinion, sometimes when not asked.

Example: "If you ask me, he is making a big mistake."

#404 — Don't get me wrong.

Means: Used to make sure someone understands your comment correctly (usually before criticism).

Example: "Don't get me wrong, I like the design, but the color is bad."

#405 — The bottom line.

Means: The most important fact in a situation.

Example: "The bottom line is that we don't have enough money."

#406 — Face the facts.

Means: To accept the truth about a difficult situation.

Example: "You need to face the facts; you failed the exam."

#407 — Point taken.

Means: Used to say you accept what someone has said.

Example: "Okay, point taken. I will be more careful next time."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#408 — I see what you mean.

Means: I understand your opinion.

Example: "I see what you mean, but I still disagree."

#409 — That's not the point.

Means: Used to say that what someone said is not relevant.

Example: "It's expensive, but that's not the point; we need it."

#410 — Let me get this straight.

Means: Used to confirm that you understood something correctly.

Example: "Let me get this straight, you want me to work on Sunday?"

#411 — In the long run.

Means: Over a long period of time in the future.

Example: "Quitting smoking is difficult, but it's worth it in the long run."

#412 — For the time being.

Means: For a short period of time; temporarily.

Example: "We are staying in a hotel for the time being."

#413 — Time will tell.

Means: The truth or result will only be known in the future.

Example: "Is it a good decision? Only time will tell."

#414 — Kill time.

Means: To do something to pass the time while waiting.

Example: "I read a book to kill time at the airport."

#415 — Make time.

Means: To find time to do something.

Example: "You need to make time for your family."

#416 — Ahead of time.

Means: Earlier than expected or scheduled.

Example: "We finished the project ahead of time."

#417 — Around the clock.

Means: All day and all night.

Example: "Doctors worked around the clock to save him."

#418 — Lose track of time.

Means: To forget what time it is because you are busy.

Example: "I was playing video games and lost track of time."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#419 — In the nick of time.

Means: Just before it was too late.

Example: "The ambulance arrived in the nick of time."

#420 — Once in a blue moon.

Means: Very rarely.

Example: "I eat fast food once in a blue moon."

#421 — Get the hang of.

Means: To learn how to do something (informal).

Example: "Driving is hard at first, but you'll get the hang of it."

#422 — Get the picture.

Means: To understand the situation.

Example: "I explained it three times. Do you get the picture now?"

#423 — Get in touch.

Means: To contact someone.

Example: "Please get in touch with me when you arrive."

#424 — Lose touch.

Means: To stop communicating with someone over time.

Example: "We used to be best friends, but we lost touch."

#425 — Keep a secret.

Means: Not to tell anyone a secret.

Example: "Can you keep a secret?"

#426 — Make a difference.

Means: To have a significant effect.

Example: "Recycling can make a difference to the environment."

#427 — Make a mess.

Means: To make things untidy or dirty.

Example: "Don't make a mess in the kitchen."

#428 — Make a mistake.

Means: To do something wrong.

Example: "It's okay to make a mistake if you learn from it."

#429 — Do your best.

Means: To try as hard as you can.

Example: "Don't worry about the result, just do your best."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#430 — Do business.

Means: To trade or work with someone.

Example: "It's a pleasure to do business with you."

#431 — Take a break.

Means: To stop working for a short time.

Example: "You look tired, let's take a break."

#432 — Take a seat.

Means: Polite way to say 'sit down'.

Example: "Please come in and take a seat."

#433 — Take a risk.

Means: To do something that might result in failure.

Example: "If you want to succeed, you have to take a risk."

#434 — Take a chance.

Means: To attempt something even if it is unlikely to succeed.

Example: "I'm not sure if he likes me, but I'll take a chance."

#435 — Take advice.

Means: To listen to someone's opinion.

Example: "You should take my advice and see a doctor."

#436 — Take advantage of.

Means: To use a situation/person for your own benefit.

Example: "We should take advantage of the nice weather and go out."

#437 — Take part in.

Means: To participate.

Example: "She didn't want to take part in the game."

#438 — Take effect.

Means: To start to work (for medicine/laws).

Example: "The medicine will take effect in 20 minutes."

#439 — Pay a visit.

Means: To visit someone.

Example: "We should pay a visit to your grandmother."

#440 — Pay cash.

Means: To use physical money.

Example: "Do you want to pay cash or by card?"

#441 — Save money.

Means: To keep money for future use.

Example: "I am trying to save money for a new car."

#442 — Save time.

Means: To do something quickly.

Example: "Taking a taxi will save time."

#443 — Save face.

Means: To avoid being embarrassed.

Example: "He agreed to the deal to save face."

#444 — Keep quiet.

Means: To make no noise.

Example: "Please keep quiet in the library."

#445 — Keep calm.

Means: To not get excited or angry.

Example: "Keep calm and carry on."

#446 — Keep going.

Means: To continue without stopping.

Example: "You are almost there, keep going!"

#447 — Keep an eye on.

Means: To watch carefully.

Example: "Can you keep an eye on my bag while I go to the toilet?"

#448 — Keep in mind.

Means: To remember something important.

Example: "Keep in mind that the shop closes at 5 PM."

#449 — Bear in mind.

Means: Formal way to say 'keep in mind'.

Example: "Please bear in mind that the rules have changed."

#450 — Change the subject.

Means: To start talking about something else.

Example: "I don't want to talk about work. Let's change the subject."

#451 — Break the rules.

Means: To do something that is not allowed.

Example: "He was punished because he broke the rules."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#452 — Break a habit.

Means: To stop doing something that you do often.

Example: "It is hard to break a bad habit."

#453 — Break the news.

Means: To tell someone bad news.

Example: "I didn't know how to break the news to her."

#454 — Catch a cold.

Means: To become sick with a cold.

Example: "Put on a jacket or you will catch a cold."

#455 — Catch a bus.

Means: To get on a bus.

Example: "I have to run to catch the bus."

#456 — Catch someone's eye.

Means: To get someone's attention.

Example: "I tried to catch the waiter's eye."

#457 — All of a sudden.

Means: Suddenly.

Example: "All of a sudden, the lights went out."

#458 — As a matter of fact.

Means: Actually; in reality.

Example: "I don't dislike him. As a matter of fact, I think he's great."

#459 — Back to back.

Means: Happening one after another.

Example: "I have three meetings back to back."

#460 — By chance.

Means: Accidentally.

Example: "We met by chance in the street."

#461 — For good.

Means: Forever.

Example: "She is leaving the country for good."

#462 — In general.

Means: Usually; mostly.

Example: "In general, I prefer tea over coffee."

#463 — In public.

Means: When other people are present.

Example: "He doesn't like to speak in public."

#464 — In private.

Means: With no one else present.

Example: "Can I speak to you in private?"

#465 — In trouble.

Means: In a difficult situation or about to be punished.

Example: "If you are late again, you will be in trouble."

#466 — On duty.

Means: Working at a particular time.

Example: "Who is the doctor on duty tonight?"

#467 — Off duty.

Means: Not working.

Example: "I can't help you, I am off duty."

#468 — On average.

Means: Usually; typically.

Example: "On average, I sleep 7 hours a night."

#469 — On the whole.

Means: Considering everything.

Example: "On the whole, it was a good experience."

#470 — Out of date.

Means: Old-fashioned or expired.

Example: "This milk is out of date."

#471 — Under pressure.

Means: Feeling stress.

Example: "He works well under pressure."

#472 — Under control.

Means: Managed well; not causing problems.

Example: "Don't worry, everything is under control."

#473 — Out of control.

Means: Impossible to manage.

Example: "The fire is out of control."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#474 — In charge of.

Means: Responsible for.

Example: "Who is in charge of this department?"

#475 — On the contrary.

Means: The opposite is true.

Example: "I'm not busy. On the contrary, I have nothing to do."

#476 — In a nutshell.

Means: In a few words; briefly.

Example: "To put it in a nutshell, we lost money."

#477 — Sleep on it.

Means: To wait until the next day to make a decision.

Example: "I can't decide now, let me sleep on it."

#478 — Make up for.

Means: To compensate for something bad.

Example: "I worked late to make up for the time I lost."

#479 — Take for granted.

Means: To not appreciate something because you think it will always be there.

Example: "Don't take your health for granted."

#480 — On the spur of the moment.

Means: Suddenly, without planning.

Example: "We decided to go to Paris on the spur of the moment."

#481 — Upside down.

Means: With the top part at the bottom.

Example: "You are holding the map upside down."

#482 — Inside out.

Means: With the inner side facing out.

Example: "You put your t-shirt on inside out."

#483 — Vice versa.

Means: Used to say that the opposite is also true.

Example: "She dislikes him, and vice versa."

#484 — More or less.

Means: Approximately.

Example: "The project is more or less finished."

#485 — Out of order.

Means: Not working (machines).

Example: "The coffee machine is out of order."

#486 — Out of the question.

Means: Impossible; not allowed.

Example: "Buying a new car is out of the question right now."

#487 — Once and for all.

Means: Completely and finally.

Example: "I want to stop smoking once and for all."

#488 — Far and wide.

Means: Over a large area.

Example: "People came from far and wide to see the concert."

#489 — Odds and ends.

Means: Small things of various kinds.

Example: "I just need to pack a few odds and ends."

#490 — Now and then.

Means: Sometimes.

Example: "We go to the cinema every now and then."

#491 — Sick and tired.

Means: Very annoyed.

Example: "I am sick and tired of waiting."

#492 — Trial and error.

Means: Solving problems by trying different methods.

Example: "I learned to cook by trial and error."

#493 — Hustle and bustle.

Means: Noise and activity (usually in a city).

Example: "I love the hustle and bustle of New York."

#494 — Loud and clear.

Means: Very clearly.

Example: "I can hear you loud and clear."

#495 — Bright and early.

Means: Very early in the morning.

Example: "We have to leave bright and early tomorrow."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#496 — Short and sweet.

Means: Brief and to the point.

Example: "Keep your speech short and sweet."

#497 — Give and take.

Means: Compromise in a relationship.

Example: "Marriage is all about give and take."

#498 — First and foremost.

Means: Most importantly.

Example: "First and foremost, I want to thank my parents."

#499 — By and large.

Means: In general.

Example: "By and large, it was a successful year."

#500 — Last but not least.

Means: Importantly, despite being mentioned last.

Example: "And last but not least, thank you to the catering team."

#501 — If I were you.

Means: Used when giving advice.

Example: "If I were you, I would accept the offer."

#502 — As long as.

Means: On the condition that; providing that.

Example: "You can go out as long as you finish your homework."

#503 — Even if.

Means: Whether or not.

Example: "I will go to the party even if I am tired."

#504 — Unless.

Means: Except if.

Example: "We will be late unless we leave now."

#505 — In case of.

Means: If a particular thing happens.

Example: "In case of fire, break the glass."

#506 — Suppose that.

Means: Used to imagine a situation.

Example: "Suppose that you won the lottery, what would you do?"

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#507 — Provide that.

Means: Formal way to say 'if' or 'only if'.

Example: "We can proceed, provided that the contract is signed."

#508 — Otherwise.

Means: If not; or else.

Example: "You must study, otherwise you will fail."

#509 — Or else.

Means: Used to warn someone that something bad will happen.

Example: "Clean your room, or else you won't get any allowance."

#510 — What if?

Means: Used to ask about the consequences of a possible event.

Example: "What if it rains during the picnic?"

#511 — Due to.

Means: Because of.

Example: "The flight was cancelled due to bad weather."

#512 — Owing to.

Means: Because of (formal).

Example: "Owing to a lack of funds, the project was stopped."

#513 — Therefore.

Means: For that reason; consequently.

Example: "He was injured; therefore, he couldn't play."

#514 — Furthermore.

Means: In addition; also (formal).

Example: "The house is beautiful. Furthermore, it's in a great location."

#515 — Moreover.

Means: Also; in addition (formal).

Example: "The rent is reasonable, and moreover, the location is perfect."

#516 — Nevertheless.

Means: Despite what has just been said.

Example: "It was raining. Nevertheless, we went for a walk."

#517 — However.

Means: But; despite this.

Example: "I want to buy it. However, I don't have enough money."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#518 — Consequently.

Means: As a result.

Example: "He didn't wake up early; consequently, he was late."

#519 — In addition to.

Means: Added to.

Example: "In addition to English, she speaks French."

#520 — Regardless of.

Means: Without being affected by.

Example: "We will go regardless of the weather."

#521 — In spite of.

Means: Despite; regardless of.

Example: "In spite of the rain, we had fun."

#522 — Instead of.

Means: In place of.

Example: "I will have tea instead of coffee."

#523 — On behalf of.

Means: As a representative of.

Example: "I am speaking on behalf of my team."

#524 — According to.

Means: As stated by.

Example: "According to the weather forecast, it will snow tomorrow."

#525 — In terms of.

Means: Regarding; concerning.

Example: "In terms of salary, this job is better."

#526 — With regard to.

Means: Concerning; about (formal).

Example: "I am writing with regard to your job application."

#527 — As a result of.

Means: Because of.

Example: "As a result of the accident, the road was closed."

#528 — For the sake of.

Means: For the benefit or purpose of.

Example: "Please stop arguing for the sake of the children."

#529 — In favor of.

Means: In support or approval of.

Example: "Are you in favor of the new policy?"

#530 — Contrary to.

Means: Opposite to.

Example: "Contrary to popular belief, cats are very social."

#531 — To tell the truth.

Means: Used to introduce an honest opinion.

Example: "To tell the truth, I forgot your birthday."

#532 — Frankly speaking.

Means: To speak honestly and directly.

Example: "Frankly speaking, I don't think this plan will work."

#533 — Needless to say.

Means: It is obvious that.

Example: "Needless to say, he was very angry."

#534 — It goes without saying.

Means: It is so obvious that it doesn't need to be said.

Example: "It goes without saying that you should be on time."

#535 — Generally speaking.

Means: Used to describe a situation in general terms.

Example: "Generally speaking, women live longer than men."

#536 — Strictly speaking.

Means: Being completely accurate.

Example: "Strictly speaking, a tomato is a fruit."

#537 — In other words.

Means: To explain it more simply.

Example: "He was fired. In other words, he lost his job."

#538 — To put it simply.

Means: To explain in a simple way.

Example: "To put it simply, we are out of money."

#539 — To make a long story short.

Means: To give only the main facts.

Example: "To make a long story short, we missed the plane."

#540 — In the meantime.

Means: During the time before something happens.

Example: "The doctor is coming. In the meantime, rest here."

#541 — Rule of thumb.

Means: A practical and approximate way of doing or measuring something.

Example: "A good rule of thumb is to drink 8 glasses of water a day."

#542 — Easier said than done.

Means: Hard to do.

Example: "Finding a cheap apartment in New York is easier said than done."

#543 — Sooner or later.

Means: Eventually; in the future.

Example: "You will have to tell him the truth sooner or later."

#544 — Better late than never.

Means: It is better to do something late than not at all.

Example: "I know I'm late, but better late than never."

#545 — Actions speak louder than words.

Means: What you do is more important than what you say.

Example: "Don't just say you love me, show me. Actions speak louder than words."

#546 — Add insult to injury.

Means: To make a bad situation worse.

Example: "I lost my wallet, and to add insult to injury, it started raining."

#547 — Beat around the bush.

Means: To avoid talking about the main topic.

Example: "Stop beating around the bush and tell me what you want."

#548 — Bite the bullet.

Means: To force yourself to do something difficult.

Example: "I hate dentists, but I have to bite the bullet and go."

#549 — Call it a night.

Means: To stop what you are doing in the evening/night.

Example: "I'm tired. I'm going to call it a night."

#550 — Cost an arm and a leg.

Means: To be very expensive.

Example: "This watch cost me an arm and a leg."

#551 — Cut corners.

Means: To do something badly to save money or time.

Example: "Don't cut corners when building a house."

#552 — Get out of hand.

Means: To become difficult to control.

Example: "The party got out of hand and the police were called."

#553 — Hit the nail on the head.

Means: To describe exactly what is causing a situation.

Example: "You hit the nail on the head with that analysis."

#554 — Let the cat out of the bag.

Means: To reveal a secret by mistake.

Example: "I tried to keep the surprise a secret, but I let the cat out of the bag."

#555 — Miss the point.

Means: To fail to understand the important part.

Example: "You are arguing about details and missing the point."

#556 — No pain, no gain.

Means: You have to work hard to achieve something.

Example: "Exercise is hard, but no pain, no gain."

#557 — On the ball.

Means: Alert and efficient.

Example: "The new employee is really on the ball."

#558 — Pull yourself together.

Means: To calm down and behave normally.

Example: "Stop crying and pull yourself together."

#559 — So far, so good.

Means: Everything has been good up to now.

Example: "I started a new job. So far, so good."

#560 — The best of both worlds.

Means: Enjoying the advantages of two different things.

Example: "She works part-time, so she has the best of both worlds."

#561 — Time flies.

Means: Time passes quickly.

Example: "Look at the time! Time flies when you're having fun."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#562 — Under the weather.

Means: Sick.

Example: "I'm staying home because I'm feeling under the weather."

#563 — You can say that again.

Means: Used to express strong agreement.

Example: "This pizza is delicious! - You can say that again."

#564 — A blessing in disguise.

Means: Something that seems bad at first but results in something good.

Example: "Losing my job was a blessing in disguise; I found a better one."

#565 — A dime a dozen.

Means: Very common and not special.

Example: "Singers like him are a dime a dozen."

#566 — Beat the clock.

Means: To finish something before time runs out.

Example: "We had to rush to beat the clock."

#567 — Better safe than sorry.

Means: It is better to be careful.

Example: "Take a jacket. Better safe than sorry."

#568 — Break a leg.

Means: Good luck.

Example: "Go out there and break a leg!"

#569 — Call the shots.

Means: To be the person who makes decisions.

Example: "In this company, the manager calls the shots."

#570 — Cold feet.

Means: Loss of courage before doing something.

Example: "He got cold feet before the wedding."

#571 — Cross your mind.

Means: To think of something briefly.

Example: "It never crossed my mind that he was lying."

#572 — Cry over spilt milk.

Means: To worry about something that has already happened.

Example: "It's broken now, no use crying over spilt milk."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#573 — Curiosity killed the cat.

Means: Being too curious can get you into trouble.

Example: "Don't ask too many questions. Curiosity killed the cat."

#574 — Drive someone up the wall.

Means: To annoy someone very much.

Example: "That noise is driving me up the wall."

#575 — Every cloud has a silver lining.

Means: There is something good in every bad situation.

Example: "I broke my leg, but I caught up on reading. Every cloud has a silver lining."

#576 — Get something out of your system.

Means: To do something you've wanted to do so you can move on.

Example: "I need to go travelling to get it out of my system."

#577 — Go back on your word.

Means: To break a promise.

Example: "He is honest; he never goes back on his word."

#578 — Hang in there.

Means: Don't give up.

Example: "I know it's tough, but hang in there."

#579 — Hit the books.

Means: To study hard.

Example: "I have an exam tomorrow, so I have to hit the books."

#580 — Ignorance is bliss.

Means: Not knowing something is often more comfortable than knowing it.

Example: "I don't want to know how many calories are in this. Ignorance is bliss."

#581 — In the same boat.

Means: In the same difficult situation.

Example: "We are all broke, we are in the same boat."

#582 — Jump on the bandwagon.

Means: To join a popular trend.

Example: "Everyone is buying crypto, so he jumped on the bandwagon."

#583 — Keep your chin up.

Means: Stay positive.

Example: "You lost the game, but keep your chin up."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#584 — Kill two birds with one stone.

Means: To achieve two things with one action.

Example: "I cycled to work to save money and get fit. Killed two birds with one stone."

#585 — Leave no stone unturned.

Means: To try everything possible to find something or solve a problem.

Example: "Police left no stone unturned in the search."

#586 — Let sleeping dogs lie.

Means: Don't cause trouble by talking about past problems.

Example: "Don't bring up the argument again, let sleeping dogs lie."

#587 — Make ends meet.

Means: To have enough money to pay for basic expenses.

Example: "It is hard to make ends meet with this salary."

#588 — Once in a blue moon.

Means: Very rarely.

Example: "He visits us once in a blue moon."

#589 — Out of the frying pan into the fire.

Means: From a bad situation to a worse one.

Example: "Changing jobs was like jumping out of the frying pan into the fire."

#590 — Play devil's advocate.

Means: To argue against an idea just to test it.

Example: "I agree with you, but let me play devil's advocate for a moment."

#591 — Put all your eggs in one basket.

Means: To risk everything on a single plan.

Example: "Don't invest all your money in one stock. Don't put all your eggs in one basket."

#592 — See eye to eye.

Means: To agree fully.

Example: "My father and I don't see eye to eye on politics."

#593 — Sit on the fence.

Means: To delay making a decision.

Example: "You have to choose a side, you can't sit on the fence forever."

#594 — Spill the beans.

Means: Reveal a secret.

Example: "Who spilled the beans about the surprise party?"

#595 — Take it with a grain of salt.

Means: Don't take it too seriously or believe it completely.

Example: "He exaggerates, so take his stories with a grain of salt."

#596 — The ball is in your court.

Means: It is your turn to act.

Example: "I sent the proposal. The ball is in your court."

#597 — The last straw.

Means: The final problem that makes you lose patience.

Example: "Him being late again was the last straw."

#598 — Through thick and thin.

Means: Under all circumstances, no matter how difficult.

Example: "She supported me through thick and thin."

#599 — Time is money.

Means: Time is valuable.

Example: "Hurry up! Time is money."

#600 — Under the table.

Means: Illegal or secret payment.

Example: "They paid him under the table."

#601 — Without further ado.

Means: Without delaying; immediately.

Example: "Without further ado, let me introduce our guest speaker."

#602 — The floor is yours.

Means: It is your turn to speak.

Example: "Thank you for listening. Now, Mr. Smith, the floor is yours."

#603 — Let's kick things off.

Means: Let's start the meeting/event.

Example: "Let's kick things off with a quick introduction."

#604 — I'd like to hand over to.

Means: To pass the speaking turn to someone else.

Example: "Now, I'd like to hand over to Sarah for the marketing report."

#605 — Bear with me.

Means: Please be patient while I do something.

Example: "Please bear with me while I set up the projector."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#606 — Draw your attention to.

Means: To make someone look at or consider something.

Example: "I'd like to draw your attention to this graph on the screen."

#607 — Address the issue.

Means: To deal with or discuss a problem.

Example: "We need to address the issue of declining sales."

#608 — Reach a consensus.

Means: To come to an agreement.

Example: "It took hours, but we finally reached a consensus."

#609 — Bring up a point.

Means: To mention an idea or fact.

Example: "John brought up an interesting point about the budget."

#610 — Move on to.

Means: To change to the next topic.

Example: "Let's move on to the next item on the agenda."

#611 — Just to clarify.

Means: Used to check if you understood correctly.

Example: "Just to clarify, are you saying the deadline is tomorrow?"

#612 — Could you elaborate on that?

Means: Could you explain that in more detail?

Example: "That's an interesting idea. Could you elaborate on that?"

#613 — In light of.

Means: Considering (new information).

Example: "In light of the recent news, we need to change our strategy."

#614 — With respect to.

Means: Regarding; concerning.

Example: "With respect to the contract, there are a few changes."

#615 — Play a key role.

Means: To be a very important part of something.

Example: "Technology plays a key role in our daily lives."

#616 — Take into account.

Means: To consider something.

Example: "You must take the weather into account when planning the trip."

#617 — Take for granted.

Means: To expect something to be available and not appreciate it.

Example: "We often take clean water for granted."

#618 — Raise a question.

Means: To ask a question.

Example: "This raises a question about our security measures."

#619 — Shed light on.

Means: To help to explain a situation.

Example: "Hopefully, this report will shed light on the problem."

#620 — Pave the way.

Means: To make it easier for something to happen.

Example: "This agreement paves the way for future cooperation."

#621 — A wide range of.

Means: A lot of different types.

Example: "We offer a wide range of products."

#622 — In the event of.

Means: If something happens.

Example: "In the event of an emergency, call 911."

#623 — Prior to.

Means: Before (formal).

Example: "Please arrive 10 minutes prior to the meeting."

#624 — Subsequent to.

Means: After (formal).

Example: "Subsequent to the meeting, we sent out an email."

#625 — Notwithstanding.

Means: Despite (very formal).

Example: "Notwithstanding the problems, the project was a success."

#626 — Albeit.

Means: Although (formal).

Example: "He accepted the job, albeit with a lower salary."

#627 — Hence.

Means: Therefore; for this reason.

Example: "The cost is high; hence, we cannot afford it."

#628 — Thus.

Means: Therefore; in this way.

Example: "He studied hard, thus passing the exam."

#629 — Conversely.

Means: In an opposite way.

Example: "Sales in Europe went up. Conversely, sales in Asia went down."

#630 — Inevitably.

Means: As is certain to happen.

Example: "Inevitably, there will be some complaints."

#631 — For the purpose of.

Means: In order to.

Example: "We met for the purpose of discussing the merger."

#632 — With the exception of.

Means: Apart from; except.

Example: "Everyone was there with the exception of Tom."

#633 — In accordance with.

Means: Following a rule or system.

Example: "We acted in accordance with the law."

#634 — On the grounds that.

Means: For the reason that.

Example: "He was fired on the grounds that he was stealing."

#635 — To a certain extent.

Means: Partly, but not completely.

Example: "I agree with you to a certain extent."

#636 — Under no circumstances.

Means: Never (emphatic).

Example: "Under no circumstances should you open this door."

#637 — By no means.

Means: Not at all.

Example: "It is by no means certain that we will win."

#638 — In other respects.

Means: Apart from that feature.

Example: "The room is small, but in other respects it is perfect."

#639 — Broadly speaking.

Means: In general.

Example: “Broadly speaking, the economy is improving.”

#640 — Roughly speaking.

Means: Approximately.

Example: “Roughly speaking, we have 500 customers.”

#641 — Having said that.

Means: Despite what I just said.

Example: “The car is old. Having said that, it runs very well.”

#642 — That being said.

Means: However; despite the previous statement.

Example: “It’s a lot of work. That being said, the pay is good.”

#643 — In the first place.

Means: Used to talk about the beginning of a situation.

Example: “Why did you agree to do it in the first place?”

#644 — Last but not least.

Means: Importantly, despite being last.

Example: “Last but not least, I want to thank my family.”

#645 — To sum up.

Means: To conclude.

Example: “To sum up, we need to reduce costs.”

#646 — In conclusion.

Means: To finish (formal).

Example: “In conclusion, I believe this is the best option.”

#647 — Wrap things up.

Means: To bring an activity/meeting to a close.

Example: “Let’s wrap things up for today.”

#648 — Take the minutes.

Means: To write down what is said in a meeting.

Example: “Who is going to take the minutes today?”

#649 — Agenda.

Means: A list of items to be discussed at a meeting.

Example: “What is on the agenda for today’s meeting?”

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#650 — AOB.

Means: Any Other Business (at the end of a meeting).

Example: "Is there any AOB before we finish?"

#651 — Chair a meeting.

Means: To lead or control a meeting.

Example: "Mr. Jones will chair the meeting today."

#652 — Postpone the meeting.

Means: To delay the meeting to a later time.

Example: "We had to postpone the meeting because the boss was sick."

#653 — Call a meeting.

Means: To arrange for a meeting to happen.

Example: "I'm going to call a meeting to discuss the crisis."

#654 — Make a motion.

Means: To make a formal proposal in a meeting.

Example: "I make a motion to approve the budget."

#655 — Second the motion.

Means: To formally agree with a proposal.

Example: "I second the motion."

#656 — Unanimous.

Means: Everyone agrees.

Example: "The decision was unanimous."

#657 — Abstain from voting.

Means: To choose not to vote.

Example: "Two members decided to abstain from voting."

#658 — Clarify a point.

Means: To make something clear.

Example: "Can I clarify a point regarding the timeline?"

#659 — Go into detail.

Means: To explain fully.

Example: "We don't have time to go into detail right now."

#660 — Stick to the point.

Means: To continue talking about the main subject.

Example: "Please stick to the point and stop wasting time."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#661 — Sidetracked.

Means: Distracted from the main topic.

Example: "We are getting sidetracked; let's focus on the agenda."

#662 — Run out of time.

Means: To have no time left.

Example: "I'm afraid we have run out of time."

#663 — Set a deadline.

Means: To fix a date by which something must be done.

Example: "We need to set a deadline for this project."

#664 — Meet a deadline.

Means: To finish work on time.

Example: "It will be hard to meet the deadline."

#665 — Miss a deadline.

Means: To fail to finish work on time.

Example: "If we miss the deadline, we lose the contract."

#666 — Extension on the deadline.

Means: More time to finish something.

Example: "I asked for an extension on the deadline."

#667 — Put forward.

Means: To suggest an idea.

Example: "He put forward a very interesting proposal."

#668 — Rule out.

Means: To exclude a possibility.

Example: "We cannot rule out the possibility of a mistake."

#669 — Weigh up.

Means: To think carefully about advantages and disadvantages.

Example: "We need to weigh up the pros and cons."

#670 — Carry out.

Means: To perform or complete a job/research.

Example: "We plan to carry out a survey next month."

#671 — Turn down.

Means: To reject an offer.

Example: "They turned down our offer."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#672 — Take on.

Means: To accept new work or responsibility.

Example: "I can't take on any more work right now."

#673 — Step down.

Means: To resign from a position.

Example: "The CEO decided to step down."

#674 — Phase out.

Means: To gradually stop using something.

Example: "We are going to phase out the old software."

#675 — Look into.

Means: To investigate.

Example: "I will look into the matter and get back to you."

#676 — Follow up.

Means: To do something more to continue a previous action.

Example: "I will follow up with an email."

#677 — Touch on.

Means: To mention a subject briefly.

Example: "The speaker touched on the issue of climate change."

#678 — Back up.

Means: To support someone or make a copy of data.

Example: "I have evidence to back up my claim."

#679 — Bring about.

Means: To cause to happen.

Example: "The new law brought about many changes."

#680 — Call for.

Means: To demand or require.

Example: "This situation calls for immediate action."

#681 — Deal with.

Means: To handle a problem.

Example: "She deals with customer complaints."

#682 — Draw up.

Means: To prepare a written document (contract/list).

Example: "The lawyer drew up the contract."

#683 — Focus on.

Means: To give attention to.

Example: "We need to focus on increasing sales."

#684 — Go through.

Means: To examine or search.

Example: "Let's go through the details one more time."

#685 — Hand over.

Means: To give responsibility to someone else.

Example: "He handed over the keys to the new owner."

#686 — Keep down.

Means: To prevent from increasing (costs/noise).

Example: "We are trying to keep down our expenses."

#687 — Lay out.

Means: To explain or arrange clearly.

Example: "He laid out his plan for the future."

#688 — Point out.

Means: To call attention to something.

Example: "I would like to point out a mistake in the report."

#689 — Run by.

Means: To tell someone an idea to get their opinion.

Example: "I have an idea I want to run by you."

#690 — Sign up.

Means: To register.

Example: "You need to sign up for the conference."

#691 — Sort out.

Means: To solve or organize.

Example: "I need to sort out my files."

#692 — Take over.

Means: To take control.

Example: "A larger company took over our firm."

#693 — Write off.

Means: To accept as a loss.

Example: "We had to write off the debt."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#694 — Zero in on.

Means: To focus directly on something.

Example: "We need to zero in on the main problem."

#695 — Benchmark.

Means: A standard to compare with.

Example: "This product sets a new benchmark for quality."

#696 — Best practice.

Means: The most effective way of doing something.

Example: "We follow industry best practices."

#697 — Core competency.

Means: The main strength of a company.

Example: "Our core competency is customer service."

#698 — Stakeholder.

Means: A person with an interest in a business.

Example: "We need to keep our stakeholders informed."

#699 — Paradigm shift.

Means: A fundamental change in approach.

Example: "The internet caused a paradigm shift in marketing."

#700 — Synergy.

Means: Combined effect is greater than the sum of separate effects.

Example: "There is great synergy between the two teams."

#701 — To whom it may concern.

Means: Formal email opening when you don't know the name of the receiver.

Example: "To whom it may concern, I am writing to report a lost item."

#702 — Dear Hiring Manager.

Means: Standard opening for a job application email.

Example: "Dear Hiring Manager, I wish to apply for the sales position."

#703 — I hope this email finds you well.

Means: Polite opening sentence in an email.

Example: "Hi John, I hope this email finds you well."

#704 — I am writing to enquire about.

Means: Formal way to say 'I am asking about'.

Example: "I am writing to enquire about the course fees."

#705 — I am writing in reference to.

Means: I am writing regarding...

Example: "I am writing in reference to your advertisement on LinkedIn."

#706 — Please find attached.

Means: Used to tell someone you have added a file to the email.

Example: "Please find attached my CV and cover letter."

#707 — For your information.

Means: Sending info just so the person knows (FYI).

Example: "For your information, the office will be closed tomorrow."

#708 — I would appreciate it if.

Means: Polite way to ask for something.

Example: "I would appreciate it if you could reply by Friday."

#709 — Could you please confirm.

Means: Asking someone to verify information.

Example: "Could you please confirm receipt of this email?"

#710 — I look forward to hearing from you.

Means: Polite closing, expecting a reply.

Example: "Thank you for your time. I look forward to hearing from you."

#711 — I look forward to your reply.

Means: Waiting for an answer.

Example: "Please let me know your thoughts. I look forward to your reply."

#712 — Please let me know if you have any questions.

Means: Standard polite closing.

Example: "Here is the report. Please let me know if you have any questions."

#713 — Do not hesitate to contact me.

Means: Feel free to contact me.

Example: "If you need help, do not hesitate to contact me."

#714 — Best regards.

Means: Common professional email closing.

Example: "Best regards, John Smith."

#715 — Yours sincerely.

Means: Formal closing when you know the person's name.

Example: "Yours sincerely, Jane Doe."

#716 — Yours faithfully.

Means: Formal closing when you started with 'To whom it may concern'.

Example: "Yours faithfully, Mark Wilson."

#717 — Copy someone in.

Means: To add someone to the email list (CC).

Example: "Please copy me in on all correspondence."

#718 — Keep me in the loop.

Means: Keep me informed.

Example: "I'm going on holiday, but keep me in the loop."

#719 — Get back to you.

Means: To reply later.

Example: "I will check the schedule and get back to you."

#720 — Apologize for the delay.

Means: Sorry for replying late.

Example: "Please accept my apologies for the delay in responding."

#721 — Further to our conversation.

Means: Following up on what we said.

Example: "Further to our conversation yesterday, here is the price list."

#722 — As requested.

Means: Because you asked for it.

Example: "As requested, here are the sales figures."

#723 — At your earliest convenience.

Means: As soon as you can (polite).

Example: "Please complete the form at your earliest convenience."

#724 — Urgent attention.

Means: Needs to be looked at immediately.

Example: "This matter requires your urgent attention."

#725 — Friendly reminder.

Means: Polite way to remind someone.

Example: "Just a friendly reminder that the meeting is at 2 PM."

#726 — Meeting minutes.

Means: Notes taken during a meeting.

Example: "I will send out the meeting minutes shortly."

#727 — Out of office.

Means: Automatic reply when you are away.

Example: "I am currently out of office until Monday."

#728 — Reschedule the meeting.

Means: Change the time of the meeting.

Example: "Something came up, can we reschedule the meeting?"

#729 — Confirm my attendance.

Means: Say that you will definitely come.

Example: "I am writing to confirm my attendance at the conference."

#730 — Decline the invitation.

Means: Say no to an invite politely.

Example: "I regret that I must decline the invitation."

#731 — A proven track record.

Means: Evidence of past success (Interview phrase).

Example: "I have a proven track record in increasing sales."

#732 — Team player.

Means: Someone who works well with others.

Example: "I am a strong team player but can also work independently."

#733 — Work under pressure.

Means: To work well when stressed/busy.

Example: "I am used to working under pressure and meeting deadlines."

#734 — Attention to detail.

Means: Being careful and accurate.

Example: "My main strength is my attention to detail."

#735 — Problem solver.

Means: Someone good at finding solutions.

Example: "I consider myself a creative problem solver."

#736 — Eager to learn.

Means: Wanting to get new knowledge.

Example: "I am ambitious and eager to learn new skills."

#737 — Fast learner.

Means: Someone who understands things quickly.

Example: "Don't worry about the software, I am a fast learner."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#738 — Highly motivated.

Means: Very enthusiastic about working.

Example: “We are looking for a highly motivated individual.”

#739 — Strong work ethic.

Means: Believing in working hard.

Example: “I pride myself on having a strong work ethic.”

#740 — Good communication skills.

Means: Able to speak/write well.

Example: “The job requires good communication skills.”

#741 — Relevant experience.

Means: Past work that helps with this job.

Example: “I have three years of relevant experience in marketing.”

#742 — Apply for a job.

Means: To ask officially for a job.

Example: “I decided to apply for a job at Google.”

#743 — Submit an application.

Means: To send your job documents.

Example: “You must submit an application before the deadline.”

#744 — Resume / CV.

Means: Document listing your work history.

Example: “Please send your Resume to the HR department.”

#745 — Cover letter.

Means: Letter explaining why you want the job.

Example: “Always include a cover letter with your CV.”

#746 — References available upon request.

Means: I can give you names of past bosses if you ask.

Example: “At the bottom of my CV, I wrote: References available upon request.”

#747 — Background in.

Means: Experience/education in a field.

Example: “I have a strong background in finance.”

#748 — Career goals.

Means: What you want to achieve in work.

Example: “Can you tell me about your long-term career goals?”

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#749 — Strengths and weaknesses.

Means: Good and bad points about you.

Example: “What are your greatest strengths and weaknesses?”

#750 — Five years from now.

Means: In the future (common interview question).

Example: “Where do you see yourself five years from now?”

#751 — Why should we hire you?

Means: Give us a reason to give you the job.

Example: “Why should we hire you instead of the other candidates?”

#752 — A good fit.

Means: Suitable for the company/team.

Example: “I believe I am a good fit for this role.”

#753 — Salary expectations.

Means: How much money you want to earn.

Example: “What are your salary expectations?”

#754 — Negotiable.

Means: Open to discussion (salary).

Example: “My salary expectations are negotiable.”

#755 — Notice period.

Means: Time you must work after resigning.

Example: “I have a one-month notice period at my current job.”

#756 — Start date.

Means: When you can begin working.

Example: “If hired, when would be your earliest start date?”

#757 — Vacancy.

Means: An open job position.

Example: “We have a vacancy in the IT department.”

#758 — Full-time position.

Means: Working about 40 hours a week.

Example: “Is this a full-time position or part-time?”

#759 — Part-time position.

Means: Working fewer hours than standard.

Example: “I am looking for a part-time position while I study.”

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#760 — Internship.

Means: A period of work experience (often unpaid).

Example: "I did a summer internship at a law firm."

#761 — Freelance work.

Means: Working for yourself, not a company.

Example: "I do some freelance work on the weekends."

#762 — Remote work.

Means: Working from home.

Example: "Do you offer opportunities for remote work?"

#763 — Hybrid model.

Means: Working partly at home, partly in office.

Example: "We work on a hybrid model: 3 days office, 2 days home."

#764 — Perks and benefits.

Means: Extra things you get (gym, car, insurance).

Example: "The salary is low, but the perks and benefits are great."

#765 — Health insurance.

Means: Medical coverage paid by company.

Example: "Does the company provide health insurance?"

#766 — Paid time off (PTO).

Means: Days you can take off and still get paid.

Example: "How many days of paid time off do employees get?"

#767 — Sick leave.

Means: Time off because of illness.

Example: "He is on sick leave for two weeks."

#768 — Maternity leave.

Means: Time off for a new mother.

Example: "She is currently on maternity leave."

#769 — Promotion.

Means: Moving to a higher position.

Example: "I am hoping to get a promotion next year."

#770 — Raise.

Means: Increase in salary.

Example: "I asked my boss for a raise."

#771 — Fire someone.

Means: To dismiss someone from a job.

Example: "He was fired for stealing money."

#772 — Let someone go.

Means: Polite way to say 'fire' or 'lay off'.

Example: "We had to let him go due to budget cuts."

#773 — Quit a job.

Means: To leave a job voluntarily.

Example: "I plan to quit my job and travel."

#774 — Hand in resignation.

Means: Formally say you are leaving.

Example: "I handed in my resignation yesterday."

#775 — Retire.

Means: To stop working due to age.

Example: "My father plans to retire at 65."

#776 — Career path.

Means: The way you progress in your work life.

Example: "This company offers a clear career path."

#777 — Job description.

Means: List of responsibilities.

Example: "I read the job description carefully."

#778 — Responsibilities.

Means: Tasks you must do.

Example: "My responsibilities include managing the team."

#779 — Qualifications.

Means: Skills/degrees needed.

Example: "You have the right qualifications for this job."

#780 — Degree in.

Means: University qualification.

Example: "I have a Master's degree in Engineering."

#781 — Hands-on experience.

Means: Practical experience, not just theory.

Example: "I have 5 years of hands-on experience in construction."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#782 — Self-starter.

Means: Someone who works well without supervision.

Example: "We need a self-starter who doesn't need constant guidance."

#783 — Goal-oriented.

Means: Focused on achieving results.

Example: "I am a goal-oriented person who loves targets."

#784 — Deal with conflict.

Means: Handle disagreements.

Example: "How do you deal with conflict in the workplace?"

#785 — Meet targets.

Means: Achieve the goals set.

Example: "It is stressful to meet sales targets every month."

#786 — Workshift.

Means: The time period you work.

Example: "I work the night shift."

#787 — Overtime.

Means: Working extra hours.

Example: "I get paid extra for working overtime."

#788 — Day off.

Means: A day when you don't work.

Example: "Tuesday is my day off."

#789 — Take a day off.

Means: To decide not to work on a specific day.

Example: "I'm going to take a day off to move house."

#790 — Calling.

Means: A profession you feel destined to do.

Example: "Teaching isn't just a job for me, it's my calling."

#791 — Make a living.

Means: Earn enough money to survive.

Example: "It's hard to make a living as an artist."

#792 — Bread and butter.

Means: Main source of income.

Example: "Wedding photography is my bread and butter."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#793 — Get the foot in the door.

Means: To get a first small opportunity.

Example: "An internship is a great way to get your foot in the door."

#794 — Learning curve.

Means: The rate of learning something new.

Example: "There was a steep learning curve when I started."

#795 — Show someone the ropes.

Means: To teach someone how to do a job.

Example: "John will show you the ropes on your first day."

#796 — Wear many hats.

Means: To have many different roles.

Example: "In a small startup, you have to wear many hats."

#797 — Call the shots.

Means: To make the important decisions.

Example: "I'm not the boss; I don't call the shots."

#798 — Close a deal.

Means: To finalize a business agreement.

Example: "We are hoping to close the deal tomorrow."

#799 — Cold calling.

Means: Calling people you don't know to sell something.

Example: "I hate cold calling; people are always rude."

#800 — Follow up.

Means: To contact again to check progress.

Example: "Don't forget to follow up with the client."

#801 — Move in.

Means: To start living in a new house/flat.

Example: "We are planning to move in next Saturday."

#802 — Move out.

Means: To leave your current house/flat.

Example: "I have to move out by the end of the month."

#803 — Sign a lease.

Means: To sign a contract to rent a property.

Example: "We signed a lease for one year."

#804 — Security deposit.

Means: Money you pay the landlord in case of damage.

Example: "The security deposit is equal to one month's rent."

#805 — Landlord.

Means: The man who owns the property you rent.

Example: "My landlord is very friendly and fixes things quickly."

#806 — Tenant.

Means: The person who rents the property.

Example: "The previous tenant left the place very dirty."

#807 — Utilities included.

Means: The rent price covers water, electricity, etc.

Example: "Is the electricity bill separate, or are utilities included?"

#808 — Fully furnished.

Means: The house comes with all furniture.

Example: "I'm looking for a fully furnished apartment."

#809 — Spacious.

Means: Having a lot of space/room.

Example: "The living room is very spacious and bright."

#810 — Cozy.

Means: Small, warm, and comfortable.

Example: "It's a small room, but it feels very cozy."

#811 — Within walking distance.

Means: Close enough to walk to.

Example: "The supermarket is within walking distance."

#812 — Amenities.

Means: Facilities like a pool, gym, or parking.

Example: "The building has great amenities, including a gym."

#813 — Roommate / Flatmate.

Means: A person you share your home with.

Example: "I am looking for a roommate to share the rent."

#814 — Studio apartment.

Means: Small apartment with one main room.

Example: "Living in a studio apartment is cheaper."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#815 — Sublet.

Means: To rent your room to someone else while you are away.

Example: "I want to sublet my room for the summer."

#816 — Evict.

Means: To force a tenant to leave.

Example: "They were evicted because they didn't pay rent."

#817 — Mortgage.

Means: A loan from a bank to buy a house.

Example: "It will take 20 years to pay off the mortgage."

#818 — Real estate agent.

Means: A person who sells/rents houses.

Example: "The real estate agent showed us three houses."

#819 — Down payment.

Means: The initial payment when buying something expensive.

Example: "We saved enough money for the down payment on a house."

#820 — Housewarming party.

Means: A party to celebrate moving into a new home.

Example: "You are invited to our housewarming party on Saturday."

#821 — Tidy up.

Means: To clean or organize a room.

Example: "Please tidy up your room before guests arrive."

#822 — Messy.

Means: Untidy or dirty.

Example: "The kitchen is very messy after cooking."

#823 — Do the chores.

Means: To do daily housework.

Example: "I hate doing the chores on weekends."

#824 — Take out the trash.

Means: To carry garbage outside.

Example: "Can you take out the trash, please?"

#825 — Vacuum the floor.

Means: To clean the floor with a vacuum cleaner.

Example: "I need to vacuum the floor, it's dusty."

#826 — Mop the floor.

Means: To wash the floor with water.

Example: "Be careful, I just mopped the floor and it's wet."

#827 — Load the dishwasher.

Means: To put dirty plates into the machine.

Example: "It's your turn to load the dishwasher."

#828 — Empty the dishwasher.

Means: To take clean plates out.

Example: "I'll empty the dishwasher while you cook."

#829 — Dust the furniture.

Means: To remove dust from tables/chairs.

Example: "I am allergic to dust, so I have to dust often."

#830 — Change the sheets.

Means: To put clean covers on the bed.

Example: "We should change the sheets every week."

#831 — Water the plants.

Means: To give water to flowers/plants.

Example: "Don't forget to water the plants while I'm away."

#832 — Fix a leak.

Means: To repair a hole where water is coming out.

Example: "The sink is dripping; I need to fix the leak."

#833 — Renovate.

Means: To repair and improve a building.

Example: "They are planning to renovate the old kitchen."

#834 — Power outage.

Means: When electricity goes off.

Example: "We had a power outage during the storm."

#835 — Lock oneself out.

Means: To forget keys inside and be stuck outside.

Example: "I locked myself out of the house again!"

#836 — Open a bank account.

Means: To start an account at a bank.

Example: "I need to open a bank account to receive my salary."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#837 — Savings account.

Means: An account for saving money.

Example: "I put 10% of my income into my savings account."

#838 — Checking account.

Means: An account for daily use (Current account).

Example: "I pay my bills from my checking account."

#839 — Withdraw money.

Means: To take money out of an account.

Example: "I need to withdraw money from the ATM."

#840 — Deposit money.

Means: To put money into an account.

Example: "I went to the bank to deposit my check."

#841 — Transfer funds.

Means: To move money from one account to another.

Example: "Can you transfer funds to my account?"

#842 — Bank statement.

Means: A document showing your money activity.

Example: "I check my bank statement every month."

#843 — Balance.

Means: The amount of money you have.

Example: "What is my current account balance?"

#844 — Overdraft.

Means: Taking out more money than you have (debt).

Example: "I spent too much and went into overdraft."

#845 — Interest rate.

Means: The percentage paid to you or by you for loans.

Example: "The interest rate on this loan is very high."

#846 — Apply for a loan.

Means: To ask the bank to lend you money.

Example: "He applied for a loan to start a business."

#847 — Pay off a debt.

Means: To return all the money you owe.

Example: "It feels great to finally pay off my debt."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#848 — Credit score.

Means: A number showing how good you are with money.

Example: "You need a good credit score to get a mortgage."

#849 — Currency exchange.

Means: Changing one country's money to another.

Example: "Where is the nearest currency exchange?"

#850 — Exchange rate.

Means: The value of one currency against another.

Example: "The exchange rate for the Dollar is good today."

#851 — ATM.

Means: Automated Teller Machine (Cash machine).

Example: "I need to find an ATM to get some cash."

#852 — Direct debit.

Means: Automatic payment for bills.

Example: "I pay my electric bill by direct debit."

#853 — Investment.

Means: Putting money into something to make profit.

Example: "Real estate is usually a safe investment."

#854 — Stock market.

Means: The place where company shares are bought/sold.

Example: "He lost a lot of money in the stock market."

#855 — Tax return.

Means: Form declaring income to the government.

Example: "I have to file my tax return before April."

#856 — Tax refund.

Means: Money returned by the government.

Example: "I received a nice tax refund this year."

#857 — Budget.

Means: A plan for how to spend money.

Example: "We need to stick to our monthly budget."

#858 — Can afford.

Means: Having enough money to buy something.

Example: "I can't afford that car right now."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#859 — Go broke.

Means: To lose all your money.

Example: "If I buy this house, I will go broke."

#860 — Flat broke.

Means: Having absolutely no money.

Example: "I can't go out tonight, I'm flat broke."

#861 — Pick up the tab.

Means: To pay the bill for everyone.

Example: "My boss picked up the tab for dinner."

#862 — Split the bill.

Means: To share the cost equally.

Example: "Let's split the bill 50/50."

#863 — Break the bank.

Means: To cost too much money.

Example: "Buying a new phone won't break the bank."

#864 — Save for a rainy day.

Means: To save money for future problems.

Example: "You should always save some money for a rainy day."

#865 — Tighten your belt.

Means: To spend less money.

Example: "Inflation is high, so we need to tighten our belts."

#866 — Make a killing.

Means: To make a lot of money quickly.

Example: "He made a killing investing in crypto."

#867 — Money doesn't grow on trees.

Means: Money is hard to get, don't waste it.

Example: "Turn off the lights! Money doesn't grow on trees."

#868 — Born with a silver spoon.

Means: Born into a rich family.

Example: "He doesn't understand poverty; he was born with a silver spoon."

#869 — Foot the bill.

Means: To pay for something (often expensive).

Example: "My parents agreed to foot the bill for the wedding."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#870 — From rags to riches.

Means: From poverty to wealth.

Example: "His life is a classic rags to riches story."

#871 — Cash in hand.

Means: Physical money.

Example: "Do you have any cash in hand?"

#872 — Change money.

Means: To exchange currency.

Example: "I need to change some money before we leave the airport."

#873 — Owe money.

Means: To be in debt to someone.

Example: "I owe him 50 dollars."

#874 — Pay back.

Means: To return money owed.

Example: "Can you lend me $10? I will pay you back tomorrow."

#875 — Spend money on.

Means: To use money to buy something.

Example: "She spends a lot of money on clothes."

#876 — Waste money.

Means: To spend money on useless things.

Example: "Don't waste money on things you don't need."

#877 — Good value for money.

Means: Worth the price.

Example: "This hotel is good value for money."

#878 — Overpriced.

Means: Too expensive.

Example: "The food at that restaurant is overpriced."

#879 — Cheap.

Means: Not expensive (sometimes low quality).

Example: "I bought a cheap watch and it broke."

#880 — Reasonable price.

Means: A fair price.

Example: "The car is in good condition and has a reasonable price."

#881 — Discount.

Means: A reduction in price.

Example: "Can you give me a discount if I pay cash?"

#882 — Receipt.

Means: Paper proof of purchase.

Example: "Would you like a receipt?"

#883 — Wallet.

Means: Small case for carrying money.

Example: "I lost my wallet with all my cards."

#884 — Purse.

Means: A woman's bag or small pouch for money.

Example: "She forgot her purse in the car."

#885 — Small change.

Means: Coins of low value.

Example: "Do you have any small change for the bus?"

#886 — Donate to charity.

Means: Give money to help others.

Example: "He donates to charity every month."

#887 — Inherit.

Means: To receive money after someone dies.

Example: "She inherited a fortune from her grandmother."

#888 — Pension.

Means: Money received after retirement.

Example: "Living on a state pension can be difficult."

#889 — Income.

Means: Money earned from work/investments.

Example: "They have two incomes in their family."

#890 — Expenses.

Means: Money spent.

Example: "We need to reduce our monthly expenses."

#891 — Cost of living.

Means: How expensive it is to live in a place.

Example: "The cost of living in London is very high."

#892 — Standard of living.

Means: Quality of life based on wealth.

Example: "The standard of living has improved."

#893 — Make a profit.

Means: To earn more than you spent.

Example: "The company made a huge profit this year."

#894 — Make a loss.

Means: To lose money on a business.

Example: "We made a loss in the first quarter."

#895 — Go bankrupt.

Means: To legally declare you cannot pay debts.

Example: "Many businesses went bankrupt during the crisis."

#896 — Economic crisis.

Means: A severe downturn in economy.

Example: "The country is facing an economic crisis."

#897 — Inflation.

Means: Prices going up.

Example: "Inflation is making food expensive."

#898 — Financial advisor.

Means: Professional who helps with money.

Example: "You should talk to a financial advisor."

#899 — Wealthy.

Means: Rich.

Example: "He is a wealthy businessman."

#900 — Poor.

Means: Having little money.

Example: "They were poor but happy."

#901 — Learn by heart.

Means: To memorize something completely.

Example: "I had to learn the poem by heart for the class."

#902 — Skip class.

Means: To not go to school when you should.

Example: "Don't skip class, you will miss important notes."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#903 — Drop out.

Means: To stop going to school before finishing.

Example: "He dropped out of college to start a business."

#904 — Pull an all-nighter.

Means: To stay awake all night to study.

Example: "I have an exam tomorrow, so I have to pull an all-nighter."

#905 — Pass with flying colors.

Means: To pass an exam with a very high score.

Example: "She passed the driving test with flying colors."

#906 — Teacher's pet.

Means: The teacher's favorite student.

Example: "Nobody likes him because he is the teacher's pet."

#907 — Bookworm.

Means: Someone who reads a lot of books.

Example: "She is a total bookworm; she reads three books a week."

#908 — Brainstorm.

Means: To think of many ideas quickly.

Example: "Let's brainstorm ideas for the group project."

#909 — Hit the books.

Means: To begin to study hard.

Example: "Finals are coming up, I need to hit the books."

#910 — Catch up on.

Means: To do work that you should have done earlier.

Example: "I need to catch up on my homework this weekend."

#911 — Fall behind.

Means: To make less progress than others.

Example: "If you miss a week of school, you will fall behind."

#912 — Hand in.

Means: To give your work to the teacher.

Example: "Please hand in your essays by Friday."

#913 — Go over.

Means: To review or check something.

Example: "Let's go over the answers together."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#914 — Major in.

Means: To specialize in a subject at university.

Example: "I decided to major in Psychology."

#915 — Gap year.

Means: A year off between high school and college.

Example: "She is taking a gap year to travel the world."

#916 — Tuition fees.

Means: Money paid for education.

Example: "Tuition fees are getting very expensive."

#917 — Scholarship.

Means: Money given to a good student to pay for school.

Example: "He won a scholarship to Harvard."

#918 — Attendance.

Means: Being present at school.

Example: "Attendance is mandatory for this course."

#919 — Extracurricular activities.

Means: Activities like sports or clubs after school.

Example: "Colleges look at your extracurricular activities."

#920 — Cheat sheet.

Means: A piece of paper with notes used secretly in an exam.

Example: "He was caught using a cheat sheet during the test."

#921 — Log in.

Means: To enter a username and password.

Example: "I can't log in to my email account."

#922 — Sign up.

Means: To register for a new account.

Example: "Click here to sign up for the newsletter."

#923 — Scroll down.

Means: To move down a webpage or screen.

Example: "Scroll down to accept the terms and conditions."

#924 — Click on.

Means: To press a button on the mouse/screen.

Example: "Click on the link to verify your account."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#925 — Go viral.

Means: To become very popular on the internet quickly.

Example: "His funny video went viral overnight."

#926 — Tag someone.

Means: To link a person's profile in a post.

Example: "Don't forget to tag me in the photo."

#927 — Hashtag.

Means: A word with # used to find topics.

Example: "Use the hashtag #Travel when you post this."

#928 — Trending.

Means: Being discussed by many people online.

Example: "What is trending on Twitter today?"

#929 — Direct Message (DM).

Means: A private message sent on social media.

Example: "I'll send you the details in a DM."

#930 — Follow back.

Means: To follow someone who followed you.

Example: "He followed me, so I decided to follow back."

#931 — Unfollow.

Means: To stop seeing someone's posts.

Example: "I unfollowed him because he posts too much."

#932 — Block someone.

Means: To stop someone from contacting you online.

Example: "She blocked him after they broke up."

#933 — Screen time.

Means: Time spent looking at a phone/computer.

Example: "I am trying to reduce my screen time."

#934 — Low battery.

Means: When the phone is about to die.

Example: "I have low battery, call me later."

#935 — Charger.

Means: Device used to put power into a battery.

Example: "Do you have an iPhone charger I can borrow?"

#936 — Wi-Fi password.

Means: Code needed to access internet.

Example: "Excuse me, what is the Wi-Fi password here?"

#937 — Connection lost.

Means: Internet stopped working.

Example: "The video stopped because the connection was lost."

#938 — Reboot.

Means: To restart a computer/phone.

Example: "If it's not working, try to reboot it."

#939 — Crash.

Means: When a computer/app stops working suddenly.

Example: "My laptop crashed and I lost my essay."

#940 — Backup.

Means: A copy of files saved in case of loss.

Example: "Always make a backup of your photos."

#941 — Upload.

Means: To put a file onto the internet.

Example: "It takes a long time to upload this video."

#942 — Download.

Means: To take a file from the internet.

Example: "You can download the app for free."

#943 — Update.

Means: To make software more modern.

Example: "My phone is installing an update."

#944 — Glitch.

Means: A small problem in a machine/software.

Example: "There is a glitch in the game."

#945 — User-friendly.

Means: Easy to use.

Example: "This website is very user-friendly."

#946 — Tech-savvy.

Means: Knowing a lot about technology.

Example: "Ask John, he is very tech-savvy."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#947 — Influencer.

Means: A person with many followers who promotes products.

Example: "She wants to become a famous influencer."

#948 — Vlog.

Means: A video blog.

Example: "He posts a daily vlog about his life."

#949 — Meme.

Means: Funny image/text shared online.

Example: "That cat meme is hilarious."

#950 — Troll.

Means: Someone who posts comments to annoy people.

Example: "Don't reply to him, he is just a troll."

#951 — Night owl.

Means: Someone who stays up late.

Example: "I'm a night owl; I work better at night."

#952 — Early bird.

Means: Someone who wakes up early.

Example: "My mom is an early bird; she wakes up at 5 AM."

#953 — Party animal.

Means: Someone who loves parties.

Example: "He is a real party animal on weekends."

#954 — Party pooper.

Means: Someone who spoils the fun.

Example: "Don't be a party pooper, stay a little longer."

#955 — Social butterfly.

Means: Someone who is friendly with everyone.

Example: "She is a social butterfly and knows everyone here."

#956 — Couch potato.

Means: A lazy person who watches TV all day.

Example: "Stop being a couch potato and go outside."

#957 — Chatterbox.

Means: Someone who talks a lot.

Example: "Her little sister is a chatterbox."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#958 — Daredevil.

Means: Someone who takes dangerous risks.

Example: "He is a daredevil; he loves skydiving."

#959 — Lone wolf.

Means: Someone who prefers to be alone.

Example: "He is a lone wolf and works better by himself."

#960 — Big mouth.

Means: Someone who can't keep a secret.

Example: "Don't tell him anything, he has a big mouth."

#961 — Down to earth.

Means: Practical and friendly (duplicate check: OK).

Example: "She is a movie star but very down to earth."

#962 — Laid back.

Means: Relaxed and easy-going.

Example: "He is very laid back, nothing stresses him."

#963 — Open-minded.

Means: Willing to consider new ideas.

Example: "You should be more open-minded about food."

#964 — Narrow-minded.

Means: Not willing to accept different ideas.

Example: "He is too narrow-minded to change his opinion."

#965 — Absent-minded.

Means: Forgetful.

Example: "I'm so absent-minded, I forgot my keys again."

#966 — Hard-headed.

Means: Stubborn.

Example: "He is too hard-headed to listen to advice."

#967 — Cold-hearted.

Means: Lacking kindness or sympathy.

Example: "It was cold-hearted of him to leave her like that."

#968 — Warm-hearted.

Means: Kind and loving.

Example: "She is a warm-hearted person who helps everyone."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#969 — Two-faced.

Means: Insincere; saying one thing and doing another.

Example: "Be careful, she can be two-faced."

#970 — Thick-skinned.

Means: Not easily upset by criticism.

Example: "You need to be thick-skinned to be a politician."

#971 — Sleep like a log.

Means: To sleep very deeply.

Example: "I was so tired I slept like a log."

#972 — Sound asleep.

Means: Sleeping deeply.

Example: "The baby is sound asleep."

#973 — Wide awake.

Means: Completely awake.

Example: "I drank coffee at 9 PM and now I am wide awake."

#974 — Toss and turn.

Means: To move around in bed unable to sleep.

Example: "I tossed and turned all night."

#975 — Oversleep.

Means: To sleep longer than you intended.

Example: "I missed the bus because I overslept."

#976 — Rise and shine.

Means: Cheerful way to tell someone to wake up.

Example: "Wake up! Rise and shine!"

#977 — Take a nap.

Means: To sleep for a short time.

Example: "I'm going to take a nap before dinner."

#978 — Hit the sack.

Means: Go to bed.

Example: "It's late, I'm going to hit the sack."

#979 — Sleep tight.

Means: Sleep well.

Example: "Goodnight! Sleep tight."

#980 — Insomnia.

Means: Inability to sleep.

Example: "He suffers from insomnia."

#981 — Guess what?

Means: Used to introduce surprising news.

Example: "Guess what? I got the job!"

#982 — You know what?

Means: Used to emphasize a thought/decision.

Example: "You know what? I'm going to quit."

#983 — Tell me about it.

Means: I agree because I have experienced the same.

Example: "Traffic is terrible. - Tell me about it!"

#984 — I'll say.

Means: I agree completely.

Example: "It's hot today. - I'll say!"

#985 — Get a life.

Means: Rude way to tell someone to stop being boring/nosy.

Example: "Stop watching me and get a life."

#986 — Get real.

Means: Be realistic.

Example: "You think you can fly? Get real."

#987 — No way.

Means: I don't believe it.

Example: "He won? No way!"

#988 — As if!

Means: That is impossible/untrue.

Example: "He thinks he is cool. As if!"

#989 — My bad.

Means: My mistake.

Example: "I spilled the water. My bad."

#990 — Same old, same old.

Means: Nothing has changed (boring).

Example: "How is work? - Same old, same old."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#991 — Rain or shine.

Means: Whatever happens.

Example: "I will be there, rain or shine."

#992 — Rain cats and dogs.

Means: Rain very heavily.

Example: "It's raining cats and dogs outside."

#993 — Save for a rainy day.

Means: Save money for future need.

Example: "I put this money aside to save for a rainy day."

#994 — On cloud nine.

Means: Very happy.

Example: "She has been on cloud nine since the proposal."

#995 — Under the weather.

Means: Sick.

Example: "I'm feeling a bit under the weather."

#996 — Break the ice.

Means: To start a conversation in a social setting.

Example: "He told a joke to break the ice."

#997 — Tip of the iceberg.

Means: Only a small part of the problem.

Example: "This error is just the tip of the iceberg."

#998 — Weather the storm.

Means: To survive a difficult situation.

Example: "The company managed to weather the storm."

#999 — A breath of fresh air.

Means: Something new and refreshing.

Example: "Her positive attitude is a breath of fresh air."

#1000 — Chasing rainbows.

Means: Trying to achieve something impossible.

Example: "Stop chasing rainbows and get a real job."

#1001 — Have a crush on.

Means: To secretly like someone romantically.

Example: "I think he has a huge crush on his neighbor."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1002 — Hit it off.

Means: To like each other immediately upon meeting.

Example: “We met at a party and really hit it off.”

#1003 — Play hard to get.

Means: To pretend not to be interested to seem more attractive.

Example: “She likes him, but she is playing hard to get.”

#1004 — Friend zone.

Means: Being trapped as 'just a friend' when you want romance.

Example: “He is in the friend zone; she tells him everything about her dates.”

#1005 — Make the first move.

Means: To start the romantic interaction.

Example: “If you like him, don't wait. Make the first move.”

#1006 — Ask for someone's number.

Means: To request phone contact details for dating.

Example: “He finally gathered the courage to ask for her number.”

#1007 — Go out with.

Means: To date someone.

Example: “How long have you been going out with Sarah?”

#1008 — Stand someone up.

Means: To fail to arrive for a date without cancelling.

Example: “I waited for an hour, but he stood me up.”

#1009 — Ghosting.

Means: Ending a relationship by suddenly stopping all communication.

Example: “We texted for weeks, and then he just started ghosting me.”

#1010 — Catfish.

Means: Someone pretending to be someone else online.

Example: “Be careful on dating apps, you might get catfished.”

#1011 — Red flag.

Means: A warning sign of a bad personality/problem.

Example: “If he is rude to the waiter, that is a huge red flag.”

#1012 — Deal breaker.

Means: A factor that makes you decide not to date someone.

Example: “Smoking is a deal breaker for me.”

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1013 — Swipe right.

Means: To indicate interest on a dating app.

Example: "I saw his profile and decided to swipe right."

#1014 — Significant other.

Means: Your partner (husband/wife/boyfriend/girlfriend).

Example: "Spouses and significant others are invited to the party."

#1015 — Soulmate.

Means: A person ideally suited to another.

Example: "Do you believe in finding your soulmate?"

#1016 — The one.

Means: The person you want to spend your life with.

Example: "I knew on the first date that she was the one."

#1017 — Love at first sight.

Means: Falling in love immediately.

Example: "For them, it was love at first sight."

#1018 — Tie the knot.

Means: To get married.

Example: "They are planning to tie the knot next summer."

#1019 — Get hitched.

Means: Slang for 'get married'.

Example: "We got hitched in Las Vegas."

#1020 — Walk down the aisle.

Means: To get married.

Example: "She is excited to walk down the aisle."

#1021 — Honeymoon phase.

Means: The early, happy period of a relationship.

Example: "They are still in the honeymoon phase, everything is perfect."

#1022 — On the rocks.

Means: A relationship experiencing problems.

Example: "Their marriage has been on the rocks for months."

#1023 — Patch things up.

Means: To fix a relationship after an argument.

Example: "They argued, but they are trying to patch things up."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1024 — Split up.

Means: To end a relationship (break up).

Example: "I heard that Tom and Mary split up."

#1025 — Dump someone.

Means: To end a relationship with someone (informal).

Example: "She dumped him because he was lazy."

#1026 — Get back together.

Means: To restart a relationship.

Example: "Do you think they will get back together?"

#1027 — Ex-boyfriend/girlfriend.

Means: A former partner.

Example: "I am still friends with my ex-boyfriend."

#1028 — Rebound.

Means: A relationship started immediately after a breakup.

Example: "He is just a rebound; she isn't serious about him."

#1029 — Wear the pants.

Means: To be the dominant partner in a relationship.

Example: "Everyone knows she wears the pants in that family."

#1030 — Bicker.

Means: To argue about unimportant things.

Example: "They bicker like an old married couple."

#1031 — Immediate family.

Means: Your closest relatives (parents, siblings, kids).

Example: "The funeral was private, only for immediate family."

#1032 — Extended family.

Means: Aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents.

Example: "We have a huge dinner with the extended family every Christmas."

#1033 — Only child.

Means: A child with no siblings.

Example: "Being an only child can be lonely sometimes."

#1034 — Siblings.

Means: Brothers and sisters.

Example: "Do you have any siblings?"

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1035 — In-laws.

Means: The family of your spouse.

Example: "We are visiting my in-laws this weekend."

#1036 — Black sheep.

Means: The family member who is different/disgraceful.

Example: "He is the black sheep of the family because he dropped out of school."

#1037 — Flesh and blood.

Means: Someone who is related to you.

Example: "I have to help him; he is my own flesh and blood."

#1038 — Run in the family.

Means: A trait common in a family.

Example: "Red hair runs in the family."

#1039 — Take after.

Means: To look or behave like a parent.

Example: "She takes after her mother; they both love music."

#1040 — Spitting image.

Means: Looking exactly like someone.

Example: "He is the spitting image of his father."

#1041 — Bring up.

Means: To raise a child.

Example: "It is hard to bring up children in a big city."

#1042 — Upbringing.

Means: The way a child is raised.

Example: "She had a very strict upbringing."

#1043 — Spoiled brat.

Means: A badly behaved child who gets everything they want.

Example: "Don't be such a spoiled brat."

#1044 — Helicopter parent.

Means: A parent who pays too much attention to their child's experiences.

Example: "His mom is a helicopter parent; she calls his teacher every day."

#1045 — Empty nest.

Means: A home where children have grown up and left.

Example: "They are suffering from empty nest syndrome."

#1046 — Sibling rivalry.

Means: Competition between brothers and sisters.

Example: "There was a lot of sibling rivalry when we were kids."

#1047 — Look up to.

Means: To admire/respect someone (usually older).

Example: "I always looked up to my big brother."

#1048 — Get together.

Means: To meet socially.

Example: "Let's get together for coffee soon."

#1049 — Family gathering.

Means: A meeting of family members.

Example: "I have to go to a boring family gathering."

#1050 — Close-knit.

Means: A group of people bound together by strong relationships.

Example: "We are a very close-knit family."

#1051 — BFF.

Means: Best Friends Forever.

Example: "She is my BFF; we tell each other everything."

#1052 — Fair-weather friend.

Means: A friend who is only there when things are good.

Example: "When I lost my money, I realized he was just a fair-weather friend."

#1053 — Shoulder to cry on.

Means: Someone who listens to your problems.

Example: "If you need a shoulder to cry on, I'm here."

#1054 — Stick by someone.

Means: To support someone in difficult times.

Example: "A real friend sticks by you no matter what."

#1055 — Have a falling out.

Means: To argue and stop being friends.

Example: "They had a falling out over money."

#1056 — Bury the hatchet.

Means: To stop fighting and become friendly again.

Example: "Let's bury the hatchet and be friends."

#1057 — Clear the air.

Means: To discuss a problem to remove bad feelings.

Example: "We need to talk to clear the air."

#1058 — Keep a straight face.

Means: To stop yourself from laughing.

Example: "I couldn't keep a straight face when he tripped."

#1059 — Inside joke.

Means: A joke shared by a small group.

Example: "You wouldn't understand, it's an inside joke."

#1060 — Partner in crime.

Means: A close friend who does everything with you.

Example: "She is my partner in crime for all adventures."

#1061 — Third wheel.

Means: Someone who accompanies a couple and feels extra.

Example: "I don't want to come on your date and be a third wheel."

#1062 — Double date.

Means: Two couples going out together.

Example: "We should go on a double date sometime."

#1063 — Set someone up.

Means: To arrange a date for someone.

Example: "My friend wants to set me up with her cousin."

#1064 — Have a lot in common.

Means: To share similar interests.

Example: "We get along because we have a lot in common."

#1065 — Click with someone.

Means: To become friends easily.

Example: "I didn't really click with her friends."

#1066 — Drift apart.

Means: To slowly lose closeness.

Example: "After high school, we started to drift apart."

#1067 — Reach out.

Means: To contact someone for help or connection.

Example: "Feel free to reach out if you need anything."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1068 — Stranger.

Means: Someone you don't know (used jokingly for friends seen rarely).

Example: "Hey stranger! I haven't seen you in ages."

#1069 — Acquaintance.

Means: Someone you know a little, but not a close friend.

Example: "He is not a friend, just an acquaintance."

#1070 — Mutual friend.

Means: A friend shared by two people.

Example: "We met through a mutual friend."

#1071 — Small talk.

Means: Polite conversation about unimportant things.

Example: "I hate making small talk about the weather."

#1072 — Deep conversation.

Means: Talking about serious/personal topics.

Example: "We stayed up all night having a deep conversation."

#1073 — Gossip.

Means: Talking about other people's private lives.

Example: "She loves to gossip about her neighbors."

#1074 — Rumor has it.

Means: People are saying that...

Example: "Rumor has it that they are getting divorced."

#1075 — Badmouth.

Means: To say bad things about someone.

Example: "Stop badmouthing him behind his back."

#1076 — Vent.

Means: To express strong negative emotions.

Example: "I just need to vent about my boss for a minute."

#1077 — Support system.

Means: People who help you.

Example: "My family is my main support system."

#1078 — Peer pressure.

Means: Influence from friends to do things.

Example: "Teenagers often smoke due to peer pressure."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1079 — Bad influence.

Means: Someone who encourages bad behavior.

Example: "I don't want you seeing him; he is a bad influence."

#1080 — Role model.

Means: Someone you admire and try to copy.

Example: "My mother is my greatest role model."

#1081 — Miss out.

Means: To lose an opportunity to enjoy something.

Example: "I don't want to miss out on the fun."

#1082 — FOMO.

Means: Fear Of Missing Out.

Example: "I went to the party because I had major FOMO."

#1083 — Life of the party.

Means: The most energetic/fun person at a party.

Example: "John is always the life of the party."

#1084 — Wallflower.

Means: A shy person who stands away from the crowd.

Example: "She is a bit of a wallflower and doesn't dance."

#1085 — Crash a party.

Means: To go to a party without being invited.

Example: "We decided to crash the wedding reception."

#1086 — Throw a party.

Means: To organize a party.

Example: "They are throwing a party for his birthday."

#1087 — RSVP.

Means: To reply to an invitation.

Example: "Please RSVP by Friday."

#1088 — Plus one.

Means: A guest you are allowed to bring.

Example: "Can I bring a plus one to the wedding?"

#1089 — Host.

Means: The person who invites guests.

Example: "He was a gracious host."

#1090 — Guest list.

Means: The names of people invited.

Example: "Your name is not on the guest list."

#1091 — BYOB.

Means: Bring Your Own Beer/Booze.

Example: "The party is BYOB."

#1092 — Designated driver.

Means: Person who doesn't drink alcohol to drive others.

Example: "I'll be the designated driver tonight."

#1093 — Hangover.

Means: Sickness after drinking too much alcohol.

Example: "I have a terrible hangover this morning."

#1094 — Sober.

Means: Not drunk.

Example: "I am staying sober tonight."

#1095 — Tipsy.

Means: Slightly drunk.

Example: "She was a little tipsy after two glasses of wine."

#1096 — Wasted.

Means: Very drunk (slang).

Example: "He got completely wasted last night."

#1097 — Toast.

Means: To raise a glass to wish good luck.

Example: "I'd like to propose a toast to the bride and groom."

#1098 — Cheers.

Means: Said before drinking.

Example: "Cheers to the weekend!"

#1099 — Bottoms up.

Means: Drink it all at once.

Example: "Here's a shot. Bottoms up!"

#1100 — Last call.

Means: The last chance to order drinks at a bar.

Example: "The bartender shouted 'last call'."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1101 — Binge-watch.

Means: To watch many episodes of a TV series in one go.

Example: "I binge-watched the whole season in one weekend."

#1102 — Spoiler alert.

Means: Warning that you are about to reveal key story details.

Example: "Spoiler alert! The main character dies at the end."

#1103 — Plot twist.

Means: An unexpected development in a story.

Example: "The movie had a huge plot twist that shocked everyone."

#1104 — Based on a true story.

Means: The film/book is about real events.

Example: "It is even scarier because it is based on a true story."

#1105 — Blockbuster.

Means: A very popular and successful movie.

Example: "Titanic was a huge blockbuster in the 90s."

#1106 — Cast.

Means: The actors in a film or play.

Example: "The movie has an amazing cast including Brad Pitt."

#1107 — Soundtrack.

Means: The music used in a film.

Example: "I love the soundtrack of this movie."

#1108 — Trailer.

Means: A short video advertising a movie.

Example: "I saw the trailer and it looks really good."

#1109 — Must-watch.

Means: Something highly recommended to see.

Example: "This documentary is a must-watch."

#1110 — On the edge of my seat.

Means: Very excited and suspenseful.

Example: "The thriller kept me on the edge of my seat."

#1111 — Popcorn movie.

Means: A movie purely for entertainment, not serious art.

Example: "It's just a fun popcorn movie, don't think too much."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1112 — Genre.

Means: A style or category of art/music/film.

Example: "What is your favorite movie genre? Horror or Comedy?"

#1113 — Subtitles.

Means: Text at the bottom of the screen translating dialogue.

Example: "I prefer watching anime with subtitles, not dubbed."

#1114 — Dubbed.

Means: Voice actors speaking in a different language.

Example: "The dubbed version sounds really weird."

#1115 — Season finale.

Means: The last episode of a season.

Example: "I can't wait for the season finale tonight."

#1116 — Catchy tune.

Means: A song that is easy to remember.

Example: "That commercial has such a catchy tune."

#1117 — Stuck in my head.

Means: When you can't stop hearing a song in your mind.

Example: "This song has been stuck in my head all day."

#1118 — Tone deaf.

Means: Unable to perceive differences of musical pitch.

Example: "Don't ask me to sing, I am completely tone deaf."

#1119 — Live performance.

Means: Music played in front of an audience.

Example: "Nothing beats the energy of a live performance."

#1120 — Gig.

Means: A musical performance (informal).

Example: "My band has a gig at the local bar tonight."

#1121 — Lyrics.

Means: The words of a song.

Example: "I like the melody, but the lyrics are sad."

#1122 — One-hit wonder.

Means: A singer/band famous for only one song.

Example: "That band was a classic one-hit wonder."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1123 — Play it by ear.

Means: To improvise; to decide as you go along.

Example: "We don't have a plan, let's just play it by ear."

#1124 — Face the music.

Means: To accept the unpleasant consequences of your actions.

Example: "You broke the vase, now you have to face the music."

#1125 — Music to my ears.

Means: Good news.

Example: "Hearing that you are safe is music to my ears."

#1126 — Root for.

Means: To support a sports team or person.

Example: "Which team are you rooting for?"

#1127 — Underdog.

Means: The competitor thought to have little chance of winning.

Example: "I always cheer for the underdog."

#1128 — Tie / Draw.

Means: When the score is equal.

Example: "The game ended in a tie, 2-2."

#1129 — In shape.

Means: Physically fit and healthy.

Example: "He runs every day to stay in shape."

#1130 — Out of shape.

Means: Not physically fit.

Example: "I get tired easily, I am really out of shape."

#1131 — Work out.

Means: To exercise.

Example: "I work out at the gym three times a week."

#1132 — Warm up.

Means: To prepare the body for exercise.

Example: "It is important to warm up before running."

#1133 — Score a goal.

Means: To get a point in a game (soccer/hockey).

Example: "He scored the winning goal in the last minute."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1134 — Referee.

Means: The official who controls the game.

Example: "The referee made a bad call."

#1135 — Foul play.

Means: Unfair or dishonest behavior.

Example: "The police suspect foul play in the investigation."

#1136 — Game changer.

Means: Something that completely changes the situation.

Example: "This new technology is a total game changer."

#1137 — Give it your best shot.

Means: To try as hard as you can.

Example: "I know you are nervous, but just give it your best shot."

#1138 — Win by a landslide.

Means: To win very easily with a large margin.

Example: "The mayor won the election by a landslide."

#1139 — Throw in the towel.

Means: To quit or give up.

Example: "The boxer was beaten so badly he had to throw in the towel."

#1140 — Keep your eye on the ball.

Means: To stay focused on the main goal.

Example: "If you want to succeed, keep your eye on the ball."

#1141 — Drop the ball.

Means: To make a mistake/fail in your responsibility.

Example: "I relied on him, but he really dropped the ball."

#1142 — Level playing field.

Means: A situation where everyone has a fair chance.

Example: "These new rules will create a level playing field."

#1143 — Jump the gun.

Means: To start doing something too soon.

Example: "Don't jump the gun; wait for the official announcement."

#1144 — Ballpark figure.

Means: A rough estimate.

Example: "Can you give me a ballpark figure of the cost?"

#1145 — In the same league.

Means: Of the same quality or class.

Example: "As a writer, he is not in the same league as Shakespeare."

#1146 — Hobby.

Means: An activity done for pleasure in free time.

Example: "Do you have any hobbies besides reading?"

#1147 — Spare time.

Means: Free time.

Example: "What do you do in your spare time?"

#1148 — Into something.

Means: To be interested in something.

Example: "I am really into photography right now."

#1149 — Keen on.

Means: Interested in or fond of.

Example: "I'm not very keen on horror movies."

#1150 — Big fan of.

Means: Enjoying something very much.

Example: "I am a big fan of Italian food."

#1151 — Take up.

Means: To start a new hobby.

Example: "I decided to take up painting."

#1152 — Give it a go.

Means: To try something.

Example: "I've never played golf, but I'll give it a go."

#1153 — Killing time.

Means: Doing something while waiting.

Example: "I was just killing time in the mall until you arrived."

#1154 — DIY.

Means: Do It Yourself (home repairs/crafts).

Example: "He loves DIY projects and built his own table."

#1155 — Gardening.

Means: Growing plants as a hobby.

Example: "Gardening helps me relax after work."

#1156 — Hiking.

Means: Walking in nature.

Example: "We are going hiking in the mountains this weekend."

#1157 — Photography.

Means: Taking pictures.

Example: "She has a talent for photography."

#1158 — Collection.

Means: A group of things people gather as a hobby.

Example: "He has a huge collection of old coins."

#1159 — Volunteer.

Means: To work for free to help others.

Example: "She volunteers at the animal shelter on Sundays."

#1160 — Hang out.

Means: To spend time relaxing.

Example: "We just hung out at home and watched TV."

#1161 — Go clubbing.

Means: To go to nightclubs to dance.

Example: "They went clubbing in downtown till 4 AM."

#1162 — Eat out.

Means: To eat at a restaurant.

Example: "I'm too tired to cook, let's eat out."

#1163 — Grab a bite.

Means: To eat something quickly.

Example: "Let's grab a bite before the movie starts."

#1164 — Have a drink.

Means: To consume alcohol socially.

Example: "Do you want to have a drink after work?"

#1165 — Throw a surprise party.

Means: To organize a secret party for someone.

Example: "We are throwing a surprise party for Sarah."

#1166 — Get together.

Means: To meet.

Example: "Let's get together this weekend."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1167 — Catch a movie.

Means: To go to the cinema.

Example: "Do you want to catch a movie tonight?"

#1168 — Paint the town red.

Means: To go out and enjoy the nightlife wildly.

Example: "It's my birthday, let's paint the town red!"

#1169 — Quality time.

Means: Time spent giving full attention to someone.

Example: "I want to spend some quality time with my kids."

#1170 — Road trip.

Means: A long journey by car.

Example: "We are planning a road trip across America."

#1171 — Staycation.

Means: A holiday spent at home.

Example: "We can't afford to travel, so we are having a staycation."

#1172 — Bucket list.

Means: A list of things you want to do before you die.

Example: "Skydiving is on my bucket list."

#1173 — Booked solid.

Means: Completely full/busy.

Example: "I can't meet you, I'm booked solid this week."

#1174 — Pencil in.

Means: To arrange an appointment tentatively.

Example: "I'll pencil you in for Tuesday, but I need to confirm later."

#1175 — Call it off.

Means: To cancel an event.

Example: "It started raining, so we called off the picnic."

#1176 — Show up.

Means: To arrive.

Example: "He showed up an hour late."

#1177 — Look forward to.

Means: To be excited about.

Example: "I look forward to the weekend."

#1178 — Have a ball.

Means: To have a wonderful time.

Example: "The kids had a ball at the amusement park."

#1179 — Let your hair down.

Means: To relax and enjoy yourself freely.

Example: "It's the weekend, time to let your hair down!"

#1180 — Blow off steam.

Means: To do something to relieve stress.

Example: "I go running to blow off steam."

#1181 — Recharge batteries.

Means: To rest to get energy back.

Example: "I need a vacation to recharge my batteries."

#1182 — Take it easy.

Means: To relax.

Example: "I'm just going to take it easy this Sunday."

#1183 — Chill out.

Means: To relax (slang).

Example: "Come over and chill out with us."

#1184 — Couch potato.

Means: Lazy person watching TV.

Example: "Don't be such a couch potato."

#1185 — Shopaholic.

Means: Someone addicted to shopping.

Example: "She is a shopaholic; she buys new shoes every week."

#1186 — Workaholic.

Means: Someone addicted to working.

Example: "My dad is a workaholic; he never takes a break."

#1187 — Foodie.

Means: Someone who loves food.

Example: "As a foodie, I love trying new restaurants."

#1188 — Fitness freak.

Means: Someone obsessed with exercise.

Example: "He is a fitness freak and goes to the gym daily."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1189 — Techie.

Means: Someone who loves technology.

Example: "She is a techie and owns all the latest gadgets."

#1190 — Bookworm.

Means: Someone who loves reading.

Example: "I was a bookworm when I was a child."

#1191 — Globetrotter.

Means: Someone who travels a lot.

Example: "He is a globetrotter and has visited 50 countries."

#1192 — Outdoorsy.

Means: Liking outdoor activities.

Example: "I'm not very outdoorsy; I prefer museums."

#1193 — Indoor person.

Means: Someone who prefers staying inside.

Example: "I am an indoor person, I like reading and gaming."

#1194 — Morning person.

Means: Someone who has energy in the morning.

Example: "I am not a morning person; don't talk to me before coffee."

#1195 — Night owl.

Means: Someone who stays up late.

Example: "I study better at night because I am a night owl."

#1196 — People person.

Means: Someone who is friendly and good with people.

Example: "You need to be a people person for this sales job."

#1197 — Introvert.

Means: A shy, quiet person.

Example: "He is an introvert and dislikes crowds."

#1198 — Extrovert.

Means: An outgoing, social person.

Example: "She is an extrovert and loves meeting new people."

#1199 — Ambivert.

Means: A mix of introvert and extrovert.

Example: "I am an ambivert; I like parties but also need alone time."

#1200 — Bucket list.

Means: Things to do before dying.

Example: "Visiting Japan is on my bucket list."

#1201 — Splitting headache.

Means: A very severe pain in the head.

Example: "Please turn down the music, I have a splitting headache."

#1202 — Runny nose.

Means: Liquid coming out of the nose due to illness.

Example: "I need a tissue; I have a runny nose."

#1203 — Sore throat.

Means: Pain in the throat, usually due to cold.

Example: "I can't speak well because I have a sore throat."

#1204 — Catch a cold.

Means: To become sick with a common cold.

Example: "Wear a jacket or you will catch a cold."

#1205 — Feel dizzy.

Means: Feeling like everything is spinning.

Example: "I stood up too fast and started to feel dizzy."

#1206 — Feel nauseous.

Means: Feeling like you want to vomit.

Example: "The smell of that food makes me feel nauseous."

#1207 — Food poisoning.

Means: Sickness caused by eating bad food.

Example: "He got food poisoning from the seafood."

#1208 — Allergic to.

Means: Having a bad physical reaction to specific food/animals.

Example: "I am allergic to peanuts."

#1209 — Hay fever.

Means: Allergy to pollen (flowers/grass).

Example: "My hay fever is terrible this spring."

#1210 — Prescription.

Means: Paper from a doctor for medicine.

Example: "The doctor gave me a prescription for antibiotics."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1211 — Over-the-counter.

Means: Medicine bought without a prescription.

Example: "You can buy these painkillers over-the-counter."

#1212 — Side effects.

Means: Unwanted effects of a medicine.

Example: "Drowsiness is a common side effect of this pill."

#1213 — Make an appointment.

Means: To arrange a time to see a doctor.

Example: "I need to make an appointment with the dentist."

#1214 — Check-up.

Means: A general medical examination.

Example: "I go for a dental check-up every six months."

#1215 — Blood pressure.

Means: The force of blood in your body.

Example: "He takes medication for high blood pressure."

#1216 — Take a pill.

Means: To swallow medicine.

Example: "Take one pill after every meal."

#1217 — Get a shot.

Means: To receive an injection/vaccine.

Example: "I went to the clinic to get a flu shot."

#1218 — Broken bone.

Means: A fracture in the skeleton.

Example: "He has a broken bone in his arm."

#1219 — Sprain an ankle.

Means: To injure the ankle by twisting it.

Example: "I sprained my ankle while playing soccer."

#1220 — Bruise.

Means: A blue/purple mark on skin after injury.

Example: "I have a big bruise on my leg where I fell."

#1221 — Stitches.

Means: Thread used to close a deep cut.

Example: "The cut was deep so I needed five stitches."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1222 — Cast.

Means: Hard cover for a broken bone.

Example: "He has to wear a cast on his leg for six weeks."

#1223 — Crutches.

Means: Sticks used to help walking when injured.

Example: "She is walking on crutches because of her knee."

#1224 — Emergency room (ER).

Means: Hospital department for urgent cases.

Example: "We rushed him to the emergency room."

#1225 — On the mend.

Means: Recovering from illness.

Example: "He was very sick, but now he is on the mend."

#1226 — As fit as a fiddle.

Means: Very healthy and strong.

Example: "My grandfather is 80 but he is as fit as a fiddle."

#1227 — Back on my feet.

Means: Recovered from illness.

Example: "It took a week, but I'm finally back on my feet."

#1228 — Safe and sound.

Means: Unharmful.

Example: "They arrived home safe and sound."

#1229 — Touch and go.

Means: Uncertain outcome (usually medical).

Example: "It was touch and go for a while, but he survived."

#1230 — Kick the habit.

Means: To stop doing something harmful (like smoking).

Example: "He is trying to kick the habit of smoking."

#1231 — Cold turkey.

Means: Stopping a habit suddenly and completely.

Example: "I quit drinking coffee cold turkey."

#1232 — Go on a diet.

Means: To start eating specific food to lose weight.

Example: "I need to go on a diet before summer."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1233 — Watch what you eat.

Means: To be careful about diet.

Example: "You should watch what you eat to stay healthy."

#1234 — Cut down on.

Means: To reduce consumption.

Example: "The doctor told me to cut down on sugar."

#1235 — Lose weight.

Means: To become lighter.

Example: "She wants to lose weight for the wedding."

#1236 — Gain weight.

Means: To become heavier.

Example: "I gained weight during the holidays."

#1237 — Shed a few pounds.

Means: To lose a little weight.

Example: "I'm trying to shed a few pounds by running."

#1238 — Work out.

Means: To exercise.

Example: "I work out at the gym every morning."

#1239 — Hit the gym.

Means: To go to the gym.

Example: "Time to hit the gym and lift some weights."

#1240 — Get in shape.

Means: To become physically fit.

Example: "My goal this year is to get in shape."

#1241 — Out of shape.

Means: Unfit.

Example: "I get tired fast; I am so out of shape."

#1242 — Warm up.

Means: Gentle exercise before the main workout.

Example: "Always warm up to avoid injury."

#1243 — Cool down.

Means: Gentle exercise after the main workout.

Example: "Don't forget to cool down and stretch."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1244 — No pain, no gain.

Means: Suffering is necessary for success.

Example: "My muscles hurt, but no pain, no gain."

#1245 — Cheat day.

Means: A day when you break your diet rules.

Example: "Sunday is my cheat day, I eat pizza."

#1246 — Fast food.

Means: Unhealthy food prepared quickly.

Example: "We shouldn't eat fast food every day."

#1247 — Junk food.

Means: Food with low nutritional value.

Example: "Chips and candy are junk food."

#1248 — Balanced diet.

Means: Eating a healthy variety of food.

Example: "A balanced diet includes fruits and vegetables."

#1249 — Stay hydrated.

Means: Drinking enough water.

Example: "It is important to stay hydrated in summer."

#1250 — Get a haircut.

Means: To have your hair cut by a professional.

Example: "Your hair is long, you should get a haircut."

#1251 — Trim.

Means: To cut a small amount off the ends.

Example: "Just a trim, please. I want to keep the length."

#1252 — Dye hair.

Means: To change hair color.

Example: "She dyed her hair blonde."

#1253 — Manicure.

Means: Beauty treatment for hands/nails.

Example: "I'm going to the salon for a manicure."

#1254 — Put on makeup.

Means: To apply cosmetics.

Example: "She takes 20 minutes to put on makeup."

#1255 — Take off makeup.

Means: To remove cosmetics.

Example: “Always take off makeup before sleeping.”

#1256 — Shave.

Means: To remove hair with a razor.

Example: “He shaves his beard every morning.”

#1257 — Look sharp.

Means: To look smart and stylish.

Example: “You look sharp in that suit!”

#1258 — Dress up.

Means: To wear formal or fancy clothes.

Example: “We need to dress up for the party.”

#1259 — Dress down.

Means: To wear casual clothes.

Example: “Fridays are casual, so we can dress down.”

#1260 — Fit like a glove.

Means: To fit perfectly.

Example: “That dress fits you like a glove.”

#1261 — Try on.

Means: To test clothes for size.

Example: “Where can I try on these jeans?”

#1262 — Put on.

Means: To place clothes on the body.

Example: “Put on your coat, it’s cold.”

#1263 — Take off.

Means: To remove clothes.

Example: “Take off your shoes at the door.”

#1264 — Wear out.

Means: To use something until it is damaged.

Example: “I wore out my favorite shoes.”

#1265 — Inside out.

Means: Inner side facing out.

Example: “Your t-shirt is inside out.”

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1266 — Backwards.

Means: Back side facing front.

Example: "You put your hat on backwards."

#1267 — Dry cleaning.

Means: Professional cleaning for delicate clothes.

Example: "This suit needs to go to the dry cleaning."

#1268 — Stressed out.

Means: Feeling very worried and tired.

Example: "I am so stressed out about the exam."

#1269 — Burned out.

Means: Exhausted from working too much.

Example: "He is burned out and needs a vacation."

#1270 — Take a breather.

Means: To stop for a short rest.

Example: "Let's take a breather and drink some water."

#1271 — Chill out.

Means: To relax.

Example: "Just chill out, everything will be fine."

#1272 — Calm down.

Means: To stop being angry/excited.

Example: "Please calm down and tell me what happened."

#1273 — Panic attack.

Means: Sudden intense fear.

Example: "She had a panic attack in the elevator."

#1274 — Take a deep breath.

Means: To breathe deeply to relax.

Example: "Take a deep breath and count to ten."

#1275 — Mental health.

Means: Condition of your mind and emotions.

Example: "It is important to look after your mental health."

#1276 — Feeling down.

Means: Feeling sad.

Example: "He's feeling down because he failed the test."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1277 — Pick me up.

Means: Something that makes you feel better.

Example: "I need a coffee as a morning pick-me-up."

#1278 — An apple a day keeps the doctor away.

Means: Eating healthy prevents illness.

Example: "Here is some fruit. An apple a day keeps the doctor away."

#1279 — Under the knife.

Means: Having surgery.

Example: "He is going under the knife tomorrow for his knee."

#1280 — Alive and kicking.

Means: Still living and active.

Example: "My grandmother is 95 and still alive and kicking."

#1281 — Back on your feet.

Means: Recovered.

Example: "We hope to see you back on your feet soon."

#1282 — Bitter pill to swallow.

Means: An unpleasant fact that must be accepted.

Example: "Losing the final match was a bitter pill to swallow."

#1283 — Break out in a cold sweat.

Means: To feel very scared or nervous.

Example: "I broke out in a cold sweat when I saw the spider."

#1284 — Clean bill of health.

Means: Doctor says you are perfectly healthy.

Example: "Good news! The doctor gave me a clean bill of health."

#1285 — Feel it in my bones.

Means: To have a strong intuition about something.

Example: "It's going to rain, I can feel it in my bones."

#1286 — Get something off your chest.

Means: To confess something worrying you.

Example: "You will feel better if you get it off your chest."

#1287 — Give someone a hand.

Means: To help someone.

Example: "Can you give me a hand with these bags?"

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1288 — Go to your head.

Means: To make you arrogant (success) or dizzy (alcohol).

Example: "Don't let the fame go to your head."

#1289 — Head over heels.

Means: Deeply in love.

Example: "He is head over heels for her."

#1290 — Keep your chin up.

Means: Stay positive.

Example: "Keep your chin up, things will get better."

#1291 — Let your hair down.

Means: Relax and enjoy.

Example: "It's time to let your hair down and party."

#1292 — Pain in the neck.

Means: Someone/something annoying.

Example: "Filling out these forms is a real pain in the neck."

#1293 — Pull someone's leg.

Means: To joke/tease.

Example: "I'm just pulling your leg, I didn't mean it."

#1294 — Rule of thumb.

Means: A rough guide.

Example: "A good rule of thumb is to save 20% of your income."

#1295 — See eye to eye.

Means: To agree.

Example: "We don't see eye to eye on politics."

#1296 — Shake a leg.

Means: Hurry up.

Example: "Come on, shake a leg! We are late."

#1297 — Skin and bones.

Means: Very thin.

Example: "He lost so much weight, he is just skin and bones."

#1298 — Sweet tooth.

Means: Liking sugary foods.

Example: "I have a sweet tooth, I love chocolate."

#1299 — Wash your hands of.

Means: To stop being responsible for something.

Example: "I've tried to help, but now I wash my hands of this mess."

#1300 — Weight off my shoulders.

Means: Relief from a worry.

Example: "Finishing that project was a huge weight off my shoulders."

#1301 — Break the law.

Means: To do something illegal.

Example: "If you steal, you break the law."

#1302 — Against the law.

Means: Illegal.

Example: "It is against the law to drive without a license."

#1303 — Commit a crime.

Means: To do something wrong and illegal.

Example: "He committed a crime and was arrested."

#1304 — Under arrest.

Means: Taken by the police.

Example: "You are under arrest for robbery."

#1305 — Go to jail.

Means: To be put in prison.

Example: "If he is guilty, he will go to jail."

#1306 — Behind bars.

Means: In prison.

Example: "He spent ten years behind bars."

#1307 — Get caught.

Means: To be found doing something wrong.

Example: "Don't cheat, you might get caught."

#1308 — Pay a fine.

Means: To pay money as punishment.

Example: "I had to pay a fine for parking illegally."

#1309 — Speeding ticket.

Means: A fine for driving too fast.

Example: "I got a speeding ticket on the highway."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1310 — Run a red light.

Means: To not stop at a red traffic light.

Example: "He caused an accident because he ran a red light."

#1311 — Press charges.

Means: To officially accuse someone of a crime.

Example: "The victim decided not to press charges."

#1312 — Sue someone.

Means: To take someone to court for money.

Example: "He plans to sue the company for damages."

#1313 — Court case.

Means: A legal dispute decided by a judge.

Example: "The court case lasted for three weeks."

#1314 — Plead guilty.

Means: To admit you did the crime.

Example: "He decided to plead guilty to get a lighter sentence."

#1315 — Innocent until proven guilty.

Means: The legal principle that you are innocent at start.

Example: "Remember, he is innocent until proven guilty."

#1316 — On the run.

Means: Trying to escape from the police.

Example: "The bank robber is currently on the run."

#1317 — Turn yourself in.

Means: To surrender to the police.

Example: "After two days, he turned himself in."

#1318 — Get away with.

Means: To do something wrong without being punished.

Example: "He thinks he can get away with murder."

#1319 — Let off the hook.

Means: To excuse someone from punishment.

Example: "The police let him off the hook with a warning."

#1320 — Caught red-handed.

Means: Caught while doing the crime.

Example: "The thief was caught red-handed holding the bag."

#1321 — Witness stand.

Means: The place where a witness sits in court.

Example: “She was nervous when she took the witness stand.”

#1322 — Jury duty.

Means: The obligation to serve on a jury.

Example: “I have to miss work for jury duty.”

#1323 — The verdict.

Means: The final decision of the jury.

Example: “Everyone waited for the verdict: Guilty or Not Guilty.”

#1324 — Life sentence.

Means: Punishment of staying in prison until death.

Example: “The judge gave him a life sentence.”

#1325 — Release on bail.

Means: Letting a prisoner go free for money before trial.

Example: “He was released on bail pending his trial.”

#1326 — Breaking news.

Means: Urgent news happening right now.

Example: “We interrupt this program for breaking news.”

#1327 — Headlines.

Means: The main titles in a newspaper.

Example: “The scandal made the headlines everywhere.”

#1328 — Front page.

Means: The first page of a newspaper (most important).

Example: “Her picture was on the front page.”

#1329 — Go live.

Means: To start broadcasting in real-time.

Example: “The reporter will go live in five minutes.”

#1330 — Stay tuned.

Means: Keep watching/listening for more info.

Example: “Stay tuned for the weather forecast.”

#1331 — Fake news.

Means: False information presented as news.

Example: “Be careful about sharing fake news on Facebook.”

#1332 — Reliable source.

Means: Information you can trust.

Example: “I heard it from a reliable source.”

#1333 — Off the record.

Means: Information not to be published.

Example: “He told the reporter the details off the record.”

#1334 — No comment.

Means: Refusing to answer a question.

Example: “The celebrity said 'no comment' to the rumors.”

#1335 — Press conference.

Means: Meeting where journalists ask questions.

Example: “The President held a press conference today.”

#1336 — Exclusive interview.

Means: An interview given to only one channel/paper.

Example: “We have an exclusive interview with the star.”

#1337 — Publicity stunt.

Means: Something done just to get attention.

Example: “Their marriage was just a publicity stunt.”

#1338 — Go viral.

Means: To become popular very fast online.

Example: “The video of the cat went viral.”

#1339 — Trending topic.

Means: Subject many people are discussing.

Example: “The election is a trending topic on Twitter.”

#1340 — Current events.

Means: Important things happening now.

Example: “We discussed current events in class.”

#1341 — Run for office.

Means: To try to get elected.

Example: “She decided to run for office as mayor.”

#1342 — Cast a vote.

Means: To vote in an election.

Example: “Don't forget to cast your vote on Tuesday.”

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1343 — Win the election.

Means: To be chosen by voters.

Example: "He hopes to win the election by a landslide."

#1344 — Human rights.

Means: Basic rights for every person.

Example: "Freedom of speech is one of the human rights."

#1345 — Freedom of speech.

Means: Right to say what you think.

Example: "We value freedom of speech in this country."

#1346 — Go on strike.

Means: To stop working to protest.

Example: "The bus drivers are going on strike tomorrow."

#1347 — Peaceful protest.

Means: Demonstration without violence.

Example: "It started as a peaceful protest."

#1348 — Public opinion.

Means: What most people think.

Example: "Public opinion has turned against the war."

#1349 — Taxpayer.

Means: A person who pays tax.

Example: "This project is funded by taxpayer money."

#1350 — Government policy.

Means: Plan of action by the government.

Example: "The new government policy affects schools."

#1351 — Make an exception.

Means: To break a rule for a specific case.

Example: "We don't usually allow pets, but we'll make an exception."

#1352 — Follow the rules.

Means: To obey regulations.

Example: "It is important to follow the rules."

#1353 — Bend the rules.

Means: To allow something not strictly allowed.

Example: "Sometimes you have to bend the rules to help people."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1354 — Strictly forbidden.

Means: Definitely not allowed.

Example: "Smoking is strictly forbidden here."

#1355 — Plan B.

Means: An alternative plan.

Example: "If it rains, what is our Plan B?"

#1356 — Worst case scenario.

Means: The worst thing that could happen.

Example: "In the worst case scenario, we lose the money."

#1357 — Best case scenario.

Means: The best outcome possible.

Example: "Best case scenario, we finish early."

#1358 — Weigh the options.

Means: To consider different choices.

Example: "We need to weigh the options before deciding."

#1359 — Make a decision.

Means: To decide.

Example: "Please make a decision by tomorrow."

#1360 — Take responsibility.

Means: To accept that you caused something.

Example: "You need to take responsibility for your actions."

#1361 — Tell off.

Means: To speak angrily to someone who did wrong.

Example: "My mom told me off for breaking the vase."

#1362 — Get in trouble.

Means: To be punished or scolded.

Example: "If I'm late, I will get in trouble."

#1363 — Face the consequences.

Means: To accept the bad results of your action.

Example: "He cheated, and now he must face the consequences."

#1364 — Take the blame.

Means: To say something was your fault.

Example: "He took the blame for his brother's mistake."

#1365 — Accuse of.

Means: To say someone did something wrong.

Example: "They accused him of stealing the money."

#1366 — Admit a mistake.

Means: To say you were wrong.

Example: "It is hard to admit a mistake."

#1367 — Deny an allegation.

Means: To say an accusation is not true.

Example: "He denied all allegations against him."

#1368 — Forgive and forget.

Means: To stop being angry and move on.

Example: "Let's just forgive and forget."

#1369 — Hold a grudge.

Means: To stay angry at someone for a long time.

Example: "She still holds a grudge about what I said last year."

#1370 — Get revenge.

Means: To hurt someone who hurt you.

Example: "He wants to get revenge on his enemy."

#1371 — Teach a lesson.

Means: To punish someone so they learn.

Example: "I will teach him a lesson he won't forget."

#1372 — Learn the hard way.

Means: To learn by making a painful mistake.

Example: "He didn't listen, so he had to learn the hard way."

#1373 — Warning sign.

Means: Something showing a danger.

Example: "Ignore the warning sign at your own risk."

#1374 — Watch out for.

Means: Be careful of.

Example: "Watch out for the dog."

#1375 — Beware of.

Means: Be careful of (formal warning).

Example: "Beware of pickpockets in this area."

#1376 — At your own risk.

Means: You are responsible for any danger.

Example: "Swim here at your own risk."

#1377 — Safety first.

Means: Safety is the most important thing.

Example: "Put on your helmet. Safety first."

#1378 — Emergency exit.

Means: Door used in an emergency.

Example: "The emergency exit is at the back of the plane."

#1379 — Call the police.

Means: Phone 911.

Example: "I heard a scream and called the police."

#1380 — First aid.

Means: Emergency medical help.

Example: "Everyone should learn basic first aid."

#1381 — Insurance claim.

Means: Asking insurance company for money.

Example: "I filed an insurance claim after the accident."

#1382 — Cover the cost.

Means: To pay for something.

Example: "Insurance will cover the cost of repairs."

#1383 — Fine print.

Means: Small text in a contract with important details.

Example: "Always read the fine print before signing."

#1384 — Sign on the dotted line.

Means: To sign a contract officially.

Example: "We are ready. Just sign on the dotted line."

#1385 — Null and void.

Means: Having no legal force.

Example: "The contract is now null and void."

#1386 — Valid until.

Means: Usable up to a date.

Example: "This passport is valid until 2025."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1387 — Expire.

Means: To end/become invalid.

Example: "My credit card will expire next month."

#1388 — Renew.

Means: To extend the time of something.

Example: "I need to renew my subscription."

#1389 — Refund policy.

Means: Rules about getting money back.

Example: "What is the store's refund policy?"

#1390 — Warranty.

Means: Guarantee for a product.

Example: "The TV comes with a two-year warranty."

#1391 — Terms and conditions.

Means: The rules of an agreement.

Example: "I accepted the terms and conditions."

#1392 — Privacy policy.

Means: How a company uses your data.

Example: "Check the privacy policy before joining."

#1393 — Copyright.

Means: Legal right to an artistic work.

Example: "The images are protected by copyright."

#1394 — Trademark.

Means: A symbol/word legally registered.

Example: "The logo is a registered trademark."

#1395 — Identity theft.

Means: Stealing someone's personal info.

Example: "He was a victim of identity theft."

#1396 — Scam.

Means: A dishonest scheme to steal money.

Example: "That email offer looks like a scam."

#1397 — Rip off.

Means: Something too expensive (slang).

Example: "$10 for a coffee? What a rip off!"

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1398 — Blackmail.

Means: Demanding money to keep a secret.

Example: "He tried to blackmail me with the photos."

#1399 — Bribe.

Means: Money given to corruptly influence someone.

Example: "He tried to bribe the police officer."

#1400 — Get mugged.

Means: To be robbed in the street.

Example: "I got mugged while walking home late."

#1401 — It's pouring.

Means: It is raining very heavily.

Example: "Don't go outside, it's pouring."

#1402 — Soaking wet.

Means: Completely wet.

Example: "I forgot my umbrella and got soaking wet."

#1403 — Chilled to the bone.

Means: Feeling extremely cold.

Example: "The wind was icy; I was chilled to the bone."

#1404 — Heatwave.

Means: A period of unusually hot weather.

Example: "We are expecting a heatwave this weekend."

#1405 — Overcast.

Means: Cloudy and dark.

Example: "The sky is overcast, I think it will rain."

#1406 — Clear up.

Means: When rain stops and clouds go away.

Example: "I hope the weather clears up for the picnic."

#1407 — Bundle up.

Means: To wear warm clothes.

Example: "It's freezing outside, make sure to bundle up."

#1408 — Freezing cold.

Means: Very cold.

Example: "It is freezing cold in this room."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1409 — Boiling hot.

Means: Very hot.

Example: "Open a window, it's boiling hot in here."

#1410 — Weather forecast.

Means: Prediction of future weather.

Example: "Check the weather forecast before we go."

#1411 — Global warming.

Means: Rise in Earth's temperature.

Example: "Global warming is a serious issue."

#1412 — Climate change.

Means: Long-term shifts in temperatures and weather patterns.

Example: "We need to act now to stop climate change."

#1413 — Go green.

Means: To live in an eco-friendly way.

Example: "Our company decided to go green and recycle more."

#1414 — Carbon footprint.

Means: The amount of CO2 a person produces.

Example: "Flying less helps reduce your carbon footprint."

#1415 — Eco-friendly.

Means: Not harmful to the environment.

Example: "I only buy eco-friendly products."

#1416 — Renewable energy.

Means: Energy from sun/wind (not oil).

Example: "Solar power is a form of renewable energy."

#1417 — Litter.

Means: Rubbish left on the ground.

Example: "Please don't drop litter in the park."

#1418 — Pollution.

Means: Damage caused to water, air, etc.

Example: "Air pollution is bad in big cities."

#1419 — Natural disaster.

Means: Events like earthquakes or floods.

Example: "The hurricane was a terrible natural disaster."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1420 — Mother Nature.

Means: Nature personified.

Example: "You can't fight against Mother Nature."

#1421 — Walk the dog.

Means: To take a dog outside for exercise.

Example: "I have to walk the dog every morning."

#1422 — Stray.

Means: A homeless animal.

Example: "She adopted a stray cat."

#1423 — Vet.

Means: Veterinarian (animal doctor).

Example: "The dog is sick, we need to go to the vet."

#1424 — Pet.

Means: To touch an animal lovingly.

Example: "Can I pet your dog?"

#1425 — Bark.

Means: The sound a dog makes.

Example: "My neighbor's dog barks all night."

#1426 — Hold your horses.

Means: Wait a minute; be patient.

Example: "Hold your horses! We aren't ready to go yet."

#1427 — Smell fishy.

Means: To seem suspicious or dishonest.

Example: "His excuse smells fishy to me."

#1428 — Wild goose chase.

Means: A hopeless search for something.

Example: "Looking for that book was a wild goose chase."

#1429 — Elephant in the room.

Means: An obvious problem no one wants to discuss.

Example: "His drinking was the elephant in the room."

#1430 — Lion's share.

Means: The biggest part of something.

Example: "The boss took the lion's share of the credit."

#1431 — Crocodile tears.

Means: Fake sadness/tears.

Example: "Don't believe him, those are just crocodile tears."

#1432 — Wolf in sheep's clothing.

Means: A dangerous person pretending to be harmless.

Example: "Be careful, he is a wolf in sheep's clothing."

#1433 — Cat got your tongue?

Means: Why are you not speaking?

Example: "You are very quiet. Cat got your tongue?"

#1434 — Ants in your pants.

Means: Unable to sit still because of excitement/worry.

Example: "Sit down! You have ants in your pants."

#1435 — Chicken out.

Means: To decide not to do something because of fear.

Example: "He wanted to jump, but he chickened out."

#1436 — Eat like a horse.

Means: To eat a lot.

Example: "He is thin, but he eats like a horse."

#1437 — Eat like a bird.

Means: To eat very little.

Example: "She is on a diet and eats like a bird."

#1438 — Fish out of water.

Means: Feeling uncomfortable in a new environment.

Example: "I felt like a fish out of water at the fancy party."

#1439 — Get off your high horse.

Means: Stop acting like you are better than others.

Example: "Get off your high horse and help us."

#1440 — Early bird catches the worm.

Means: If you wake up/start early, you succeed.

Example: "I'm arriving at 6 AM. Early bird catches the worm!"

#1441 — Breathtaking view.

Means: A very beautiful scene.

Example: "The hotel room has a breathtaking view."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1442 — Scenic route.

Means: A longer but more beautiful road.

Example: "Let's take the scenic route home."

#1443 — Middle of nowhere.

Means: A place far away from other people/towns.

Example: "Their house is out in the middle of nowhere."

#1444 — Fresh air.

Means: Clean air outside.

Example: "I need to go out and get some fresh air."

#1445 — Poisonous.

Means: Dangerous to eat or touch.

Example: "Don't touch that plant, it might be poisonous."

#1446 — Earthquake.

Means: Shaking of the ground.

Example: "Did you feel the earthquake last night?"

#1447 — Flood.

Means: Overflow of water.

Example: "The heavy rain caused a flood in the basement."

#1448 — Hurricane.

Means: A violent storm with wind.

Example: "The hurricane destroyed many houses."

#1449 — Drought.

Means: A long period without rain.

Example: "The crops failed due to the drought."

#1450 — Forest fire.

Means: Uncontrolled fire in a forest.

Example: "Campers must be careful not to start a forest fire."

#1451 — Salt of the earth.

Means: A very good, honest person.

Example: "My grandmother is the salt of the earth."

#1452 — Slippery slope.

Means: A situation that will lead to more problems.

Example: "Skipping school is a slippery slope."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1453 — Make a mountain out of a molehill.

Means: To exaggerate a small problem.

Example: "Calm down, you are making a mountain out of a molehill."

#1454 — Barking up the wrong tree.

Means: Accusing the wrong person or following the wrong path.

Example: "If you think I took it, you are barking up the wrong tree."

#1455 — Reach for the stars.

Means: To try to achieve difficult goals.

Example: "My teacher told me to reach for the stars."

#1456 — A breeze.

Means: Very easy.

Example: "The exam was a breeze."

#1457 — On thin ice.

Means: In a risky position; close to being punished.

Example: "You are on thin ice after being late three times."

#1458 — Snowed under.

Means: Having too much work.

Example: "I can't come, I am snowed under with work."

#1459 — Head in the clouds.

Means: Not paying attention; dreaming.

Example: "He never listens, he has his head in the clouds."

#1460 — Steal someone's thunder.

Means: To take the attention/praise away from someone.

Example: "Don't mention your news yet, you will steal her thunder."

#1461 — Storm in a teacup.

Means: A lot of anger/worry about something unimportant.

Example: "Their argument was just a storm in a teacup."

#1462 — Calm before the storm.

Means: A quiet period before chaos.

Example: "It's quiet now, but it's just the calm before the storm."

#1463 — Lightning fast.

Means: Very fast.

Example: "He finished the race lightning fast."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1464 — Thunderstorm.

Means: Storm with thunder and lightning.

Example: "My dog is scared of thunderstorms."

#1465 — Rainbow.

Means: Colors in the sky after rain.

Example: "Look at the beautiful rainbow!"

#1466 — A ray of hope.

Means: A small chance that something good will happen.

Example: "The new medicine offers a ray of hope."

#1467 — Hit the ground running.

Means: To start something and proceed at a fast pace immediately.

Example: "We need someone who can hit the ground running."

#1468 — Grass is always greener.

Means: Other people's lives always seem better.

Example: "Don't be jealous; the grass is always greener on the other side."

#1469 — Hit the hay.

Means: To go to bed (idiom).

Example: "I'm tired, time to hit the hay."

#1470 — Needle in a haystack.

Means: Something very hard to find.

Example: "Finding my contact lens was like finding a needle in a haystack."

#1471 — Grasp at straws.

Means: Trying anything in a desperate situation.

Example: "He knows he lost; now he is just grasping at straws."

#1472 — Out of the woods.

Means: Out of danger/difficulty.

Example: "He is getting better, but he is not out of the woods yet."

#1473 — Knock on wood.

Means: Said to avoid bad luck.

Example: "I haven't been sick all year, knock on wood."

#1474 — Olive branch.

Means: A sign of peace.

Example: "He extended an olive branch to his rival."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1475 — Through the grapevine.

Means: Hearing gossip/rumors.

Example: "I heard through the grapevine that she is quitting."

#1476 — Bark is worse than bite.

Means: Someone sounds dangerous but isn't.

Example: "Don't worry about the boss, his bark is worse than his bite."

#1477 — Busy as a bee.

Means: Very busy.

Example: "She has been busy as a bee all morning."

#1478 — Bull in a china shop.

Means: Very clumsy person.

Example: "He broke the vase; he is like a bull in a china shop."

#1479 — Cash cow.

Means: A product/business that makes a lot of money.

Example: "This smartphone is the company's cash cow."

#1480 — Copycat.

Means: Someone who copies others.

Example: "Don't be a copycat, have your own ideas."

#1481 — Cry wolf.

Means: To raise a false alarm.

Example: "If you cry wolf too often, no one will believe you."

#1482 — Dog eat dog.

Means: Very competitive environment.

Example: "Banking is a dog eat dog world."

#1483 — Eager beaver.

Means: An enthusiastic person who works hard.

Example: "He arrived early; he is a real eager beaver."

#1484 — Guinea pig.

Means: A person used in a test.

Example: "I don't want to be the guinea pig for your new recipe."

#1485 — Horse of a different color.

Means: A completely different matter.

Example: "I like running, but marathons are a horse of a different color."

#1486 — Cat nap.

Means: A short sleep.

Example: "I'm going to take a cat nap before dinner."

#1487 — Bird's eye view.

Means: A view from above.

Example: "From the tower, you get a bird's eye view of the city."

#1488 — Pig out.

Means: To eat a lot of food (slang).

Example: "We pigged out on pizza last night."

#1489 — Rat race.

Means: The stressful struggle for success/money.

Example: "He quit the rat race and moved to a farm."

#1490 — Scapegoat.

Means: Person blamed for others' mistakes.

Example: "He was made the scapegoat for the team's failure."

#1491 — Smell a rat.

Means: To suspect something is wrong.

Example: "The offer was too good; I started to smell a rat."

#1492 — Straight from the horse's mouth.

Means: Directly from the source.

Example: "I heard the news straight from the horse's mouth."

#1493 — Top dog.

Means: The most important person.

Example: "He wants to be the top dog in the company."

#1494 — Watch like a hawk.

Means: To watch very closely.

Example: "The teacher watched the students like a hawk during the exam."

#1495 — Wolf down.

Means: To eat very quickly.

Example: "He wolfed down his lunch and ran out."

#1496 — Bee in your bonnet.

Means: Obsessed with an idea.

Example: "She has a bee in her bonnet about recycling."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1497 — Clam up.

Means: To become silent suddenly.

Example: "When I asked about the money, he clammed up."

#1498 — Drop in the ocean.

Means: A very small amount compared to what is needed.

Example: "My donation was just a drop in the ocean."

#1499 — Stick in the mud.

Means: Someone who is boring/not adventurous.

Example: "Don't be a stick in the mud, come dance!"

#1500 — The world is your oyster.

Means: You can achieve anything you want.

Example: "You are young and talented; the world is your oyster."

#1501 — I should have known.

Means: I regret not realizing something earlier.

Example: "I should have known it was a scam."

#1502 — If only I had.

Means: Used to express a strong regret about the past.

Example: "If only I had studied harder for the exam."

#1503 — I wish I hadn't.

Means: Regretting an action you did.

Example: "I wish I hadn't eaten so much cake."

#1504 — It's a pity that.

Means: It is disappointing or sad.

Example: "It's a pity that you can't come to the party."

#1505 — Looking back.

Means: Thinking about the past.

Example: "Looking back, I think I made the right decision."

#1506 — In retrospect.

Means: Thinking about the past with new knowledge (formal).

Example: "In retrospect, we should have saved more money."

#1507 — Miss the boat.

Means: To be too late for an opportunity.

Example: "You missed the boat; the tickets are sold out."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1508 — Kick myself.

Means: To be angry with yourself for a mistake.

Example: "I could kick myself for forgetting her birthday."

#1509 — What's done is done.

Means: You cannot change the past.

Example: "Don't worry about it now. What's done is done."

#1510 — No use crying over spilt milk.

Means: Don't regret what cannot be undone.

Example: "We lost the money, but there's no use crying over spilt milk."

#1511 — There is no doubt.

Means: It is certain.

Example: "There is no doubt that he is the best candidate."

#1512 — Without a shadow of a doubt.

Means: With 100% certainty.

Example: "He is guilty without a shadow of a doubt."

#1513 — I am convinced that.

Means: I strongly believe.

Example: "I am convinced that we will succeed."

#1514 — Take my word for it.

Means: Trust what I am saying.

Example: "It's a great movie, take my word for it."

#1515 — Rest assured.

Means: Be certain/confident.

Example: "Rest assured, we are doing everything we can."

#1516 — It goes without saying.

Means: It is obvious.

Example: "It goes without saying that safety is our priority."

#1517 — Believe it or not.

Means: What I am about to say is surprising but true.

Example: "Believe it or not, I've never seen Star Wars."

#1518 — To be perfectly honest.

Means: Used to express a sincere opinion.

Example: "To be perfectly honest, I don't like the design."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1519 — In all honesty.

Means: Honestly speaking.

Example: "In all honesty, I forgot to call him."

#1520 — As a matter of fact.

Means: Actually; used to correct or add info.

Example: "I am not tired. As a matter of fact, I feel great."

#1521 — What I mean is.

Means: Used to clarify your previous statement.

Example: "It's cheap. What I mean is, it's good value."

#1522 — The point is.

Means: The most important thing is.

Example: "The point is, we need to finish this today."

#1523 — The thing is.

Means: Used to introduce a problem or explanation.

Example: "I want to go, but the thing is, I have no money."

#1524 — What matters is.

Means: The important thing is.

Example: "What matters is that you tried your best."

#1525 — It's not that... but...

Means: Clarifying a reason.

Example: "It's not that I don't like him, but we have nothing in common."

#1526 — For this reason.

Means: Because of this.

Example: "He lied to me. For this reason, I can't trust him."

#1527 — That's why.

Means: Therefore.

Example: "I woke up late. That's why I missed the bus."

#1528 — Because of.

Means: Due to.

Example: "We stayed home because of the rain."

#1529 — Thanks to.

Means: Because of (can be positive or ironic).

Example: "Thanks to your help, we finished on time."

#1530 — On account of.

Means: Because of (formal).

Example: "The game was stopped on account of the weather."

#1531 — Sort of.

Means: A little; somewhat (vague language).

Example: "I'm sort of hungry, but not really."

#1532 — Kind of.

Means: A little; somewhat.

Example: "It's kind of cold in here."

#1533 — Or something.

Means: Used when you are not sure/precise.

Example: "Do you want tea, coffee, or something?"

#1534 — More or less.

Means: Approximately.

Example: "The project is more or less finished."

#1535 — And so on.

Means: And other similar things.

Example: "We need paper, pens, glue, and so on."

#1536 — Stuff like that.

Means: Similar things (informal).

Example: "I like hiking, camping, and stuff like that."

#1537 — You know what I mean?

Means: Checking for understanding.

Example: "It's just too expensive, you know what I mean?"

#1538 — If you ask me.

Means: In my opinion.

Example: "If you ask me, it's a waste of time."

#1539 — I reckon.

Means: I think/believe (informal, UK/Australia).

Example: "I reckon it's going to rain later."

#1540 — I figure.

Means: I think/conclude.

Example: "I figure we have about an hour left."

#1541 — Chances are.

Means: It is likely that.

Example: "Chances are, he won't come."

#1542 — In all likelihood.

Means: Very probably.

Example: "In all likelihood, the price will go up."

#1543 — Bound to.

Means: Certain to happen.

Example: "Don't worry, he is bound to turn up soon."

#1544 — Might as well.

Means: Used to suggest doing something because there is no better alternative.

Example: "We're already here, we might as well see the movie."

#1545 — Suppose.

Means: To guess/assume.

Example: "I suppose you're right."

#1546 — Dare say.

Means: I assume/think probable.

Example: "I dare say he will be late again."

#1547 — Hard to tell.

Means: Difficult to know.

Example: "It's hard to tell who is winning."

#1548 — Give or take.

Means: Plus or minus a small amount.

Example: "It costs $100, give or take."

#1549 — To make matters worse.

Means: Adding a new problem to an existing one.

Example: "I lost my keys, and to make matters worse, it started raining."

#1550 — On top of that.

Means: Additionally (usually negative).

Example: "He was rude, and on top of that, he didn't pay."

#1551 — Let alone.

Means: Used to emphasize that something is even less likely.

Example: "I can't afford a bicycle, let alone a car."

#1552 — Not to mention.

Means: Plus; also.

Example: “The food was bad, not to mention expensive.”

#1553 — By the time.

Means: Before the moment that.

Example: “By the time we arrived, the movie had started.”

#1554 — For the time being.

Means: Temporarily.

Example: “We are staying here for the time being.”

#1555 — From now on.

Means: Starting now and continuing into the future.

Example: “From now on, I will exercise every day.”

#1556 — Sooner or later.

Means: Eventually.

Example: “You will have to tell the truth sooner or later.”

#1557 — At the same time.

Means: Simultaneously.

Example: “I can’t study and watch TV at the same time.”

#1558 — In the meantime.

Means: While waiting.

Example: “I’ll cook dinner. In the meantime, you can set the table.”

#1559 — Day in, day out.

Means: Every single day (boring routine).

Example: “He does the same job day in, day out.”

#1560 — Every other day.

Means: On alternate days.

Example: “I go to the gym every other day.”

#1561 — On a daily basis.

Means: Every day.

Example: “We deal with customers on a daily basis.”

#1562 — Once in a lifetime.

Means: Very rare opportunity.

Example: “This is a once in a lifetime chance.”

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1563 — For ages.

Means: For a very long time.

Example: "I haven't seen him for ages."

#1564 — In a heartbeat.

Means: Immediately; without hesitation.

Example: "I would help him in a heartbeat."

#1565 — Around the corner.

Means: Coming very soon.

Example: "Christmas is just around the corner."

#1566 — Lose track of time.

Means: To be unaware of what time it is.

Example: "I was reading and lost track of time."

#1567 — Kill time.

Means: To pass time while waiting.

Example: "We played cards to kill time at the airport."

#1568 — Take your time.

Means: Don't hurry.

Example: "No rush, take your time."

#1569 — Run out of time.

Means: To have no time left.

Example: "We ran out of time and couldn't finish the test."

#1570 — Make time.

Means: To clear your schedule for something.

Example: "You should make time for your friends."

#1571 — A piece of cake.

Means: Very easy.

Example: "The exam was a piece of cake."

#1572 — Bite off more than you can chew.

Means: Take on a task that is too big.

Example: "Don't bite off more than you can chew with this project."

#1573 — Break the ice.

Means: Make people feel comfortable.

Example: "He told a joke to break the ice."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1574 — Cost an arm and a leg.

Means: Very expensive.

Example: "That car costs an arm and a leg."

#1575 — Hit the nail on the head.

Means: Describe exactly what is causing a situation.

Example: "You hit the nail on the head with your analysis."

#1576 — Let the cat out of the bag.

Means: Reveal a secret.

Example: "Who let the cat out of the bag about the party?"

#1577 — Kill two birds with one stone.

Means: Solve two problems at once.

Example: "I cycled to work to save money and get fit. Killed two birds with one stone."

#1578 — Once in a blue moon.

Means: Very rarely.

Example: "He cooks dinner once in a blue moon."

#1579 — The best of both worlds.

Means: All the advantages.

Example: "She works part-time, so she has the best of both worlds."

#1580 — Speak of the devil.

Means: The person we were talking about appeared.

Example: "Speak of the devil! We were just talking about you."

#1581 — See eye to eye.

Means: Agreeing.

Example: "We don't always see eye to eye."

#1582 — When pigs fly.

Means: Something that will never happen.

Example: "He will clean his room when pigs fly."

#1583 — Feeling under the weather.

Means: Feeling sick.

Example: "I'm feeling a bit under the weather today."

#1584 — Ball is in your court.

Means: It's your decision now.

Example: "I've done my part, the ball is in your court."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1585 — Barking up the wrong tree.

Means: Accusing the wrong person.

Example: "You are barking up the wrong tree; I didn't do it."

#1586 — Burn bridges.

Means: Destroy relationships so you can't go back.

Example: "Don't burn bridges when you leave your job."

#1587 — Cut corners.

Means: Do something badly to save money.

Example: "They cut corners to build the house cheaply."

#1588 — Give the benefit of the doubt.

Means: Trust someone despite doubts.

Example: "I didn't see him steal it, so I gave him the benefit of the doubt."

#1589 — Hit the sack.

Means: Go to sleep.

Example: "I'm exhausted, time to hit the sack."

#1590 — It takes two to tango.

Means: Both people are responsible.

Example: "Don't blame only him; it takes two to tango."

#1591 — Jump on the bandwagon.

Means: Join a popular trend.

Example: "Everyone is getting an iPhone, so he jumped on the bandwagon."

#1592 — Last straw.

Means: The final problem that makes you lose patience.

Example: "Him being late was the last straw."

#1593 — Miss the boat.

Means: To be too late.

Example: "You missed the boat on that investment."

#1594 — Off the hook.

Means: No longer in trouble.

Example: "You are off the hook; you don't have to pay."

#1595 — Pull someone's leg.

Means: To joke with someone.

Example: "Relax, I'm just pulling your leg."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1596 — Sit on the fence.

Means: Undecided.

Example: "He is sitting on the fence about the election."

#1597 — Through thick and thin.

Means: In good times and bad.

Example: "She supported him through thick and thin."

#1598 — Time flies.

Means: Time passes quickly.

Example: "Time flies when you are having fun."

#1599 — Under the weather.

Means: Sick.

Example: "He is home, feeling under the weather."

#1600 — Your guess is as good as mine.

Means: I don't know either.

Example: "When will the bus come? Your guess is as good as mine."

#1601 — Heart of gold.

Means: Very kind and generous nature.

Example: "He looks tough, but he has a heart of gold."

#1602 — Smart cookie.

Means: A very intelligent person.

Example: "She learned the software in one day; she's a smart cookie."

#1603 — Tough cookie.

Means: A person who is physically or emotionally strong.

Example: "Don't worry about her, she is a tough cookie."

#1604 — Cold fish.

Means: Unfriendly and unemotional person.

Example: "I tried to be nice, but he is a bit of a cold fish."

#1605 — Dark horse.

Means: Someone with secret talents or surprises.

Example: "I didn't know he could sing! He is a dark horse."

#1606 — Chatterbox.

Means: Someone who talks a lot.

Example: "My little niece is such a chatterbox."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1607 — Wet blanket.

Means: A person who spoils other people's fun.

Example: "Don't be a wet blanket, come dance with us!"

#1608 — Loose cannon.

Means: Unpredictable person who might cause damage.

Example: "He is a loose cannon; we can't trust him with the press."

#1609 — Cheapskate.

Means: Someone who hates spending money (stingy).

Example: "He is such a cheapskate, he never tips the waiter."

#1610 — Go-getter.

Means: Someone ambitious and energetic.

Example: "We need a go-getter to lead the sales team."

#1611 — Know-it-all.

Means: Someone who thinks they know everything.

Example: "Nobody likes him because he acts like a know-it-all."

#1612 — Pushover.

Means: Someone easily influenced or defeated.

Example: "I am not a pushover; I won't do whatever you say."

#1613 — Control freak.

Means: Someone who wants to control everything.

Example: "My boss is a total control freak."

#1614 — Creature of habit.

Means: Someone who likes to do the same things every day.

Example: "He orders the same coffee every day; he is a creature of habit."

#1615 — Early adopter.

Means: Someone who buys new technology first.

Example: "He is an early adopter and always has the newest iPhone."

#1616 — Jack of all trades.

Means: Someone who can do many different jobs.

Example: "He can fix cars, cook, and code. He is a jack of all trades."

#1617 — Man of his word.

Means: Someone who keeps promises.

Example: "If he said he will help, he will. He is a man of his word."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1618 — Set in one's ways.

Means: Refusing to change habits.

Example: "My grandfather is set in his ways and hates new technology."

#1619 — Short fuse.

Means: Gets angry very easily.

Example: "Be careful, he has a short fuse today."

#1620 — Soft spot.

Means: A feeling of fondness/affection.

Example: "I have a soft spot for stray dogs."

#1621 — Have a heart.

Means: Be compassionate.

Example: "Don't fire him on Christmas. Have a heart!"

#1622 — Heart of stone.

Means: Unkind/cruel nature.

Example: "You must have a heart of stone not to cry at this movie."

#1623 — Pain in the neck.

Means: Very annoying person/thing.

Example: "Filling out these tax forms is a pain in the neck."

#1624 — Teacher's pet.

Means: The teacher's favorite student.

Example: "She gets good grades because she is the teacher's pet."

#1625 — Armchair critic.

Means: Someone who criticizes without doing anything.

Example: "Don't be an armchair critic; try doing it yourself."

#1626 — Busybody.

Means: Someone too interested in others' lives.

Example: "Our neighbor is a busybody who watches everyone."

#1627 — Worrywart.

Means: Someone who worries too much.

Example: "Relax, don't be such a worrywart."

#1628 — Slacker.

Means: Lazy person who avoids work.

Example: "He got fired because he was a slacker."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1629 — Daredevil.

Means: Someone who loves dangerous risks.

Example: "He is a daredevil who loves skydiving."

#1630 — Copycat.

Means: Someone who copies others.

Example: "She bought the same dress as me. She is such a copycat."

#1631 — Full of yourself.

Means: Arrogant.

Example: "He is so full of himself, he never listens."

#1632 — Life and soul of the party.

Means: Very energetic and fun person.

Example: "John was the life and soul of the party."

#1633 — Barrel of laughs.

Means: Very funny person.

Example: "He is a barrel of laughs, always telling jokes."

#1634 — Old soul.

Means: Someone who seems older/wiser than their age.

Example: "She is only 12, but she is an old soul."

#1635 — Free spirit.

Means: Someone who lives independently.

Example: "She quit her job to travel; she is a free spirit."

#1636 — Hidden gem.

Means: A great place that few people know.

Example: "This restaurant is a hidden gem in the city."

#1637 — Tourist trap.

Means: A place that attracts tourists and charges high prices.

Example: "Don't eat there, it's a tourist trap."

#1638 — Ghost town.

Means: A deserted place with no people.

Example: "After 9 PM, this street becomes a ghost town."

#1639 — Concrete jungle.

Means: A city with too many buildings and no nature.

Example: "New York is a concrete jungle."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1640 — Home away from home.

Means: A place where you feel as comfortable as at home.

Example: "I visit this cafe daily; it's my home away from home."

#1641 — Hustle and bustle.

Means: Busy and noisy activity.

Example: "I love the hustle and bustle of the market."

#1642 — Peace and quiet.

Means: Calm atmosphere.

Example: "I moved to the countryside for some peace and quiet."

#1643 — Stone's throw away.

Means: Very close distance.

Example: "The beach is just a stone's throw away."

#1644 — Right on your doorstep.

Means: Very near to where you live.

Example: "We have a park right on our doorstep."

#1645 — In the middle of nowhere.

Means: Far from civilization.

Example: "Their house is in the middle of nowhere."

#1646 — Off the beaten track.

Means: Away from tourist areas.

Example: "I like to travel off the beaten track."

#1647 — Breathtaking view.

Means: Extremely beautiful view.

Example: "The view from the top was breathtaking."

#1648 — Stunning scenery.

Means: Beautiful natural landscape.

Example: "Scotland is known for its stunning scenery."

#1649 — Run-down.

Means: In bad condition (building/area).

Example: "They bought a run-down house to renovate."

#1650 — Upmarket.

Means: Expensive and high quality.

Example: "She lives in an upmarket neighborhood."

#1651 — Pitch dark.

Means: Completely dark.

Example: "It was pitch dark outside."

#1652 — Crystal clear.

Means: Very clear / Easy to understand.

Example: "The water was crystal clear."

#1653 — Dirt cheap.

Means: Very cheap.

Example: "This phone was dirt cheap."

#1654 — Brand new.

Means: Completely new.

Example: "He bought a brand new car."

#1655 — Fast asleep.

Means: Sleeping deeply.

Example: "The baby is fast asleep."

#1656 — Wide awake.

Means: Fully awake.

Example: "I am wide awake after that coffee."

#1657 — Bone dry.

Means: Completely dry.

Example: "The ground is bone dry after the drought."

#1658 — Soaking wet.

Means: Completely wet.

Example: "I forgot my umbrella and got soaking wet."

#1659 — Freezing cold.

Means: Very cold.

Example: "Put on a coat, it's freezing cold."

#1660 — Boiling hot.

Means: Very hot.

Example: "It's boiling hot in here."

#1661 — Dead silent.

Means: Completely quiet.

Example: "The library was dead silent."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1662 — Rock hard.

Means: Very hard.

Example: "This bread is rock hard."

#1663 — Razor sharp.

Means: Very sharp.

Example: "Be careful, the knife is razor sharp."

#1664 — Paper thin.

Means: Very thin.

Example: "The walls in this hotel are paper thin."

#1665 — Lightning fast.

Means: Very fast.

Example: "His reflexes are lightning fast."

#1666 — Snail's pace.

Means: Very slow.

Example: "Traffic is moving at a snail's pace."

#1667 — Fit like a glove.

Means: Fit perfectly.

Example: "The dress fits like a glove."

#1668 — Eat like a horse.

Means: Eat a lot.

Example: "He is thin but eats like a horse."

#1669 — Sleep like a log.

Means: Sleep very well.

Example: "I was tired and slept like a log."

#1670 — Drink like a fish.

Means: Drink a lot of alcohol.

Example: "He used to drink like a fish."

#1671 — Work like a dog.

Means: Work very hard.

Example: "I worked like a dog all week."

#1672 — Sick as a dog.

Means: Very sick.

Example: "I was sick as a dog after the meal."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1673 — Blind as a bat.

Means: Can't see well.

Example: "Without my glasses, I am blind as a bat."

#1674 — Deaf as a post.

Means: Can't hear well.

Example: "You have to shout; he is deaf as a post."

#1675 — Quiet as a mouse.

Means: Very quiet.

Example: "She sat in the corner, quiet as a mouse."

#1676 — Busy as a bee.

Means: Very busy.

Example: "She is always busy as a bee."

#1677 — Light as a feather.

Means: Very light weight.

Example: "This box is light as a feather."

#1678 — Heavy as lead.

Means: Very heavy.

Example: "My legs felt heavy as lead."

#1679 — Cool as a cucumber.

Means: Very calm.

Example: "He remained cool as a cucumber during the crisis."

#1680 — Good as gold.

Means: Well behaved.

Example: "The kids were good as gold."

#1681 — Old as the hills.

Means: Very old.

Example: "That joke is as old as the hills."

#1682 — Stubborn as a mule.

Means: Very stubborn.

Example: "He won't listen; he is stubborn as a mule."

#1683 — Sly as a fox.

Means: Clever and tricky.

Example: "Be careful, he is sly as a fox."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1684 — Strong as an ox.

Means: Very strong.

Example: "He lifts weights and is strong as an ox."

#1685 — Fresh as a daisy.

Means: Full of energy.

Example: "After a nap, I felt fresh as a daisy."

#1686 — Flat as a pancake.

Means: Very flat.

Example: "My tire is flat as a pancake."

#1687 — Clear as mud.

Means: Not clear at all (ironic).

Example: "His explanation was clear as mud."

#1688 — Easy as pie.

Means: Very easy.

Example: "Fixing this is easy as pie."

#1689 — Hard nut to crack.

Means: Difficult person/problem.

Example: "He is a hard nut to crack."

#1690 — Class clown.

Means: Student who makes everyone laugh.

Example: "He was the class clown in high school."

#1691 — Social climber.

Means: Person trying to gain higher status.

Example: "She is a social climber who only talks to rich people."

#1692 — Gold digger.

Means: Person dating for money.

Example: "He thinks she is a gold digger."

#1693 — Average Joe.

Means: An ordinary person.

Example: "He's just an average Joe."

#1694 — Big shot.

Means: Important/powerful person.

Example: "He acts like a big shot."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1695 — Early bird.

Means: Person who wakes up early.

Example: "I am an early bird."

#1696 — Night owl.

Means: Person active at night.

Example: "My brother is a night owl."

#1697 — Fair-weather friend.

Means: Friend only in good times.

Example: "He left when I lost money; a fair-weather friend."

#1698 — Rolling stone.

Means: Person who moves often.

Example: "He is a rolling stone, never staying in one city."

#1699 — Wallflower.

Means: Shy person at parties.

Example: "She sat in the corner like a wallflower."

#1700 — Go-to person.

Means: The best person to ask for help.

Example: "Jane is the go-to person for IT problems."

#1701 — Gonna.

Means: Short for 'Going to'.

Example: "I'm gonna stay home tonight."

#1702 — Wanna.

Means: Short for 'Want to'.

Example: "Do you wanna grab a coffee?"

#1703 — Gotta.

Means: Short for 'Got to' (have to).

Example: "I gotta go, I'm late."

#1704 — Dunno.

Means: Short for 'Don't know'.

Example: "Where is he? - I dunno."

#1705 — Kinda.

Means: Short for 'Kind of' (a little).

Example: "I'm kinda hungry."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1706 — Sorta.

Means: Short for 'Sort of' (somewhat).

Example: "It's sorta cold in here."

#1707 — Lemme.

Means: Short for 'Let me'.

Example: "Lemme check my calendar."

#1708 — Gimme.

Means: Short for 'Give me'.

Example: "Gimme a second, I'm almost done."

#1709 — Outta.

Means: Short for 'Out of'.

Example: "Get outta here!"

#1710 — Whatcha.

Means: Short for 'What are you'.

Example: "Whatcha doing tonight?"

#1711 — Ya.

Means: You.

Example: "See ya later!"

#1712 — Nope.

Means: Casual way to say 'No'.

Example: "Are you busy? - Nope."

#1713 — Yep.

Means: Casual way to say 'Yes'.

Example: "Did you eat? - Yep."

#1714 — Nah.

Means: No (very informal).

Example: "Do you want to come? - Nah, I'm tired."

#1715 — Yeah right.

Means: Sarcastic way to say 'I don't believe you'.

Example: "You won the lottery? Yeah right."

#1716 — No sweat.

Means: No problem; easy.

Example: "Can you fix it? - No sweat."

#1717 — Gotcha.

Means: I understand.

Example: "Bring the keys. - Gotcha."

#1718 — My bad.

Means: My mistake.

Example: "I stepped on your foot. My bad."

#1719 — Whatever.

Means: I don't care.

Example: "You can do whatever you want."

#1720 — For real?

Means: Are you serious?

Example: "He quit his job? For real?"

#1721 — No biggie.

Means: It's not a big problem.

Example: "You're late, but no biggie."

#1722 — Sick.

Means: Very cool/awesome (slang).

Example: "Your new car is sick!"

#1723 — Lamé.

Means: Boring or uncool.

Example: "That party was so lame."

#1724 — Awesome.

Means: Very good.

Example: "The concert was awesome."

#1725 — Bummer.

Means: A disappointing situation.

Example: "It started raining. What a bummer."

#1726 — Sucks.

Means: Is very bad (slang).

Example: "This movie sucks."

#1727 — Sweet.

Means: Nice/Good.

Example: "I got a promotion! - Sweet!"

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1728 — Cool.

Means: Good/Okay.

Example: "Is 5 PM cool with you?"

#1729 — Chill.

Means: Relaxed.

Example: "He is a very chill guy."

#1730 — Hang tight.

Means: Wait a moment.

Example: "Hang tight, I'll be right back."

#1731 — Hold up.

Means: Wait.

Example: "Hold up, I forgot my phone."

#1732 — Heads up.

Means: Warning.

Example: "Just a heads up, the boss is angry today."

#1733 — In a bit.

Means: Soon.

Example: "I'll see you in a bit."

#1734 — Later.

Means: Goodbye (slang).

Example: "I gotta go. Later!"

#1735 — Take care.

Means: Goodbye.

Example: "See you tomorrow. Take care."

#1736 — Have a good one.

Means: Have a nice day.

Example: "Bye! Have a good one."

#1737 — Cheesy.

Means: Silly or too emotional.

Example: "That romantic movie was so cheesy."

#1738 — Tacky.

Means: Cheap looking/bad taste.

Example: "Her dress was a bit tacky."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1739 — Fishy.

Means: Suspicious.

Example: "That deal sounds fishy."

#1740 — Dicey.

Means: Risky or dangerous.

Example: "Driving in this snow is a bit dicey."

#1741 — Sketchy.

Means: Dishonest or dangerous.

Example: "Don't go to that neighborhood, it's sketchy."

#1742 — Pricey.

Means: Expensive.

Example: "That restaurant is a bit pricey."

#1743 — Rip-off.

Means: Too expensive/Fraud.

Example: "$10 for a soda? That's a rip-off."

#1744 — Bucks.

Means: Dollars.

Example: "It costs fifty bucks."

#1745 — Grand.

Means: Thousand (dollars/pounds).

Example: "He paid two grand for that car."

#1746 — Quid.

Means: Pounds (UK slang).

Example: "Can you lend me ten quid?"

#1747 — Broke.

Means: Having no money.

Example: "I can't come out, I'm broke."

#1748 — Loaded.

Means: Very rich.

Example: "He drives a Ferrari, he must be loaded."

#1749 — Cheapskate.

Means: Stingy person.

Example: "Don't be a cheapskate, leave a tip."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1750 — Freebie.

Means: Something given for free.

Example: "We got some freebies at the conference."

#1751 — No way!

Means: I don't believe it / Definitely not.

Example: "You met Brad Pitt? No way!"

#1752 — Shut up!

Means: Expression of disbelief (slang).

Example: "You won the lottery? Shut up!"

#1753 — Get out!

Means: Disbelief (similar to Shut up).

Example: "Get out! I don't believe you."

#1754 — You bet.

Means: Certainly.

Example: "Will you help me? - You bet."

#1755 — Sure thing.

Means: Yes, of course.

Example: "Can I borrow your pen? - Sure thing."

#1756 — Okey-dokey.

Means: Playful way to say OK.

Example: "Okey-dokey, let's go."

#1757 — Easy peasy.

Means: Very easy.

Example: "The test was easy peasy."

#1758 — Piece of cake.

Means: Very easy.

Example: "Cooking pasta is a piece of cake."

#1759 — Not my cup of tea.

Means: I don't like it.

Example: "Horror movies are not my cup of tea."

#1760 — It beats me.

Means: I have no idea.

Example: "Why did he do that? - It beats me."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1761 — Who knows?

Means: Nobody knows.

Example: "When will the bus come? Who knows?"

#1762 — I'm game.

Means: I am willing to participate.

Example: "Do you want to play tennis? - I'm game."

#1763 — I'm in.

Means: I want to participate.

Example: "We are going for pizza. - I'm in!"

#1764 — I'm out.

Means: I don't want to participate.

Example: "If it's scary, I'm out."

#1765 — Same here.

Means: Me too.

Example: "I'm tired. - Same here."

#1766 — Ditto.

Means: I agree / Me too.

Example: "I love pizza. - Ditto."

#1767 — Shotgun.

Means: Claiming the front passenger seat.

Example: "I call shotgun!"

#1768 — Ditch.

Means: To leave or skip something.

Example: "Let's ditch class and go to the beach."

#1769 — Busted.

Means: Caught doing something wrong.

Example: "You were busted cheating on the test."

#1770 — Jinx.

Means: Bad luck.

Example: "Don't say we will win, you might jinx it."

#1771 — Knock on wood.

Means: To prevent bad luck.

Example: "I haven't been sick yet, knock on wood."

#1772 — Bless you.

Means: Said when someone sneezes.

Example: "Achoo! - Bless you."

#1773 — Gross.

Means: Disgusting.

Example: "Eww, that food looks gross."

#1774 — Yuck.

Means: Expression of disgust.

Example: "Yuck! This milk is sour."

#1775 — Yum.

Means: Expression of deliciousness.

Example: "Yum! This cake is delicious."

#1776 — Ouch.

Means: Expression of pain.

Example: "Ouch! I bit my tongue."

#1777 — Oops.

Means: Expression for a small mistake.

Example: "Oops, I dropped my pen."

#1778 — Uh-oh.

Means: Expression of concern/trouble.

Example: "Uh-oh, I think I broke it."

#1779 — Wow.

Means: Expression of amazement.

Example: "Wow, that's amazing!"

#1780 — Phew.

Means: Expression of relief.

Example: "Phew, that was close."

#1781 — Duh.

Means: That is obvious.

Example: "The sky is blue. - Duh!"

#1782 — Meh.

Means: Indifference / Not great.

Example: "How was the movie? - Meh, it was okay."

#1783 — Lit.

Means: Exciting/Excellent (Modern slang).

Example: "That party was lit!"

#1784 — Slay.

Means: To do something exceptionally well.

Example: "You slayed that performance!"

#1785 — Salty.

Means: Upset or bitter (slang).

Example: "He is salty because he lost the game."

#1786 — Shade.

Means: Disrespect.

Example: "She threw shade at her ex-boyfriend."

#1787 — Tea.

Means: Gossip (slang).

Example: "Spill the tea! What happened?"

#1788 — Flex.

Means: To show off.

Example: "He is trying to flex with his new watch."

#1789 — Cringe.

Means: Embarrassing/Awkward.

Example: "That video was so cringe."

#1790 — Vibe.

Means: Feeling/Atmosphere.

Example: "I like the vibe of this cafe."

#1791 — Mood.

Means: Relatable feeling.

Example: "That sleepy cat is a mood."

#1792 — Squad.

Means: Group of friends.

Example: "I'm going out with my squad tonight."

#1793 — Fam.

Means: Close friends/family.

Example: "What's up, fam?"

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1794 — Ghost.

Means: To stop replying suddenly.

Example: "He ghosted me after the first date."

#1795 — Low key.

Means: Secretly/Modestly.

Example: "I low key want to go home."

#1796 — High key.

Means: Openly/Very.

Example: "I high key love this song."

#1797 — Hanger.

Means: Hunger + Anger.

Example: "Sorry I shouted, it was just hanger."

#1798 — Bromance.

Means: Close friendship between men.

Example: "They have a serious bromance going on."

#1799 — Photobomb.

Means: To jump into a photo unexpectedly.

Example: "He photobombed our selfie."

#1800 — Selfie.

Means: A photo taken of oneself.

Example: "Let's take a selfie."

#1801 — Commute.

Means: Traveling to and from work daily.

Example: "My daily commute takes 45 minutes."

#1802 — Rush hour.

Means: Time of day with heaviest traffic.

Example: "Avoid driving during rush hour."

#1803 — Stuck in traffic.

Means: Unable to move due to cars.

Example: "Sorry I'm late, I was stuck in traffic."

#1804 — Traffic jam.

Means: A line of cars not moving.

Example: "There is a huge traffic jam on the highway."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1805 — Bumper to bumper.

Means: Heavy traffic with cars very close together.

Example: "Traffic was bumper to bumper all the way home."

#1806 — Gridlock.

Means: Traffic so bad no one can move.

Example: "The city center is in total gridlock."

#1807 — Carpool.

Means: Sharing a car ride with others.

Example: "We carpool to work to save gas money."

#1808 — Give someone a lift.

Means: To drive someone to a destination.

Example: "Can you give me a lift to the station?"

#1809 — Pick up.

Means: To collect someone in a car.

Example: "I will pick you up at 7 PM."

#1810 — Drop off.

Means: To take someone to a place and leave them.

Example: "Can you drop me off at the corner?"

#1811 — Hop in.

Means: Get in the car (informal).

Example: "I'm leaving now, hop in!"

#1812 — Buckle up.

Means: Fasten your seatbelt.

Example: "Buckle up, it's going to be a bumpy ride."

#1813 — Shotgun.

Means: The front passenger seat (slang).

Example: "I call shotgun!"

#1814 — Backseat driver.

Means: Passenger who gives unwanted driving advice.

Example: "Stop being a backseat driver and let me drive."

#1815 — Road rage.

Means: Aggressive behavior by a driver.

Example: "He shouted at me in a fit of road rage."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1816 — Pull over.

Means: To stop the car at the side of the road.

Example: "The police signaled him to pull over."

#1817 — Speeding.

Means: Driving faster than allowed.

Example: "He got a ticket for speeding."

#1818 — Run out of gas.

Means: To have no fuel left.

Example: "We ran out of gas in the middle of nowhere."

#1819 — Fill up.

Means: To put gas in the car.

Example: "We need to stop and fill up the tank."

#1820 — Flat tire.

Means: A tire with no air.

Example: "I was late because I had a flat tire."

#1821 — Break down.

Means: When a car stops working.

Example: "My old car breaks down all the time."

#1822 — Tow truck.

Means: Vehicle used to move broken cars.

Example: "We had to call a tow truck."

#1823 — Jump start.

Means: Starting a car with a dead battery using cables.

Example: "Can you help me jump start my car?"

#1824 — Parking spot.

Means: A space to park a car.

Example: "It is hard to find a parking spot here."

#1825 — Parking ticket.

Means: Fine for illegal parking.

Example: "I parked there for 5 minutes and got a parking ticket."

#1826 — Public transport.

Means: Buses, trains, subways.

Example: "I use public transport to get to work."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1827 — Catch the bus.

Means: To get on a bus.

Example: "I have to run to catch the bus."

#1828 — Miss the bus.

Means: To arrive too late for the bus.

Example: "If we miss the bus, we'll have to walk."

#1829 — Get on.

Means: To board (bus/train/plane).

Example: "Let's get on the train before it leaves."

#1830 — Get off.

Means: To leave (bus/train/plane).

Example: "We need to get off at the next stop."

#1831 — Transfer.

Means: To change from one vehicle to another.

Example: "You have to transfer to Line 2 at Central Station."

#1832 — Fare.

Means: The money you pay for a ride.

Example: "How much is the bus fare?"

#1833 — Valid ticket.

Means: A ticket that can be used.

Example: "Make sure you have a valid ticket."

#1834 — On foot.

Means: Walking.

Example: "We decided to go there on foot."

#1835 — Jaywalk.

Means: To cross the street illegally.

Example: "Don't jaywalk, use the crossing."

#1836 — Zebra crossing.

Means: Striped place to cross the road.

Example: "Wait for the cars to stop at the zebra crossing."

#1837 — Pedestrian.

Means: Person walking.

Example: "This street is for pedestrians only."

#1838 — Sidewalk.

Means: Path on the side of the road for walking.

Example: "Stay on the sidewalk, it's safer."

#1839 — Shortcut.

Means: A quicker way to get somewhere.

Example: "I know a shortcut through the park."

#1840 — Dead end.

Means: A street with no exit.

Example: "We turned down a dead end street."

#1841 — Roundabout.

Means: Circular intersection.

Example: "Take the second exit at the roundabout."

#1842 — U-turn.

Means: Turning 180 degrees to go back.

Example: "You missed the turn, make a U-turn."

#1843 — One-way street.

Means: Traffic moves only in one direction.

Example: "You can't turn left, it's a one-way street."

#1844 — Intersection.

Means: Where two roads cross.

Example: "Turn right at the intersection."

#1845 — Traffic light.

Means: Signal with Red, Yellow, Green.

Example: "Stop at the traffic light."

#1846 — Get lost.

Means: To not know where you are.

Example: "I took a wrong turn and got lost."

#1847 — Ask for directions.

Means: To ask someone the way.

Example: "We had to stop and ask for directions."

#1848 — Lost and found.

Means: Place where lost items are kept.

Example: "I found my umbrella at the lost and found."

#1849 — Book a ride.

Means: To order an Uber/Taxi via app.

Example: "I'll book a ride on my phone."

#1850 — ETA.

Means: Estimated Time of Arrival.

Example: "My ETA is 5 minutes."

#1851 — On my way.

Means: I am coming now.

Example: "Don't worry, I am on my way."

#1852 — Almost there.

Means: Very close to arriving.

Example: "Hold on, I am almost there."

#1853 — Running late.

Means: Behind schedule.

Example: "The train was delayed, so I am running late."

#1854 — Just around the corner.

Means: Very near.

Example: "The shop is just around the corner."

#1855 — Within walking distance.

Means: Close enough to walk.

Example: "Is the hotel within walking distance?"

#1856 — A stone's throw.

Means: Very short distance.

Example: "We live a stone's throw from the beach."

#1857 — Mile away.

Means: Very far.

Example: "The nearest gas station is miles away."

#1858 — Block.

Means: Section of a city street.

Example: "Walk three blocks and turn left."

#1859 — Downtown.

Means: City center.

Example: "We are going downtown for dinner."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1860 — Suburbs.

Means: Residential areas outside the city.

Example: "They moved to the suburbs for a quiet life."

#1861 — Outskirts.

Means: The outer edge of a city.

Example: "The factory is on the outskirts of town."

#1862 — District.

Means: Area of a city.

Example: "The fashion district is very busy."

#1863 — Landmark.

Means: Famous building or place.

Example: "The Eiffel Tower is a famous landmark."

#1864 — Skyscraper.

Means: Very tall building.

Example: "New York is full of skyscrapers."

#1865 — Bus stop.

Means: Place to wait for the bus.

Example: "I'll meet you at the bus stop."

#1866 — Train station.

Means: Place to get on a train.

Example: "The train station is crowded."

#1867 — Platform.

Means: Area to wait for train.

Example: "The train to London leaves from Platform 9."

#1868 — Terminal.

Means: Building at an airport.

Example: "My flight leaves from Terminal 2."

#1869 — Boarding gate.

Means: Place to get on the plane.

Example: "Go to boarding gate B12 immediately."

#1870 — Customs.

Means: Place where luggage is checked at borders.

Example: "It took an hour to get through customs."

#1871 — Passport control.

Means: Check of ID at borders.

Example: "Have your passport ready for passport control."

#1872 — Baggage claim.

Means: Place to pick up luggage.

Example: "Meet me at the baggage claim area."

#1873 — Carry-on.

Means: Small bag taken on plane.

Example: "I only have a carry-on bag."

#1874 — Checked luggage.

Means: Large bags put in the plane hold.

Example: "You have to pay extra for checked luggage."

#1875 — Oversized.

Means: Too big.

Example: "Your bag is oversized."

#1876 — Delayed.

Means: Late.

Example: "The flight is delayed by two hours."

#1877 — Cancelled.

Means: Not happening.

Example: "My train was cancelled."

#1878 — On time.

Means: At the scheduled time.

Example: "The bus arrived exactly on time."

#1879 — Take off.

Means: Plane leaving the ground.

Example: "We are ready for take off."

#1880 — Land.

Means: Plane touching the ground.

Example: "We will land in 10 minutes."

#1881 — Jet lag.

Means: Tiredness after long flight.

Example: "I need to sleep, I have jet lag."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1882 — Stopover / Layover.

Means: A break in a journey.

Example: "We have a 4-hour layover in Dubai."

#1883 — Direct flight.

Means: Flight with no stops.

Example: "I prefer a direct flight."

#1884 — Economy class.

Means: Standard seating.

Example: "I flew economy class to save money."

#1885 — Business class.

Means: More expensive, comfortable seating.

Example: "Business class is much more comfortable."

#1886 — Aisle seat.

Means: Seat next to the walkway.

Example: "I like the aisle seat so I can move."

#1887 — Window seat.

Means: Seat next to the window.

Example: "I want the window seat to see the view."

#1888 — Seatbelt.

Means: Safety strap.

Example: "Please fasten your seatbelt."

#1889 — Life vest.

Means: Safety jacket for water.

Example: "The life vest is under your seat."

#1890 — Turbulence.

Means: Bumpy movement in air.

Example: "We experienced some turbulence."

#1891 — Motion sickness.

Means: Feeling sick from movement.

Example: "I get motion sickness in cars."

#1892 — Travel light.

Means: Travel with little luggage.

Example: "It's a short trip, so travel light."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1893 — Hit the road.

Means: Start a journey.

Example: "Let's hit the road before traffic gets bad."

#1894 — Off the beaten track.

Means: Remote places.

Example: "We like to go off the beaten track."

#1895 — Tourist trap.

Means: Place expensive for tourists.

Example: "That market is just a tourist trap."

#1896 — Backpacker.

Means: Budget traveler with a backpack.

Example: "The hostel was full of backpackers."

#1897 — Sightseeing.

Means: Visiting famous places.

Example: "We spent the day sightseeing in Rome."

#1898 — Souvenir.

Means: Item bought to remember a place.

Example: "I bought a magnet as a souvenir."

#1899 — Itinerary.

Means: Plan of a journey.

Example: "Our itinerary includes Paris and London."

#1900 — Safe travels.

Means: Wish for a good journey.

Example: "Goodbye and safe travels!"

#1901 — Practice makes perfect.

Means: Doing something repeatedly improves your skill.

Example: "Don't give up on English. Practice makes perfect."

#1902 — Knowledge is power.

Means: Education gives you control and opportunity.

Example: "Read as much as you can. Knowledge is power."

#1903 — No guts, no glory.

Means: You must take risks to achieve success.

Example: "I'm going to ask for that promotion. No guts, no glory."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1904 — The sky is the limit.

Means: There is no limit to what you can achieve.

Example: "You are talented; for you, the sky is the limit."

#1905 — Rome wasn't built in a day.

Means: Great things take time.

Example: "Be patient with your business. Rome wasn't built in a day."

#1906 — Better late than never.

Means: Doing something late is better than not doing it.

Example: "You finally finished the book! Better late than never."

#1907 — Where there's a will, there's a way.

Means: If you want something enough, you will find a way.

Example: "It seems impossible, but where there's a will, there's a way."

#1908 — Two heads are better than one.

Means: Working together helps solve problems.

Example: "Let's work on this together. Two heads are better than one."

#1909 — Honesty is the best policy.

Means: It is always better to tell the truth.

Example: "Just tell him what happened. Honesty is the best policy."

#1910 — Laughter is the best medicine.

Means: Being happy helps you feel better.

Example: "Watch a funny movie. Laughter is the best medicine."

#1911 — Actions speak louder than words.

Means: What you do is more important than what you say.

Example: "Stop promising and start doing. Actions speak louder than words."

#1912 — Don't judge a book by its cover.

Means: Don't judge someone/something by appearance.

Example: "He looks messy but he is a genius. Don't judge a book by its cover."

#1913 — Every cloud has a silver lining.

Means: There is something good in every bad situation.

Example: "I lost my job but found a better one. Every cloud has a silver lining."

#1914 — What goes around comes around.

Means: Karma; you get what you give.

Example: "He was mean, and now he has no friends. What goes around comes around."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1915 — Burn the midnight oil.

Means: To work late into the night.

Example: "I have to burn the midnight oil to finish this report."

#1916 — Go the extra mile.

Means: To do more than is expected.

Example: "She always goes the extra mile for her customers."

#1917 — Keep your eyes on the prize.

Means: Stay focused on your goal.

Example: "Ignore the distractions and keep your eyes on the prize."

#1918 — Think big.

Means: To have ambitious goals.

Example: "Don't limit yourself. Think big."

#1919 — Carpe diem.

Means: Seize the day (Latin).

Example: "Enjoy the moment. Carpe diem."

#1920 — Fortune favors the bold.

Means: Luck comes to those who take risks.

Example: "Ask her out! Fortune favors the bold."

#1921 — On a roll.

Means: Having a series of successes.

Example: "We won five games in a row; we are on a roll."

#1922 — Ace a test.

Means: To get a perfect score.

Example: "I studied hard and aced the test."

#1923 — Nailed it.

Means: Did something perfectly.

Example: "Did you see my presentation? I nailed it."

#1924 — Knock it out of the park.

Means: To do something exceptionally well.

Example: "She knocked it out of the park with that speech."

#1925 — Hit the jackpot.

Means: To have great success/luck.

Example: "I hit the jackpot with this job."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1926 — Pass with flying colors.

Means: To succeed easily.

Example: "He passed the driving test with flying colors."

#1927 — Steal the show.

Means: To get all the attention.

Example: "The little girl stole the show at the wedding."

#1928 — Save the day.

Means: To solve a difficult problem at the last minute.

Example: "The computer crashed, but IT saved the day."

#1929 — Top notch.

Means: Excellent quality.

Example: "The service at this hotel is top notch."

#1930 — State of the art.

Means: Very modern technology.

Example: "We use state of the art equipment."

#1931 — Cut above the rest.

Means: Better than others.

Example: "This car is a cut above the rest."

#1932 — Cream of the crop.

Means: The best of a group.

Example: "These students are the cream of the crop."

#1933 — Pat on the back.

Means: Praise for a job well done.

Example: "You deserve a pat on the back for your hard work."

#1934 — Hat trick.

Means: Three successes in a row.

Example: "He scored a hat trick in the game."

#1935 — Win-win situation.

Means: Good for everyone involved.

Example: "It's a win-win situation for both companies."

#1936 — Smooth sailing.

Means: Easy progress without problems.

Example: "Once we started, it was smooth sailing."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1937 — Ahead of the curve.

Means: More advanced than competitors.

Example: "Our technology keeps us ahead of the curve."

#1938 — Break a record.

Means: To do something better than ever before.

Example: "He ran fast enough to break a record."

#1939 — Come a long way.

Means: To make great progress.

Example: "Technology has come a long way since the 90s."

#1940 — Go far.

Means: To be successful in the future.

Example: "He is talented; he will go far."

#1941 — Twist someone's arm.

Means: To persuade someone to do something.

Example: "I didn't want to go, but he twisted my arm."

#1942 — Stab in the back.

Means: To betray someone.

Example: "I trusted him, but he stabbed me in the back."

#1943 — Lose your touch.

Means: To lose an ability you used to have.

Example: "He used to be a great player, but he lost his touch."

#1944 — Up to speed.

Means: Having the latest information.

Example: "Let me bring you up to speed on the project."

#1945 — On the fence.

Means: Undecided.

Example: "I'm still on the fence about buying the car."

#1946 — Over the top.

Means: Too extreme.

Example: "Her reaction was a bit over the top."

#1947 — Play it cool.

Means: To hide your excitement/fear.

Example: "When you see him, just play it cool."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1948 — Keep your cool.

Means: To stay calm.

Example: "He managed to keep his cool during the argument."

#1949 — Lose your cool.

Means: To get angry.

Example: "Don't lose your cool over small things."

#1950 — Take a hike.

Means: Go away (rude).

Example: "I'm busy, take a hike."

#1951 — Beat it.

Means: Leave immediately (slang).

Example: "This is private property, beat it."

#1952 — Buzz off.

Means: Go away (slang).

Example: "Tell him to buzz off."

#1953 — Knock it off.

Means: Stop doing that (annoying thing).

Example: "Knock it off! I'm trying to sleep."

#1954 — Cut it out.

Means: Stop it.

Example: "Cut it out, you're being annoying."

#1955 — Get off my back.

Means: Stop criticizing/pressuring me.

Example: "I'll do the dishes later, get off my back."

#1956 — For crying out loud.

Means: Expression of frustration.

Example: "For crying out loud, just answer the phone!"

#1957 — For god's sake.

Means: Expression of anger/frustration.

Example: "Hurry up for god's sake."

#1958 — Oh my gosh.

Means: Expression of surprise.

Example: "Oh my gosh, look at that!"

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1959 — Holy cow.

Means: Expression of shock.

Example: "Holy cow, that is a huge burger."

#1960 — Fingers crossed.

Means: Hoping for good luck.

Example: "I have an interview today, fingers crossed."

#1961 — Touch wood.

Means: Said to prevent bad luck.

Example: "I haven't been sick yet, touch wood."

#1962 — Break a leg.

Means: Good luck (performance).

Example: "Go on stage and break a leg!"

#1963 — From scratch.

Means: From the very beginning.

Example: "I baked this cake from scratch."

#1964 — In a nutshell.

Means: To summarize briefly.

Example: "In a nutshell, we need more money."

#1965 — Long story short.

Means: To tell only the main points.

Example: "Long story short, we missed the plane."

#1966 — The bottom line.

Means: The most important fact.

Example: "The bottom line is we need to work harder."

#1967 — Big deal.

Means: Something important.

Example: "Don't worry, it's not a big deal."

#1968 — Game over.

Means: The end of a situation.

Example: "If he finds out, it's game over for us."

#1969 — Call it a day.

Means: To stop working.

Example: "We're tired, let's call it a day."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1970 — Call it a night.

Means: To stop evening activities.

Example: "I'm sleepy, I'm going to call it a night."

#1971 — Call it a wrap.

Means: To finish filming/working successfully.

Example: "Okay everyone, call it a wrap!"

#1972 — That's a wrap.

Means: It is finished.

Example: "And that's a wrap on the project."

#1973 — The end of the line.

Means: The point where something stops.

Example: "This bus goes to the end of the line."

#1974 — Finish line.

Means: The end of a race/project.

Example: "We are close to the finish line now."

#1975 — Mission accomplished.

Means: We did it successfully.

Example: "We finished the report. Mission accomplished."

#1976 — We made it.

Means: We achieved success/arrived.

Example: "It was a long drive, but we made it."

#1977 — Time to say goodbye.

Means: Leaving moment.

Example: "It's getting late, time to say goodbye."

#1978 — All good things come to an end.

Means: Nothing lasts forever.

Example: "The vacation is over. All good things come to an end."

#1979 — See you on the other side.

Means: See you after a big event.

Example: "Good luck with the exam, see you on the other side."

#1980 — Stay in touch.

Means: Maintain contact.

Example: "I'm moving, but let's stay in touch."

Created by English Flow – 2026

 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1981 — Don't be a stranger.

Means: Visit or call soon.

Example: "Come visit us again, don't be a stranger."

#1982 — Farewell.

Means: Goodbye (formal).

Example: "We had a farewell party for him."

#1983 — Bon voyage.

Means: Have a good trip.

Example: "They are going to Paris. Bon voyage!"

#1984 — Safe travels.

Means: Travel safely.

Example: "Enjoy your holiday and safe travels."

#1985 — Best wishes.

Means: Hoping for good things for someone.

Example: "Give him my best wishes."

#1986 — Take care.

Means: Goodbye/Be safe.

Example: "It was nice seeing you. Take care."

#1987 — Look after yourself.

Means: Take care of yourself.

Example: "You look tired, look after yourself."

#1988 — Godspeed.

Means: Success and safety (old fashioned/dramatic).

Example: "Good luck on your mission, Godspeed."

#1989 — Until next time.

Means: See you later.

Example: "That's all for today. Until next time!"

#1990 — Over and out.

Means: Communication ended (radio style).

Example: "I'm going to sleep now. Over and out."

#1991 — Turn over a new leaf.

Means: To start behaving in a better way.

Example: "He stopped smoking and turned over a new leaf."

Created by English Flow – 2026

👉 Live search version (click): Chunks Database

More Practice: English Flow: The Podcast – YouTube

#1992 — A fresh start.

Means: New beginning.

Example: "Moving to a new city gave him a fresh start."

#1993 — Clean slate.

Means: Starting again with no mistakes.

Example: "Let's forgive each other and start with a clean slate."

#1994 — Back to square one.

Means: Back to the beginning after failure.

Example: "The plan failed, so we are back to square one."

#1995 — Full circle.

Means: Returning to the original position.

Example: "Fashion trends always come full circle."

#1996 — Once and for all.

Means: Finally and completely.

Example: "Let's solve this problem once and for all."

#1997 — The cherry on top.

Means: The final thing that makes something perfect.

Example: "The weather was great, and the free ice cream was the cherry on top."

#1998 — Icing on the cake.

Means: Something that makes a good situation even better.

Example: "I got the job, and the company car was the icing on the cake."

#1999 — Grand finale.

Means: The impressive end of a show.

Example: "The fireworks were a spectacular grand finale."

#2000 — This is it.

Means: The moment has arrived.

Example: "This is it! You have learned 2000 English chunks!"